Rule 96.—The space measured off for emigrants shall be fitted along the sides of the vessel with (a) a boarding three feet high, rising from the plank sheer of the vessel; and (b) thick and sound canvas curtains, hanging from roof to deck, with ventilating space under the eaves, and fastening closely to the deck below. But from the month of October to March, both inclusive, the three-feet boarding shall completely enclose the emigrants' deck space, and, besides the side curtains, there shall be similar curtains hung, one at each end of the deck, so as to convert the entire space allotted to emigrants into a thoroughly sheltered compartment, with ventilating spaces near the roof for the exit of heated and unwholesome air. This large compartment, moreover, shall be sub-divided into three smaller compartments by means of similar boarding and curtains placed right across the deck space from one side of the vessel to the other; only that each such intermediate boarding shall be so constructed as to admit of its removal when necessary at the discretion of the Medical Officer in charge, and each such intermediate curtain, instead of being hung almost from the roof as the curtains at the sides and end, shall be hung at a height not exceeding six feet, measuring from the deck upwards, the space above being left clear and open for the purposes of free ventilation.

All fees received by a District Registrar shall be credited to Government in the same way as fees realized under the Indian Registration Act.

Disposal of fees.

18. When the attendance of a Mahomedan Registrar is required at the celebration of a marriage, the party requiring his attendance may make a written application to the Mahomedan Registrar, specifying the place and time of the marriage, and that officer may attend, provided the prescribed fees and expenses have been paid.

And every entry made under this section shall be attested by the witnesses in whose presence it was made.

And, in case a copy has been already sent to the Registrar, such person shall make and send another copy thereof, containing both the original erroneous entry and the marginal correction therein made.

33. No erasures shall be made with a knife in any register book or record, but mistakes shall be corrected, when necessary, with the pen, and shall be invariably attested by the registering officer. Corrections are not to be obliterated or blotted out, so as to be illegible; but a line is to be drawn through erroneous words with the pen, so that they may remain legible.

Refusal to register.

34. The circumstances under which registration of a marriage or divorce should be refused are as follows:—

(1.) If the marriage or divorce was not effected within the jurisdiction of the Marriage Registrar to whom application for registration is made.

(2.) If the application is not made by the persons specified in section 8 of the Act.

(5.) If the Mahomedan Registrar fail to satisfy himself that the marriage or divorce was effected by the person or persons by whom it is represented to have been effected.

(6.) If the Mahomedan Registrar fail to satisfy himself as to the identity of the persons appearing before him and alleging that the marriage has been effected.

(7.) In the case of any person appearing as the representative of the man or woman (whether he appear as guardian or as vakil), if the Mahomedan Registrar fail to satisfy himself of the right of such person to appear.

(8.) If one of the parties applying for registration of marriage, or if the man applying for the divorce, appear to be of unsound mind.

Refusal deferred.

35. In cases 2 and 8 the order of refusal shall ordinarily be deferred till one month has elapsed from the date on which the marriage or divorce was effected; but if the parties declare their inability to comply with the requirements of the law, or for any other reason wish that registration should at once be refused, this may be done.

36. The reasons for refusal to register to be recorded under section 20 shall be concisely and clearly stated in each particular case. When registration is refused under clause 5, 6, or 7 of rule 34, the Mahomedan Registrar shall record the grounds of his decision.

In what cases fees may be refunded.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 109.

The 4th April 1876.

UNDER Section 89 of Act X of 1871, the following annual accounts and reports of the District Road Committees of Dacca, Furreedpore, Backergunge, Mymensingh, and Tipperah, of works done and in progress during the past cess year 1874-75, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Dacca Division, are published for general information.

J. E. T. NICOLLS, Col., R.E.,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal, P. W. D.

No. 669, dated Dácca, the 17th December 1875.

From—D. R. LYALL, ESQ., Chairman of the Road Cess Committee, Dacca,
To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith a detailed account of receipts and expenditure of the District Road Fund for the year ending 30th September 1875 in the form prescribed by Government order, Department Public Works, No. 4952, of the 24th September 1872, and at the same time to submit the following report on the works done by the District Road Committee during that year and those proposed during the current year 1875-76, in accordance with the instructions contained in Government circular No. 50, of the 23rd July 1873.

2. The year opened with a balance of Rs. 15,698-15-7, and the receipts of the year came to Rs. 87,584-12-6, making a total of Rs. 1,03,283-12-1 as the available funds of this district for the year. Part II of the annual account shows in detail the sources from which the sum was derived There has been no grant made to this district during the year from provincial funds. The total expenditure for works and establishment, without taking in cost of the dredger, amounted to Rs. 53,819-0-11, of which Rs. 19,009-5-0 were disbursed on original works and Rs. 20,163-13-7 on repairs, aggregating Rs. 39,173-2-7. Of this outlay, Rs. 31,495-14-2 were spent through the Department Public Works.

3. The original works executed during the year consisted solely in finishing works begun last year. No new original work was begun owing to the refusal of Government to sanction, without more complete estimates and plans, the extension of the Goalundo road, one-third of which from Manickgunge to Shealo, a distance of 15½ miles, is completed. The Committee have taken advantage of the money thus unexpended in repaying in full the loan of Rs. 30,000 taken for the dredging machine, together with Rs. 686-4-0 on account of interest, and the Committee are now absolutely free from debt.

4. The accounts do not show this transaction fully, and I therefore explain it now.

The Committee borrowed Rs. 30,000 from Government under Act XXIV of 1871 for the purposes of paying their half of the total cost of the dredging machine. This was entered as a receipt in our accounts for the first quarter of the current year, but this was objected to by the Controller, who directed it to be entered as a deposit till paid off. This was done, and the amount was finally paid off in the fourth quarter.

This sum of Rs. 30,000, along with Rs. 5,000 in addition, was made over to the Executive Engineer, and the sum of Rs. 33,011-3-6 shown as an advance oustanding to credit of the Department Public Works really represents the sum of Rs. 35,000 paid for the dredger, minus some payments made by the Executive Engineer.

The cost of the dredger will appear in our accounts when the item is finally adjusted and charged in the Executive Engineer's accounts. I cannot, however, believe that the system of accounts can be correct in which no entry of a transaction like this occurs.

5. From the account submitted by the Dockyard authorities and the Controller of Public Works Accounts, it seems likely that the sum of Rs. 35,000 paid as stated above will more than cover the Committee's share of the total cost.

6. Owing to the great delay in putting the dredger together, a season has been lost. It is now ready, but some alterations suggested by Mr. Windle yet remain to be done to it before leaving Calcutta.

7. Works done in 1874-75:—

(1.) The 12 bridges on the Shealo Manickgunge road left unfinished last year have been completed this year at a cost of Rs. 8,487-13-10.

(2.) The current of water through the Shalkeah bridge being very strong and the water-way being insufficient to let out the water of the bheel in case of a sudden rise, another bridge was constructed near the Shalkeah bridge with a span of 20 feet, at an expenditure of Rs. 1,784-12.

(3.) A small sum of Rs. 81-2-3 was also spent during the year in filling earth to the approaches of Kistopoora and Katrasin Beel bridges, which were completed during the preceding year.

(4.) A bar which formed at the mouth of Panya khal excavated last year was removed at a cost of Rs. 332-7-3.

(5.) The inhabitants of Shikaritolah and neighbouring villages applied for a grant to deepen a small portion of the khal which runs by their village, and which had silted up.

Rs. 1,000 was given for the purpose. The khal was inspected by me, and I found that the money was properly expended. The work was done by the villagers.

(6.) On the application of the inhabitants of Brahmunketta, Sakta, and Bashta, a sum of Rs. 800 was granted out of the sudder sub-divisional allotment for the excavation of a portion of the Brahmunketta khal about 1¾ miles, which runs by their villages, and which had silted-up. This was also done by the villagers.

(7.) A grant of Rs. 1,500 was also made to Baboo Kali Kishore Gooho, a zemindar of Bickrampore, for finishing the Bujrojugni road, 4 miles, together with three wooden bridges situated on the line. This gentleman undertook the construction of the road and gave half the funds. The earthwork of this road was completed, but the three bridges remained to be done, which will be done during the current year.

(8.) An inspection bungalow was constructed at Mohadebpore, on the Goalundo road, at a cost of Rs. 579-9-6, as there is no point near the middle of the road to which a boat can go.

(9.) During the year under review the Kurnoparah khal and the Brahmapootra river have been surveyed at a cost of Rs. 181-6-8 and 646-6-3 respectively.

(10.) A portion of the proposed road from Peelkhana to the bank of the Dhullessuree, 10 miles, has been also surveyed and estimated for at a cost of Rs. 578-0-8, and the remaining portion, 15½ miles, between Fulbariah and Manickgunge, is now being surveyed with a view to the preparation of the complete estimates and plans of the whole line from Dacca to Manickgunge for submission to Government.

(11.) The section of the Goalundo road between Shealo and Manickgunge, a distance of 15½ miles, has been repaired, and the road was open for traffic all the year round. The expenditure incurred on it is Rs. 3,507-14-6, including cost of young trees. In consequence of the frequent injury done by cattle to the turfing of this road, especially during the rains, three pounds were constructed in the villages of Baniajoori, Mohadebpore, and Utholi. A large number of trees was also planted along the sides of the road, but many of these have died.

(12.) Mymensingh Road.—This road runs from beyond the race-course to Toke, on the Mymensingh boundary, a distance of 52 miles. It was repaired at an outlay of Rs. 2,145-13. The repairs consisted in levelling the surface, cutting jungle, and filling in ruts and holes. All the bridges on the line (52 masonry and 24 wooden) have been also put into working order at a total cost of Rs. 1,949-15, with the exception of the Toonghy bridge, which is in a dangerous state, and which is proposed to shortly replace by an iron bridge from the donation of Rs. 20,000, promised by Rajah Kally Narain Roy Chowdry Bahadoor. This last-named bridge has been closed to traffic entirely, and a ferry boat engaged in the Toonghy river for convenience of the public. One other bridge has also since given way, and will have to be replaced this year.

(13.) The remainder of the Naraingunge road, together with the portion (9th mile) between the main road and the railway steamer ghât, was metalled and the line put into thorough repair at a total cost of Rs. 7,387-2-9, and the Committee will have to incur but little expense on it for some years to come. The wooden, masonry, and the iron suspension bridges on this road, as well as the bamboo piling on the river bank at Pagla, on the 4th mile, were also repaired at a total cost of Rs. 1,319-13-0.

(14.) Petty repairs were also effected to the Kolatya road (9 miles) at an expenditure of Rs. 1,375, and ten temporary bamboo bridges erected thereon at a cost of Rs. 50, or Rs. 5 per bridge.

(15.) On the application of certain individuals the Mugbazar road, 1¾ mile, was fully repaired and cleared of jungles at a cost of Rs. 700, which was granted from the sudder sub-divisional allotment. The money was not given to the villagers, but the work was done by the Committee through a contractor.

(16.) On the whole, all the roads of this district were kept in fair order with the exception of the Moonsheegunge-Sreenugger road, which is 18¾ miles in length, and which requires extensive repairs. Six temporary bamboo bridges were, however, put up over the more important khals crossing this road at a cost of Rs. 30, in order to render foot traffic possible. The Kolatya road is also bad in parts.

(17.) The sum of Rs. 1,116-1-4, shewn against the Moonsheegunge-Sreenugger road on the expenditure side of the annual account, is on account of repairs executed last year, which, on account of the rise of floods, could not be correctly measured at the time.

(18.) The works executed by the Central Committee out of the sudder sub-divisional allotment of Rs. 2,000 have been detailed above. Those done by the Branch Committees are given separately. The Moonsheegunge Branch Committee deserve great credit for the way they are working their small grant. They spent their money economically and judiciously. The Manickgunge Committee has been less active, chiefly, I believe, owing to the frequent changes of the sub-divisional officers:—

8. During the whole year the works of the Committee were managed by the Public Works Department under the supervision of the District Engineer. During the year the Government Resolution regarding the reorganization of Public Works Establishments and the division of the districts into classes was issued, in which this district was placed in the list of first class districts; but the funds at disposal of the Committee not being sufficient to entertain the establishment necessary for a first class district, the Committee have applied to Government to have this district transferred to class II, but no final orders have yet been passed on the subject pending the settlement of some matters of detail. The question of payment by the Committee for Public Works Establishment charges, both for this year and for the future, agreeably to paragraph 41 of Government Resolution No. 1209, dated 8th March 1875, has been settled, and the arrangements generally approved of by Government, and the Committee have accordingly paid Rs. 4,056 as their contribution to the pay of the Executive Engineer and his office establishment for 1874-75, and Rs. 794-13-11 as travelling allowance, though this latter sum has been actually disbursed during the current year.

9. The following roads and khals were added during the year under review to the Vice-Chairman's statement under Section 66, and supplemental statements under Section 68 were prepared and submitted to your office:—

1. Road from Hazeegunge to Futoollah.
2. Kurnoparah khal.
3. Shikaritolah khal.

10. There have been five meetings of the Road Cess Committee during the year, at which there was an average attendance of seven out of twelve members, and the members transacted their business satisfactorily. Ten days' notice was given of every meeting, the business to be transacted at each meeting was duly notified, and no business which had not been previously notified was submitted for the consideration of the Committee. The Chairman presided at each meeting.

11. The works proposed to be carried out during the current year are detailed below. They have been brought before, and sanctioned by, the Committee:—

(1.) Repairs to the road from Manickgunge to Shealo, consisting of surface repairs, turfing, and earthwork in repair to slopes.

(2.) Repairs to metalling Naraingunge road, and also to bridges and spur work at Pagla.

(3.) New wing wall of a portion of the bridge beyond Kakertak, which has fallen down, to be rebuilt.

(4.) Ordinary annual repairs also to be done to the Mymensingh road and bridges, and also to the Kolatya road.

(5.) The Moonsheegunge-Sreenugger road, which is in a bad state, to be put into good order and bridges erected on the line.

(6.) Petty village works will be undertaken by the Central Committee and the Branch Committees of Moonsheegunge and Manickgunge, for which Rs. 6,000 have been allotted.

(7.) The Goalundo line of road from Dacca to Manickgunge will be extended and bridged as far as possible.

(8.) Survey operations to be done to the Taltolah khal and Brahmapootra river, which are proposed to be undertaken hereafter.

(9.) On arrival of the steam dredger it will be worked first in clearing out the channel of the Dullessuree, Boorigunga, and Gozghutta rivers, and after that in the Hilsamari and Panya khal.

12. All the works of the Committee will be met from the proceeds of the Road Cess Fund of the year, which is to be derived from the following sources:—

1. Cess on lands,
2. ,, on houses,
3. Ferry tolls,
4. One per cent. road cess,
5. Other miscellaneous, and which is expected to amount to Rs. 97,205, including balance of previous year.

13. It is, however, very unlikely that the Committee will spend their whole funds this year, owing to the delay in sanctioning the continuation of the road to Goalundo.

14. The estimates and plans required are more elaborate than a small local office can have done in a reasonable time, and it is a question whether under the present rules Committees will not be compelled to spend their money on smaller and less useful schemes, owing to the great difficulty in getting large schemes prepared and sanctioned in time for work.

15. Ultimately the work will no doubt be done, but the long delay is a matter of regret.

D. R. LYALL,
Chairman.

No. 85C, dated Fureedpore, the 1875.

From—F. WYER, Esq., Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Fureedpore,
To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to forward a report on the road cess operations for the last year The submission of this report has been delayed this year owing to the non-receipt of the Executive Engineer's report, which, in spite of many reminders, has not yet been sent in. The information as to the amount spent under him has, in the absence of this report, been compiled from the bills in my office.

2. From the accounts which are appended you will see that the total income this year, including the balance of Rs. 15,566-9-6 from last year, was Rs. 61,335-11-9. The total expenditure was Rs. 22,111-6-1, leaving a balance at the close of the year of Rs. 39,224-5-8 *

* Exclusive of Rs. 122 on account of deposit for ferries. Annual account will follow.

3. This large balance is on the face of it very unsatisfactory; it is, however, owing chiefly to the money budgetted for the Rajbari road not having been spent, owing to proper plans and estimates not having been prepared, and the sanction of Government not having been obtained to the scheme. The Executive Engineer of Backergunge and Fureedpore did indeed prepare plans and estimates, but too late in the year for anything to be done, even supposing that they had been properly prepared. I have just received them back from the Superintending Engineer through your office, with the intimation that they are so defective that they cannot be submitted to Government. I am therefore afraid that it will be so late this year before the sanction of Government can be obtained that very little will be done towars making this road.

4. Original Works.—In consequence of the Rajbari road not having been taken in hand, the only original works nearly finished during the year were the construction of the Hatooria road, and the completion of some village roads at Hamdampore, Joshai, and Ambaria in the Goalundo sub-division. The amount shown as spent on the Rajbari road is the cost for tracing out the new line and paying for some earthwork which was thrown up during past year.

5. Repairs.—Some repairs were made along the Pangsha road, but most of the money shown as spent on this work was money paid for repairs made during the previous year. The Jessore road (20 miles) has been repaired. The new Talma road up to the fifth mile and the old Talma road have also been repaired.

In August last the bund which was thrown up across the large khal leading to Dhol Samuddar was cut, and the greatly improved health of the town is, I think, in consequence of this. I will, however, notice this point separately in my general report. It was feared that the Jessore bridge would be carried away by the rush of the water through the bund; this, however, did not prove the case.

6. Establishment.—Government rules regarding the establishment were received on the 28th March 1875, and after a good deal of correspondence the committee decided on appointing—

	Rs.	A.	P.
1 Assistant Engineer on	300	0	0
1 Ditto on	90	0	0

and for office work an Accountant on Rs. 50, and 3 peons on Rs. 6 each. This was referred through you to Government for sanction on the 30th August 1875, but sanction has not yet been accorded. This is very much to be regretted, since it is quite impossible to have the work of the Road Cess Committee carried out unless some establishment is placed at their disposal. The present establishment is quite inadequate for the work which has to be done, and cannot be properly supervised by an Executive Engineer who lives at Burrisal and very seldom comes to this district at all. What few repairs are now done are done by a mohurir, who is called sub-overseer, his work being checked by the Department Public Works overseer. I hope therefore that the plan proposed by the Committee, or some better plan, will be sanctioned in time to carry out the present year's projects, which are as follows:—

	Rs.	A.	P.
,, ,, Hobra Khal	10,000	0	0

7. On my coming to the district in March last, I asked the Executive Engineer to have the Bakundah, Murra Padda, Bhologram, Chowkighatta, and Amgram khals levelled and surveyed. The advantages arising from opening these khals to navigation throughout the year were detailed by me in paragraph 56 of my last Annual Administration Report, which were as follows:—

(1.) The Bakundah Khal, by opening which the Dhol Samuddar would be connected with the Sitalakhia rivers the whole year round, and communication between Fureedpore and Madaripore would be much facilitated.

(2.) The Sadipur Khal, connecting the Dhol Samuddar with the Ganges.

(3.) The Murra Pudda, from Tepakhola to Kanaipore.

(4.) The khal between Bologram and Hobra, by opening which the Kumar would be connected with the Gorai.

(5.) The Chowkighatta Khal opening, which would save 14 miles for boats going to Bhanga from Maligram hut.

(6.) The Amgram Khal

I have no doubt that keeping the khals of the district open is really of more importance than making roads, for these khals are the natural highways of the people of this district, who are well supplied with boats, while almost altogether without carts. Besides these roads interfere with the natural drainage, whereas keeping khals open assists it. I hope therefore that the Hobra Khal at least will be completed this year.

8. Besides this it is proposed to repair the Jessore road, Goalchamat bridge, and Bazar bridge at a cost of ... . Rs. 3,000

Repair the Pangsha road	.	...	... ,, 5,000

Thus it will be seen that if all these projects are carried through Rs. 56,200 will be spent, and you will, I think, agree with me that to be well spent the constant supervision of a competent engineer is required.

9. I forward copies of the sub-divisional reports, from which you will see that Goalundo spent a little less than the allotted amount, and Madaripore a good deal less. The reason of so little having been spent in Madaripore is that the members who were entrusted with money to expend did not do so. This will, I hope, be remedied this year by sending one of the overseers to Madaripore.

10. In addition to Rs. 1,993-5-3 and Rs. 433-11 expended during the year 1874-75 by the Branch Committees of Goalundo and Madaripore respectively, Rs. 2,105 were shown as expended by the said Committee during the year 1873-74 which were not charged in the last annual account, as no information or account was received from either of the sub-divisions before December 1874.

No. 35R.C., dated Goalundo, the 26th October 1875.

From—J. POSFORD, Esq., Chairman, Branch Road Cess Committee, Goalundo,
To—The Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Fureedpore.

I HAVE the honor to submit the following report on the working of the Branch Road Cess Committee of Goalundo during the year 1874-75.

2. A sum of Rs. 2,065 was allotted to this sub-division from the district road fund for the year ending September 1875. The total expenditure on actual works is Rs. 2,529-8-3, as per account below; the deficit, Rs. 162-0-3, being intended to be met from the next year's budget allotment :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Allottment for 1874-75	2,065	0	0
Village contribution	302	8	0
Total ...	2,367	8	0
Expenditure during 1874-75 in actual works	2,529	8	3
Deficit to be paid from this year's grant	162	0	3

3. The following works have been done during the year :—

(1.) Hamdampore Road.—This is a bund road from Hamdampore to Radha Kantbhell, where it joins the old Paltani road. It has been done at a cost of Rs. 1,504-13, including that of a masonry bridge at Camarpara, and is a very useful road, and will be more so if it be a little extended to join the Rajbari feeder road at Sarjankanda

(2.) Joshai Road.—This road was made in the village Joshai, thana Pangsha, at an expense of Rs 300, and does benefit to about 15 villages, the inhabitants of some of which voluntarily contributed half the amount, the other half being paid from the road fund.

(3) Ambaria Road.—This is a fair-weather road from Ambaria to Rajbari, a distance of five miles. The work was done by a contractor at the rate of Rs. 16 per mile, the total expenditure being Rs. 80. This road is very useful for about eight months in the year, and is a good commencement for one fit for cart traffic.

(4.) Joypore School and Cemetery Road.—This is a small road running from the railway gate opposite to the village Joypore and does good to the villagers of Kusabata, Panoir, Joypore, &c., specially enabling their children to come to the Goalundo school. It has become very useful since the removal of Goalundo bazar and some of the Government offices to the side of the Joypore tank. It cost Rs 121-4-3 only.

5. Hoomoria Ferry Ghât Road.—This road was slightly repaired this year, which cost Rs. 41-3, including that of a wooden bridge. This road was at a distance of more than a thousand feet from the river, nevertheless it has been completely cut away.

6. Rupsha Khal Bund.—A large number of villagers applied for a bund at the mouth of the khal, as great injury was done to their crops during the past few year on account of the water suddenly rushing through it. The villagers themselves contributed Rs. 152-8, and a bund cost on the whole Rs. 450-11. It has enabled the people to reap fully their aus crop this time, but the khal being completely shut at the mouth overflowed its banks and did some harm in another way. This will most likely be obviated by the proposed deepening of Ratundia Khal.

4. Collection.—Collections of the house-tax in this sub-division have been made by the subordinate establishment, that is to say, the canongo, chainmen, and the messengers, without incurring any additional expense. The people seem to understand fairly the object of the cess, and a number of applications for village works were received this year, many of which could not be taken up for want of sufficient funds. The amount voluntarily contributed by the villagers is to show that they sufficiently appreciate the benefit of these works.

No. 142, dated Madaripore, the 25th October 1875.

From—A. J. FRASER, Esq., Deputy Magistrate and Chairman, Branch Road Cess Committee, Madaripore,

To—The Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Fureedpore.

WITH reference to your office letter No. 2C, without date, I have the honor to submit the annual report and accounts for the road cess year 1874-75.

2. Of the allotment of Rs. 1,200 made for the year 1873-74, Rs 600 was only received in August 1874, of which Rs. 492-8 was actually spent on various works, as shown in the list submitted with this office No 535, of the 29th December 1874, and the balance (Rs. 107-8) was kept in hand, as the cess year elapsed before the amount could be properly expended. During this year Rs. 2,000 was allotted, of which Rs. 487-8 was proposed to be paid as the remainder of the advances made last year, and the remaining Rs. 1,512-8 was allotted to works specified in the proceedings of the Branch Road Cess Committee, dated 24th April 1875, copy of which was submitted to you with this office No. 174, of the 28th April last.

3. Of the amount of Rs. 487-8 proposed to pay up the remainder of last year's allotment, Rs. 212-8 have been paid up during the year, and the remainder was kept in hand, as the works on which it was allotted had not been completed. Moreover, Rs. 75 allotted last year on two works (for one Rs. 50 and for the other Rs. 25) was returned by the undertakers of the works during this year. This sum, together with Rs. 107-8 of the last year's balance, has been credited into the treasury under the instructions conveyed in your letter No. 306C, dated September 1875.

4. Of Rs. 1,512-8 allotted for the works of the year under report, Rs. 221 have only been expended on works as per list appended, and the balance is now in hand.

5 It is to be regretted that most of the applicants who applied for road cess money for works detailed in the proceedings of the 24th April last have failed to come forward to take the money, notwithstanding they were informed to do so. On the whole, the people of this sub-division do not seem to take any interest in the matter. They apply for road cess money, and when money was given to them they do nothing and return it after a few days, while there are some who never appear for money after having submitted their application. A new set of members has of late been sanctioned; they represent the several thanas of the sub-division, and it is hoped that these members in their respective thanas will interest themselves next year more than the old members have done. Undoubtedly next year some roads will be made and communication opened out in the interior.

Vice-Chairman's note on the accounts of the Branch Committees for the road cess year 1874-75

Goalundo.—Of Rs. 2,529-8 3 shown as expended, only Rs. 1,993-5-3 have been charged in the accounts ending the road cess year 1874-75, and the remainder in October and November last. The allotment for the Goalundo sub-division during 1874-75 was Rs. 3,570, which is made up as follows:—

Rs. 2,065 for 1874 75 and Rs. 1,505 for the expenditure of 1873-74, as the amount was not debited in that year's account, owing to the non-receipt of accounts of expenditure from the sub division in due time.

Madaripore.—The allotment for Madaripore for 1874-75 was Rs. 2,000, including Rs. 600 expended during the last year, but not charged in that year's account, owing to the reason stated above. Rs. 600 was at first shown as expended by the Madaripore Committee and charged in this office accounts but subsequently it was known that Rs. 107-8 was only allotted, but not expended; consequently the sum has been refunded.

No 93C, dated Fureedpore, the 18th December 1875.

From—BABOO JADUB CHANDRA GOSSAMI, Vice-Chairman, District Road Cess Committee,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

IN continuation of this office annual report No. 85C, I have the honor to submit herewith the annual account for the road cess year 1874-75.

2. Rs. 8,022 shown as expended during the last year has been subsequently refunded by the Collector, as the land required for the Rajbari road was not taken up on account of the line being abandoned. This sum was shown in the 4th quarterly account as receipt under the head of "Fines and Refunds" This has been corrected by the Controller and deducted from the expenditure on original works during the year. It has caused a decrease of Rs. 8,022 from the total amount expended, as stated in the 2nd paragraph of this office report mentioned above.

No. 21, dated Backergunge, the 2nd December 1875.

From—J. F. BRADBURY, Esq., Vice-Chairman, District Road Cess Committee, Backergunge,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the report on the road cess operations in this district during the past year, beginning on the 1st October 1874 and ending with the 30th September last.

2. The Road Cess Act was only brought into operation in this district in November last, and the first meeting of the District Road Cess Committee was held and a Vice-Chairman elected on the 20th May last.

3. The memorandum of accounts appended hereto shows the income and expenditure of the Committee during the year.

4. Nearly one-third of the income of the Committee was swallowed up by establishment and contingent charges, and a balance of more than Rs. 5,000 remained at the close of the year. Rs. 21,000 odd were spent under the superintendence of Public Works Department and sub-divisional officers and the Town Committee in repairing and maintaining the roads and other channels of communication and locomotion in this district. Only one original work was undertaken, or, to speak more accurately, the Madaripore road was not only repaired, but extended and improved.

5. I send herewith a copy of the memorandum of expenditure proposed to be incurred during the current year 1875-76. The estimates submitted have received the sanction of the Commissioner, and the memorandum specifies the various works to be undertaken and their nature and extent

6. The estimated income for the current year is nearly Rs. 76,000. Of this nearly Rs. 22,500 will be required for establishment and contingent charges, leaving Rs. 53,000 odd for expenditure on various works. From this Rs. 53,000 odd must also be provided, the contribution towards the Public Works Department establishment, which amounts to Rs. 5,548.

7. No work was done during October, and we have not yet received the November accounts from the Executive Engineer. The real working season is just beginning, and considerable progress will have been made before the end of the cold weather, although I cannot yet state which of these works will be first taken in hand.

8. The annual accounts are submitted herewith.

No. 589, dated Mymensingh, the 5th January 1876.

From—R. H. PAWSEY, Esq., Chairman, Road Cess Committee, Mymensingh,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to forward herewith statement No. III, called for in the enclosure of your No. 206R, dated 19th August 1874, being the annual account for the cess year 1874-75.

2. You will observe from the balance sheet that the main source of income for the year has been a loan of Rs. 48,000 advanced by Government under the conditions named in No. 954, dated 10th April 1875.

3. The expenditure on establishment has exceeded the sanctioned estimate from its having been found necessary to push on the work preliminary to the collection of the cess from the commencement of the current year 1875-76, and the contingencies, including hire of boats, exceeded what was anticipated from the same cause.

4. The original works undertaken were provided for in the statement No. I, submitted in December 1872, with the exception of the fifth item for the timber bridge at Nowgong, reports regarding which are as yet unfurnished as required by the Executive Engineer, and other minor items of expenditure urgently required.

5. The roads repaired have all been put in durable order, excepting a portion of the Subankhali road, some eight miles of which were found in the high floods of August and September 1875 to be far below what is required.

6. I beg to append herewith a list of the works which are in progress, in accordance with the estimate submitted to you with my No. 491, dated 13th September last.

List of the works proposed for 1875-76.

ORIGINAL WORKS.

1. Road from Nusseerabad to Dhaponia.
2. Doorgapore road up to 22nd mile.

R. H. PAWSEY, Chairman.

No. 104R, dated Comilla, the 23rd November 1875.

From—N. S. ALEXANDER, ESQ., Magistrate and Chairman of the District Road Cess Committee, Tipperah,

To—The Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the annual report on the administration of the Road Cess Department for the year 1874-75, and also the accounts, which have been scrutinized and audited by a sub-committee of three members, as required by Section 88 of the Road Cess Act.

2. The Act came into actual operation in this district on 1st October 1874, and the first instalments of the cess were realized in January 1875, so that we really had no funds to our credit till the middle of January; there was then no sanction to expenditure in anticipation of income, as has now been permitted. During October, November, December 1874 very little was done.

3. The Committee consists of the following gentlemen:—

1. The Magistrate and Collector of Tipperah, Chairman
Members.
2. The Senior Covenanted Assistant to the Magistrate and Collector ... ... } Ex-officio.
3. The Executive Engineer ... ... }
4. The Deputy Collector in charge Road Cess ... }
5. The District Superintendent of Police ... ... }
6. Mr. J. P. DeLanney.
7. „ E. DeLanney.
8. „ H. L. Weathrall.
9. „ Hume Smith.
10. „ Thomas Smith.
11. Baboo Shib Chundra Aich.
12. „ Ram Dulal Roy.
13. „ Nilmoney Das.
14. „ Hurrish Chundra Bose.
15. „ Uma Lochun Mozumdar.
16. „ Eshan Chundra Roy.
17. Mohamed Gazi Choudhuri.
18. Munshi Lall Meah, alias Ameruddin Ahamed.
19. Aptabuddin Mohamed.

The following change in members occurred during the year:—

Mr Hume Smith in place of Mr. Campbell (deceased).

Mr. Thomas Smith was appointed an additional member; he has since left the district.

4. Seven meetings of the Committee were held during the year; the attendance was good. Most of the members take lively interest in the work, among such are Messrs. Hume Smith, H. L. Weathrall, G. Ridsdale, and E. DeLanney; Baboos Ram Dulal Roy, Shib Chundra Aich, Nilmoney Dass, Hurrish Chundra Bose, and Mohamed Gazi Choudhury: several members of the Committee, however, did not display much interest, and indeed rarely attended the meetings, such were Baboos Uma Lochun Mozumdar, Eshan Chundra Roy, and Munshi Aptabuddin Mohamed and Munshi Ameruddin Ahamed.

5. Besides the Sudder District Committee, four Branch Committees have been organized, viz:—

1. The Brahmunberiah Branch Committee, which has 31 members.
2. The Chondogram Branch Committee, which has 26 members.
3. The Nursingpore Branch Committee, which has 21 members.
4. Murodnagur Branch Committee, which has 22 members.

The Branch Committee held a fair number of meetings and the attendance at them was good, and all of them appear to have taken some interest in the work; the Chondogram and Brahmunberiah Committees especially so. The Brahmunberiah Committee was presided over by the sub-divisional officer; the Chondogram Committee by the Moonsif, to whom our thanks are specially due for his attention and zeal, as he did this work in addition to his heavy duties as Moonsif. The Murodnagur and Nursingpore Committees were also presided over by the Moonsif of those places; they did very fairly, but the Murodnagur Moonsif is overworked, as it is with rent cases, and has but little time to give to anything else; and in Nursingpore there is not much room for village road works; the country is covered with dense jungle and intersected in every direction with tidal khals. Further on is given the expenditure of each Committee on the works undertaken by it.

6. The total sum at the disposal of the Committee being from cesses levied on lands and houses under parts II and IV of the Act, levied at the maximum rates on a valuation of Rs. 34,93,935, amounted to Rs. 1,00,331-1 11: the various items are shown in the accounts appended. The total expenditure under all heads amounted to Rs 66,174-11-1, thus leaving a balance of Rs. 38,012 6, the details of the expenditure as set forth in the statement appended.

7. The rather large balance* remaining unexpended at the end of the year is due chiefly to our not having been able during the past year to carry out the proposed masonry bridges of the Brahmunbariah and Laksham roads. As regards the Brahmunbariah road, sanction to our proposed estimates and plans for the road was received too late to commence brick-making. Some attempt was made in March, but owing to the large rainfall we had the attempt had to be abandoned; but we have commenced early this year, and the work will be pushed on vigorously. As regards the Laksham road, the Chief Engineer and Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, wished for further information as to levels, &c., and the work was put off altogether. These two items alone, viz. the bridging on these roads, amounted to Rs. 17,235. This is one difficulty we have to contend with. The plans and estimates are in the case of all large works sent to the Chief Engineer, and for some months we remain in uncertainty whether they will be sanctioned or not. If sanctioned, a good portion of the current working season has often passed; if not sanctioned, it is generally too late to turn to something else. The fact lies, I think, in having the statutory meeting† so late in the year as August. I do not see why it should not take place, say, in May of each year; then ample time would be given to settle all operations in time for the ensuing working season. In a district like Tipperah very little work can be done on the roads and canals, &c., after May or before December, as the whole country is, between May and December, more or less in an inundated state.

* Rs. 38,012·6.

† Under Section 70 of the Act.

8. The following were the works undertaken during the past year in their order of importance:—

A.—The Brahmunbariah Road.—This road when completed will greatly facilitate communication between the sub-division of Brahmunbariah and head-quarters The total length of the road is 40 miles: of this the 16 miles of road from Comilla‡ to Noyanpore is in good condition, from Noyanpore to the Titas, 14 miles, including the Titas river valley. Of this a portion of about six miles has been fairly done, though not perfectly finished; the remaining eight miles are in course of construction. The work is a most difficult one; the line of road is intersected with hill streams flowing down from the closely adjoining hills in the Hill Tipperah country. These necessitate a number of bridges at short intervals, which I need not say add considerably to the cost and arduousness of the work: indeed, before the road is in a complete state, it will have cost, I estimate, about Rs. 2,000 per mile, and even then it is doubtful if we shall be able to bridge the Titas river valley. This stream, which in the cold and hot seasons is an insignificant little river, in the rains, and when in flood, is from two to three miles in width where it crosses the line of road. My idea is to keep ferry boats on this part of the road during the rainy reason, and after the flood subsides each year to make a temporary road down to the proper banks of the stream. No earthwork will ever stand the force of this hill stream when in flood, and to bridge over these three miles would cost a mint of money; but I intend during the present cold season to have some decision come to on the point. The road between the Titas and Brahmunbariah, 10 miles, is passable and wants little remaining to be done to it.

‡ Note.—This portion of the road will be widened during the present year.

B.—The Laksham and Noakhally Road.—This road is about 28 miles in length. Of this the 17 miles as far as Laksham is bridged and in good order, except the damages done to it in August last by the floods of the Gumti river. Beyond Laksham to the boundary of the Noakhally district, a distance of 11 miles, the road is still incomplete, and there is not much use our completing this portion of the road unless the Noakhally authorities continue on on their side. Between Laksham and the Noakhally boundary there are no large marts or villages even in our district. The only object of the road will be to connect Comilla and Sudharam, and unless the Noakhally Committee do the road in their district, it is of little use our making a fine bridged road to end in a swamp. The work of bridging this road, when it is done, will be costly owing to the innumerable khals intersecting this part of the country.

C.—The Gokarna Canal.—This canal when completed will save boats going to Brahmunbariah more than a day's journey by water: the canal will be about three miles in length, and will save a bend of the Titas river of nearly 40 miles. A great deal can be done in this way in saving time by making short cuts in the interminable windings of such rivers as the Titas and Gumti. During the past year 1¾ miles of the canal were excavated, the average depth being 7 feet, the cost being Rs. 7,830-14-3, or nearly the whole sum estimated for the year. Owing to the nature of the soil the work proved more arduous and costly than had been anticipated. If we can succeed in getting the current of the river to flow into the canal even a little, it will save much expenditure and labour.

D.—"Village Roads."—The entire amount expended by the Sudder and Branch Committees was Rs. 10,453-14-6, in the following ratios, viz. :—

	Village Roads.	Number of roads, &c.	Rs.	A.	P.
1.	Sudder District Committee ...	17 Roads and a culvert .. / 1 Water-course ...	3,327	14	6
2.	Brahmunbariah Branch Committee	17 Roads ... ... / 8 Water-courses ...	2,381	9	6
3.	Murodnagur Branch Committee ...	5 Roads with some temporary bridges ... / 4 Water-courses ...	1,474	1	0
4.	Chondogram Branch Committee ...	11 Roads with bamboo bridges ...	2,296	8	0
5.	Nursingpore Branch Committee ...	3 Roads and a bridge ... / 1 Water-course ...	972	14	6
	Total ...	67 Roads, &c. ..	10,452	15	6

The total number of roads, &c., so undertaken amounted to 67. The roads, as their names explain, are roads leading from main roads to village or from village to village. In a district like Tipperah, I think the re-opening of silted up khals or water channels will be more useful and popular than the constructing of village roads only, though it does not seem quite clear if such works can be brought under the head of petty village works; the heading might be "village roads and canals."

E.—Chandpore Canal.—This canal is a very important one. It connects the Megna river with the Dacoetea and saves many trading boats going to marts in the south of the district and to Noakhally. The former dangerous passage down the Megna to the mouth of the Dacoetea, the junction of the Dacoetea and Megna, is a peculiarly dangerous spot. If one river happens to be in higher flood than the other, a sort of whirlpool forms at the mouth of the Dacoetea; and many boats were annually wrecked trying to get into the Dacoetea from the Megna on their way to the large river marts of Hazigunge, Dowlutgunge, Chitoshi, and many others. The bore, too, in the Megna at this spot is very dangerous at certain seasons of the year to the country craft. They are now saved all these dangers, besides making a saving of time of four or five days often, by taking the short cut through this canal, a distance of six miles. The canal had a good deal of money expended on it in 1873, and this past year a sum of Rs. 905-5-3 were further expended on it; and in the present year it is going to be further widened and deepened to admit of the passage of the largest boats all the year round.

G.—Two inspection bungalows were constructed, one at Brahmunbariah and the other at Laksham, for the use of the engineering staff and generally for inspecting officers. The cost of these was Rs. 882-14-0.

H.—There were other miscellaneous works, such as temporary bamboo bridges, repairs to offices, &c., &c.

9. As regards establishment, throughout the year we made an arrangement by which we employed the Public Works officers stationed at Comilla. Up to 1st April 1875 this officer was designated the Executive Engineer in charge of the Tipperah and Noakhally districts, and was an officer of some standing and experience, but latterly the separate executive charge was done away with, and an officer of the rank of Overseer simply was sent here, in consequence of which this Committee resolved to appoint an Engineer of its own from 1st October 1875. During 1874-75 we paid before the 1st April 1875 half the salaries of the officers of the Public Works Department as our quota, and after the 1st April 1875 at the rate of two-thirds of the said salaries, so that throughout the year we have had the services of the staff of the Public Works Department. I did not think it a good plan in the middle of the road cess year to appoint any one as Engineer to the Committee; the change took place in April 1875, when more than half the year had expired. It was not advisable at that stage to introduce an entirely new man; indeed, by the time candidates could have been advertised for and a man appointed the cess year would have nearly expired. By the consent* of the Chief Engineer, this district was temporarily classified as a third-class one, and Mr. T. Smith, a sub-engineer of the Public Works Department, appointed to act as District Engineer, 3rd class. Mr. Smith made over charge to Mr. J. Wilson, Overseer of the Department Public Works; Mr. Wilson held charge till the end of the year. As we had only Engineers of the status of Messrs. Smith and Wilson, it was as well that the expenditure for the year did not much exceed that fixed for a third-class district.

* Nos. 1925-27, dated 10th April 1875.

10. One of the chief difficulties experienced in this district, especially by the Branch Committees, is that of getting a sufficiency of labor. Here day laborers even, either themselves or their families, possess some land. When any ploughing or reaping has to be done (and this occurs pretty frequently in the year), our roads are deserted, the labourers leaving almost en masse at stated periods. This difficulty is not easy to overcome, as the climate of Tipperah does not suit up-country men, who soon sicken with fever.

11. As regards the working establishment, Mr. T. Smith held charge from 1st October 1874 to 28th June 1875. He did not exert himself as he ought to have done. This was probably due to his bad state of health. He did not manage to go about the district as much as an Engineer should, and did not look after his contractors and subordinates as much as he should have done. Mr. Wilson held charge from 29th June to 30th September 1875. He worked well, though, as he held charge only during the time the inundation was at its height, he could do little road work; but what he did was well done.

The Overseers, Babu Chundra Nath Bannerjea and Taruck Chundra Gupta, did their work in a satisfactory manner.

12. The estimates for the various works to be undertaken next year, and for the various establishments, have already been submitted to you and obtained your approval,† but I give them appended in a concise form:—

No. 653R, dated Dacca, the 8th February 1876.

From—H. A. COCKERELL, Esq., Commissioner of the Dacca Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal in the Public Works Department.

WITH reference to your letter No. 313, dated 20th ultimo, I have the honor to submit herewith the annual accounts and reports of the several District Road Committees in this division for the past cess year 1874-75.

2. The district of Tipperah having been annexed to this division during the year of report, the districts in which road cess on lands and houses was collected were Dacca, Fureedpore, and Tipperah. In Backergunge the Road Cess Act was introduced last year only, and in Mymensingh the collections could not commence until after the close of the year. Thus the Road Fund in these two districts consisted of tolls on ferries, fines under Road Cess Act, and Government grants from provincial funds or loans, while in the three other districts the road cess collections, fines, ferry tolls, &c., comprised the fund.

3. The only district to which any grant from provincial funds was made was Backergunge, which received an allotment of Rs. 25,000,* and a loan of Rs. 48,000 was allowed to the district of Mymensingh under the Government order No. 954, dated 16th April 1875.

* Vide Government order No. 7312, dated 31st December 1874.

4. In Dacca the total amount available for expenditure amounted, as per details given in the margin, to Rs. 1,03,283-12-1, of which—

	Rs. A. P.
Collections under the Road Cess Act ...	70,112 13 0

Miscellaneous	1,968 10 0
Balance of 1873-74 ..	(a)15,698 15 7
Total	1,03,283 12 1

(a) The difference between this and the amount shown in the account of 1873-74 is owing to Rs. 1,661-5-6 carried to the head of deposit under the Controller's No. 12854, dated 21st September 1875, paragraph 2

	Rs. A. P.
On account of establishment and contingencies for collection of cess, &c. ...	6,572 6 3

Miscellaneous	686 4 0

have been expended during the year, leaving a balance of Rs. 49,464-11-2.

5. This large sum remained unexpended owing to the refusal of Government to sanction, without more complete estimates and plans, the extension of the Goalundo road; but the Committee have utilized this balance in repaying in full the loan† of Rs. 30,000 taken for the dredging machine.

† Vide Government letter No 3156, dated 31st October 1874, Financial Department.

6. Of the original works executed at a cost of Rs. 19,009-5-0, 13 bridges made on the Goalundo road (from Manickgunge to Shealo) were the most important, and they cost more than Rs. 10,000. Under the head of repairs, the metalling of the road between Dacca and Naraingunge cost upwards of Rs. 7,000, and nearly Rs. 8,000 were spent in the annual repairs of the Goalundo and Mymensingh roads and bridges. It is satisfactory to note that in two instances villagers applied for assistance to execute local works, and carried them out to the satisfaction of the Chairman.

7. All existing roads and bridges appear to have been properly repaired, except the road between Moonsheegunge and Sreenugger, the repairs of which should have been undertaken and completed within the year, as there was a large balance in hand to meet the cost.

8. The works proposed to be carried out during the current cess year (1875-76) are—.

(1) Repairs of the Sreenugger road.
(2) Annual repairs to all existing roads and bridges, including metalling.
(3) Petty village roads, &c.
(4) Construction of road from Dacca to Manickgunge.
(5) The survey of Taltolla khal and Brahmapootra River, which it is proposed in connection with works to undertake hereafter.
(6) Working of the steam dredger in cleansing out the channel of the Dhullesuree, Boorigunga, and Gozghutta Rivers, and after that in the Hilsamari and Panya khal.

9. Fureedpore.—In Fureedpore, the receipts amounted to Rs. 61,335-11-9,* and the expenditure is detailed below :—

	Rs.	A	P.
*Road cess collections	35,652	4	3

Repairs	5,608	5	1
Public Works Department establishment	2,051	10	2
Tools and plants	42	9	0
Total ...	22,111	6	1

leaving a large unexpended balance of Rs. 39,224-5-8(c) at the close of the year, which on the face of it seems very unsatisfactory, but the Chairman of the District Committee explains that it is chiefly owing to the money (about Rs. 22,000) budgetted for for the Rajbaree road not having been spent, in consequence of proper plans and estimates of the road not having been prepared, and the Government sanction to the work not having been received within the year.

10. Under the head of "original works," construction of a part of Rajbaree and Hatorea roads and village roads in the Goalundo and Madaripore sub-divisions are included. The repairs comprise the works done on the Pangsa, Jessore, and other roads of the district.

11. The works proposed to be undertaken during the current year are—

	Rs.
Rajbaree road	43,000
Habra khal	10,000
Humdumpore road	1,200
Hatorea road	2,000
Improving water communications by opening some khals	10,000
Total ...	66,200

12. There is not much chance of making any considerable progress in the Rajbaree† road even this year. As the original line proposed has been changed, and estimates and plans are not yet ready for submission to the Superintending Engineer, the District Committee will be instructed to utilize the unexpended portion of the amount allotted to this road in some other useful works.

† This road is intended to connect the Rajbaree railway station with the town of Furreedpore.

The complaint of the Chairman regarding the want of a resident Engineer has been met by the appointment of Mr. Staples (vide Government order No. 5917, dated 17th December 1875, Public Works Department).

13. Backergunge.—In Backergunge the total receipts, including the balance of the preceding year (1873-74), amounted to Rs. 36,451-6-4,‡ of which have been expended, leaving a balance of Rs. 5,253-13-8.§

(d) The difference between this amount and that shown in the last report is Rs. 535-12-9 The Chairman of the District Committee has been called upon to explain this discrepancy

§ This does not correspond with the amount shown in the account submitted by Road Cess Committee, where the balance is shown to be Rs. 5,299 4-2, including Rs. 45-6-6, which was spent by the Public Works Department in excess of the amount in its hands.

14. All the district roads have been required, and hence the expenditure under the head of "repairs" is the heaviest (Rs. 16,552-0-7). The original works comprise the Madaripore road and two khals.

15. The works proposed to be undertaken during the current year are the construction or completion of certain roads at a cost of upwards of Rs. 21,000, and repairs of existing roads and bridges, which are estimated to cost Rs. 25,770.

(a) Includes refund of Rs 8,022 on account of lands for Rajbaree road, which had been debited in the account of 1873-74, but the amount not having been actually expended, it has been recredited under the head of refund, while the Controller of Accounts was directed to charge the sum against original works ; hence the accounts show a deficit of Rs. 1,796-3-11 under the head of "Original Works," instead of the actual expenditure of Rs. 6,225-12-1.

(b) The difference between this and the amount shown in the last account is owing to deduction of Rs. 913-3, balance at credit of deposit (vide printed account of 1873-74, published by the Controller of Public Works Accounts).

(c) Exclusive of deposit of Rs. 122 on account of ferries.

16. Mymensingh.—In this district the receipts amounted, as per details given in the margin, to Rs. 54,377-2-11, and the expenditure, as per following memorandum, to Rs. 54,620-3-2, being Rs. 243-0-3 in excess of receipts:—

17. Of the original works, executed at a cost of Rs. 27,875-7-9, the construction of the roads from Nusseerabad to Dhapuria and from Nusseerabad to Doorgapore, and of a bridge at Nowgong on the Subankhali road, at a cost of nearly Rs. 19,000, formed the principal items under the head of repairs. Subankhali* road alone cost Rs. 8,189.

* This is a place of considerable trade.

18. During the current year the continuation of the roads from Nusseerabad to Dhapuria and Nusseerabad to Doorgapore, construction of road from Modhoopore to Tangail, and extension of the Subankhali road to the bank of the Jumna, as well as the repairs of all existing roads and bridges, are proposed to be undertaken at a cost of Rs. 78,000.

19. The collections of the road cess have been commenced in Mymensingh from the current year, and there will be ample funds at the disposal of the Committee to meet the above expenditure. The collections are estimated to amount to Rs. 1,50,000.

20. Tipperah.—In this district the amount available for expenditure was Rs. 1,04,187-1-1,† and the following is an abstract of the charges incurred:—

leaving a balance of Rs. 38,012-6-0 at the close of the year. This is rather a large sum remaining unexpended, but the Chairman of the District Committee explains that it is due to the Committee's not being able to carry out the proposed masonry bridges of the Brahmunbariah and Laksham roads in consequence of the sanction of Government to the plans and estimate—of the same not having been received in time within the year to commence the work.

21. Of the original works executed, the most important were the roads from the sub-divisional head-quarters of Brahmunbariah and from thana Laksham‡ to the town of Comila, in which more than Rs. 20,000 have been expended within the year.

‡ Whence the road goes to Noakhally (Bullooah).

22. The following works are proposed to be undertaken during the current year, at a cost of upwards of Rs. 82,000:—

Continuation of Brahmunbariah Road.
Laksham Road.
Kalibazar ,,
Village roads.
Improving Makrum Khal.
Repairs of existing roads, &c., &c., &c.

23. The most important feature in the administration of the District Road Funds during the past year is the organization of establishments for execution of works under the Government Resolution No. 1209, dated 8th March 1875.

24. This Resolution classed the districts of Dacca and Tipperah in the first class, Fureedpore and Mymensingh in the third class, and Backergunge in the second class. Since then Dacca has been reduced to second§ class and Mymensingh has been raised to first‖ class. Fureedpore has also got a resident Engineer in Mr. Staples (vide Government letter No. 5917, dated 17th December 1875).

§ Vide Government order No. 3818, dated 31st July 1875.
‖ No. 4557, dated 15th September 1875.

25. The reports herewith submitted from the Chairman of the District Committee of Dacca and Tipperah are sufficiently full not to need any further remarks from me. Next stands the report from Fureedpore: the two other reports from Backergunge and Mymensingh are exceedingly meagre.

26. With the exception of Fureedpore, the District Committee appear to have worked fairly well. The Committee of Furreedpore have done the least, and the action of the Madaripore Branch Committee appears to have been remarkably slow, as they could not expend more than Rs. 487 out of an allotment of Rs. 2,000, though the requirements of the sub-division demanded several times that small sum. The attention of the Committee will be drawn to this.

No. 703R, dated Dacca, the 26th February 1876.

Memo. by—H. A. COCKERELL, Esq., Commissioner of the Dacca Division.

SUBMITTED to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department, with reference to the marginal note against paragraph 13 of this office report No. 653R, dated 8th instant.

Extract, paragraph 1, from a letter, No. 62, dated 14*th February* 1876, from the Chairman of the Road Cess Committee of Backergunge, to the address of the Commissioner of Dacca.

WITH reference to your Personal Assistant's letter No. 651R of the 7th instant, I have the honor to state that the discrepancy pointed out therein in the accounts for 1873-74 and 1874-75, relating to the amount of advances outstanding on the 1st October 1874, has its origin in the fact that in the account for 1873-74 all advances made to sub-divisional officers were treated as actual expenditure instead of, as it should have been, merely advances. Accordingly, in the account of that year, only the balance in the hand of the Executive Engineer on the 1st October 1874 was shown as "balances outstanding." This mistake has been corrected in the account of the subsequent year 1874-75, and instead of Rs. 1,756-15-11 (the amount in hand of the Executive Engineer), we have shown as advances outstanding on the 1st October 1874, Rs. 2,292-12-8, being the amount in hand of the Executive Engineer and the sub-divisional officers of Perozepore and Dowlutkhan on that date. (There was no money in the hand of the sub-divisional officer of Patuakhali on that date).

No. 5.—Fort William, the 27*th March* 1876.—Commerce and Trade.—The following Notice is published for general information :—

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

INDIAN OCEAN.

VESSELS TRADING TO REUNION.

The following Notice has been published by the British Board of Trade :—

"The Board of Trade, in consequence of information which they have received, deem it their duty to caution Owners and Masters of British vessels employed in trading with Reunion, that vessels arriving in the roadstead off that place, between the months of November and March, incur great risk from hurricanes."

In reproducing the above Notice, Mariners are reminded that the island of Reunion, possesses no safe ports where ships can be sheltered from bad weather. The attention of Owners and Masters of British vessels is drawn to the great risk incurred by accepting freights for that island to arrive during the hurricane months (November to March), and it is suggested that they should have it distinctly stated in the Charter-party, that the cargo shall be discharged only at the roadstead of St. Denis; as from this position a vessel can, in the event of a hurricane setting in, easily proceed to sea.

No. 1952.—The 31*st March* 1876.—The Governor-General in Council directs that the following be published in the Gazette of India for general information:—

FINANCIAL. INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
No. 48. 10*th February* 1876.

To His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor-General of India in Council.

MY LORD,

Para. 1. I have considered in Council your Financial letter dated the 29th January 1875, No. 39, on the subject of the Leave Rules of the Uncovenanted Service.

2. You therein state that you have some doubts as to the intentions of the Duke of Argyll, and as to the manner in which effect should be given to His Grace's instructions; that nearly all the offices in the Uncovenanted Service are such as may, under certain circumstances, be "fitly held by Natives," and that, consequently, if you were to adopt a principle of selection, which would be most in accordance with the instructions received by you, the logical conclusion would be that no members of the Service should be admitted to the favourable rules.

3. You consider that the rigid adoption of the principle that the present holders of offices to which Natives could fitly be appointed should not be admitted to the benefits of the favourable rules, would cause not unreasonable dissatisfaction, and you are of opinion that some limit of a more or less arbitrary nature as to the position of those to whom those rules should be extended will have to be laid down.

4. You therefore forward nominal lists, which you state to be complete, of all those officers of the Uncovenanted Service who come within the category set forth in Schedule A of the Civil Leave Code, and request me to determine the principle on which admission to the favourable Leave Rules shall be regulated.

5. With your Financial letter dated the 30th September 1875, No. 346, you forwarded, in continuation of the list already referred to, a list of officers of the Accounts Branch of the Public Works Department whom you proposed to admit to the more favourable rules.

6. The instruction conveyed to your Government in the Financial despatches dated the 10th March 1870 and the 6th December 1871, appear to me to leave no doubt as to the intentions of the Duke of Argyll on this subject.

7. In the former despatch the Duke of Argyll assented to the favourable rules "proposed for holders of offices now held by English gentlemen," with certain modifications, and desired "that they be declared applicable from this date only to officers of the Education Department appointed from England, and to such others of those now actually in the Service as you may think fit to include in a nominal list for that purpose, to be submitted for my approval." His Grace also stated that the second set of Rules proposed "for all other classes of the Uncovenanted Service would, for the present, apply to all Uncovenanted Servants not entitled to the benefits of the first set of Rules, and hereafter to all Uncovenanted Servants who may not have been appointed from England."

8. In para. 7 of the latter Despatch, the Duke of Argyll extended the benefits of the first set of Rules to "those Uncovenanted Servants appointed in England to offices for which they had special qualifications," and "to those Europeans who for special reasons may have been, or, with my sanction, may be hereafter appointed in India to certain exceptional posts," and His Grace added "but, in order to confine these privileges within reasonable limits, I must again request that you will furnish me with a nominal list of the officers who appear to you to come within the description referred to in my Financial Despatch dated the 10th March 1870, No. 84."

9. The Duke of Argyll concluded*—"The principle which Her Majesty's Government have steadily kept in view throughout the discussion on these Furlough Rules is, that the Uncovenanted Service should be principally reserved for the Natives of the country, and that superior appointments which require English training and experience, should be made as heretofore from England; and they look with great disfavour on the system, which appears to be growing up in India, of appointing Englishmen in India to situations that ought only, as a rule, to be filled by civilians who have gained their position by open competition. I trust that the views I have now expressed will put a stop to the above practice."

* Financial Despatch, 10th March 1870.

10. In the views expressed by the Duke of Argyll in those Despatches I concur.

11. In respect, therefore, to the future, I request that it may clearly be understood that the less favourable Leave Rules will be applicable to all Uncovenanted Servants appointed after the year 1871, unless—

(1) They have been appointed in England.

(2) They have been appointed in India with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

It remains to specify in detail the reasonable concessions which, in accordance with the intimation made by the Duke of Argyll, I am willing to grant to certain of your Uncovenanted Servants who now hold, and at the date of His Grace's Despatch held, appointments in the Uncovenanted Service. It is to be understood that the instructions contained in the remainder of this Despatch apply only to them.

12 I have not within my reach the information necessary to enable me to select individual officers according to their merit or according to the peculiar circumstances of their appointment. In the absence of any such principle of choice, it will be expedient to shape the proposed concessions in such a manner as to harmonise with the policy which has been laid down for the future. Without going so far as to assent to your Excellency's opinion, that "if the whole of the classes enumerated in Schedule A are admitted to the new rules, the concession must be extended to the future," I am quite sensible of the difficulty which would attend any attempt to enforce, in respect to the future, a system contrasting violently with that which shall be adopted in respect to present incumbents. It will be, on this ground, expedient to apply a different mode of treatment to the present incumbents of those offices which will in future, so far as they are continued, certainly be filled up as a rule from England, and those which may possibly continue to be filled in India. The Uncovenanted Service of the Public Works Department,—except so far as it is recruited from students educated at the Indian Civil Engineering Colleges which were specially designed for the natives of the country,—will ordinarily in the future be supplied from Cooper's Hill. The forest service will, in like manner, and with possibly an analogous exception, consist of candidates prepared in Europe under the system established by Dr. Brandis. The limited opportunity which exists in India for obtaining men of scientific training furnishes an obvious reason for confining, as a general rule, to persons selected in England the higher grades of the Telegraph and Geological Survey Departments. It has already been determined that the higher Eucational Officers shall be selected here. On the other hand, the officers on the present establishment at Mysore only exist for a temporary purpose. A similar consideration applies to the arrangement under which the small number of uncovenanted Marine and Medical Officers are at present appointed. To all these officers, as occupying posts which, so far as they are filled up by Englishmen at all, will in the future be ordinarily filled up in England, I see no difficulty in extending without restriction the concessions contemplated by the Duke of Argyll.

13. The following Officers, therefore, named in the enclosure to your Despatch of 29th January 1875, may be immediately admitted to the more favourable Leave Rules:—

The 274 Officers, under the Government of India, included in Section D.

The 30 Officers, under the Government of India, included in Sub-sections 4 and 6 of Section E.

The 20 Officers, under the Government of Madras, included in Sub-section 2 of Section B.

The 19 Officers, under the Government of Bombay, included in Sub-section 2 of Section C and four Forest officers in Sub-section 1 of the same Section.

The 10 Officers, employed in Mysore, included in Section I.

The Educational Officers, the Officers of the Marine Department who have served in the Indian Navy or Bengal Marine, and the Medical Officers named in the lists transmitted by you.

The three Medical Officers of the Persian Telegraph Service, as recommended in your Financial letter dated the 26th February 1875, No. 79.

A nominal list of all the above Officers is annexed to this despatch.

14. Of the remaining Officers named in your lists, the greater part are filling posts which do not require preliminary technical education, and which, in future, if not held by Natives, will be occupied partly by Covenanted Civil Servants, or by Uncovenanted Servants specially selected with the sanction of the Secretary of State, according to the principles adverted to in para. 11 of this despatch. Adopting therefore, with regard to this class of Officers, your suggestion that, as respects existing incumbents, an arbitrary limit must be to some extent applied to them, I sanction the extension of the more favourable rules to such of the above-mentioned Officers named in your lists as are now in the receipt of salaries of not less than Rs. 6,000 per annum, and I request that a list of the persons to whom this will apply may be forwarded for record in this office.

15. I observe that your lists do not include any of the Officers employed in the higher appointments of the Andamans. You may, perhaps, desire to correct the omission, and possibly other similar omissions; if so, I will gladly consider any recommendations you may make.

I have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obdt., humble Servant,

PART II.

OF THE APPLICATION OF WATER FOR PUBLIC PURPOSES.

6. Whenever it appears expedient to the Lieutenant-Governor that the water of any river or stream flowing in a natural channel, or of any lake or other natural collection of still water, should be applied or used by the Government for the purpose of any existing or projected canal;

Notification to issue when water-supply is to be applied for public purposes.

the Lieutenant-Governor may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, declare that the said water will be so applied or used after a day to be named in the said notification, not being earlier than three months from the date thereof.

7. At any time after the day so named, any Canal Officer, acting under the orders of the Lieutenant-Governor in this behalf, may enter on any land and remove any obstructions, and may close any channels, and do any other thing necessary for such application or use of the said water.

Powers of Canal Officer.

8. As soon as is practicable after the issue of such notification, the Collector shall cause public notice to be given at convenient places, stating that the Government intends to apply or use the said water as aforesaid, and that claims for compensation in respect of the matters mentioned in section eleven may be made before him.

Notice as to claims for compensation.

A copy of sections eleven, twelve and thirteen shall be annexed to every such notice.

9. When any claim for compensation is made before the Collector in accordance with the last preceding section, the Collector shall issue a notice requiring all persons interested in the matter in respect of which compensation is claimed, to appear personally or by agent before him at a time and place therein mentioned (such time not being earlier than fifteen days after the date of publication of the notice), and to state the nature of their respective interests in the property affected, and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for such interests.

Contents of notice.

The Collector shall also serve notice to the same effect on the occupier (if any) of the land entered on, and on such persons known or believed to be interested in the matter in respect of which compensation is claimed, or to be entitled to act for persons so interested, as reside within his district.

Notice to occupiers.

10. The Collector may also require any person on whom a notice may be served under the last preceding section, and who makes a claim for compensation in accordance therewith, to deliver to him a statement containing, so far as may be practicable, the name of every other person possessing any interest in the property affected or any part thereof, as co-proprietor, sub-proprietor, mortgagee, tenant, or otherwise, and of the nature of such interest, and of the rents and profits (if any) received or receivable on account thereof for the year next preceding the date of the statement.

Power to require statements as to name and interests.

If any person shall fail to comply within the time fixed by the notice with a requisition made under this section, the Collector may impose upon him such daily fine as he may think fit, not exceeding fifty rupees; and such fine shall be payable daily until the requisition is complied with, and the Collector may proceed from time to time to levy the amount which has become due in respect of any such fine, notwithstanding that an appeal against the order imposing such fine may be pending;

Penalty for failure to comply.

Provided that whenever the amount levied under any such order shall have exceeded five hundred rupees, the Collector shall report the case specially to the Commissioner, and no further levy in respect of such fine shall be made otherwise than by authority of the Commissioner.

Every person required to make or deliver a statement under this section shall be deemed to be legally bound to do so within the meaning of sections one hundred and seventy-five and one hundred and seventy-six of the Indian Penal Code.

Persons required to make statements to be deemed legally bound to do so.

11. No compensation shall be awarded for any damage caused by—

(a) stoppage or diminution of percolation or floods;

(b) deterioration of climate or soil;

(c) stoppage of navigation, or of the means of rafting timber or watering cattle.

Matters in respect of which compensation may be awarded.

But compensation may be awarded in respect of any of the following matters:—

(d) stoppage or diminution of supply of water through any natural channel to any defined artificial channel, whether above or under ground, in use at the date of the issue of the notification under section six:

(e) stoppage or diminution of supply of water to any work erected for purposes of profit on any channel, whether natural or artificial, in use at the date of the said notification:

(f) stoppage or diminution of supply of water through any natural channel which has been used for purposes of irrigation within the five years next before the date of the said notification:

(g) damage done in respect of any right to a water-course or the use of any water to which any person is entitled under the Indian Limitation Act, 1871, Part IV:

(h) any other substantial damage, not falling under any of the above clauses (a), (b), or (c), and caused by the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act, which is capable of being ascertained and estimated at the time of awarding such compensation.

Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (c), compensation may be awarded in respect of the loss of any tolls which were lawfully levied on any river or channel at the time of the issue of the notification mentioned in section six.

Compensation for loss of tolls lawfully levied.

In determining the amount of compensation under this section, regard shall be had to the diminution in the market-value, at the time of awarding compensation, of the property in respect of which compensation is claimed; and where such market-value is not ascertainable, the amount shall be reckoned at twelve times the amount of the diminution of the annual net profits of such property, caused by the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act.

Diminution in market-value to be considered.

No right to any such supply of water as is referred to in clauses (d), (e), or (f) of this section, in respect of a work or channel not in use at the date of the notification, shall be acquired as against the Government, except by grant or under the Indian Limitation Act, 1871, Part IV.

12. If any supply of drinking-water is substantially deteriorated or diminished by any works undertaken in accordance with a declaration made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section six, the Canal Officer shall be bound to provide within convenient distance an adequate supply of good drinking-water in lieu of that so deteriorated or diminished, and no person shall be entitled to claim any further compensation in respect of the said deterioration or diminution.

Compensation for loss of drinking-water.

13. No claim for compensation for any such stoppage, diminution, or damage shall be entertained after the expiration of six months from such stoppage, diminution, or damage, unless the Collector is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not making the claim within such period.

Limitation of claims.

14. On the day fixed in the notice mentioned in section nine, the Collector shall proceed to enquire summarily into the claim and to determine the amount of compensation which in his opinion should be allowed therefor, and shall tender such amount to the persons interested who have attended in pursuance of the notice given under section nine.

Enquiry into claim and tender of compensation.

For the purpose of such enquiry, the Collector shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel the production of documents by the same means and, as far as may be, in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

Power to summon witnesses.

15. The Collector may, if no claimant attends pursuant to the notice, or if for any other cause he thinks fit, from time to time postpone the enquiry to a day to be fixed by him.

Postponement of enquiry.

16. If the Collector and the persons interested agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed, the Collector shall make an award under his hand for the same.

Award in case of compensation being agreed on.

Such award shall be filed in the Collector's office, and shall be conclusive, as between the Collector and the persons interested, of the value of the said property and the amount of compensation allowed for the same.

Award to be filed and to be evidence.

Collector to refer the matter to Court when compensation not accepted as sufficient.

17. If the Collector and the persons interested do not agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed, or if upon the said enquiry any question respecting the title to the property of which the value has been diminished, or any rights thereto, or interest therein, arises between or among two or more persons making conflicting claims in respect thereof, the Collector shall refer the matter to the determination of the Court in manner hereinafter provided.

Collector to record certain particulars in certain cases.

18. If, when the Collector proceeds to make the enquiry as mentioned in sections fourteen and fifteen, no claimant attends, or if any person whom the Collector has reason to think interested, does not attend, the Collector shall hold a proceeding and record the following particulars :—

(a) the nature and extent of the property of which the value has been diminished and in respect of which compensation is claimed, and the character and extent of the damage done ;

(b) the names of the persons whom he has reason to think interested in such property ;

(c) the amount fixed by him as compensation ; and

(d) the grounds on which such amount was determined ;

and shall place the amount so fixed by him in deposit, there to be held on account of the persons interested, and shall issue a notice to the persons believed to be interested, informing them that the said amount has been deposited as required by this section, and that, should no application be made to the Court (as provided in the next succeeding section) within six weeks of the issue of the notice on the last of the persons named therein, the Collector will pay the amount to any persons legally authorized to receive and to give an acquittance for the same.

And to place the amount of compensation in deposit.

Objections may be made to the amount of compensation fixed by the Collector.

19. Any person on whom notice may be served under the last preceding section, and any person interested in any property in respect of which such notice has been issued, may, within six weeks of the service of such notice, apply to the Court stating his objection to the amount of compensation as fixed by the Collector under the last preceding section, and the amount which he claims as compensation. On receipt of such application the Court shall proceed to determine the amount of compensation to be paid on account of the claim and all other matters, as if a reference had been made to it under section seventeen.

Procedure in making reference under section seventeen.

20. In making a reference under section seventeen the Collector shall state, for the information of the Court, the particulars mentioned in section eighteen.

Procedure on receipt of a reference under section seventeen.

21. On receipt of a reference under section seventeen the Court shall proceed, as far as may be practicable, in accordance with sections nineteen to twenty-three (inclusive), and sections twenty-six to thirty-six (inclusive) of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870.

Provided that instead of the last clause of the said section twenty-six, the following shall be read: "The provisions of this section and of section eleven of the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876, shall be read to every assessor in a language which he understands, before he gives his opinion as to the amount of compensation to be awarded."

Particulars of apportionment to be specified.

22. Where there are several persons interested, if such persons agree in the apportionment of the compensation, the particulars of such apportionment shall be specified in the award, whether such award be made by the Collector or by the Court, and as between such persons the award shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the apportionment.

Disputes as to apportionment.

23. When the amount of compensation has been settled under section sixteen, if any dispute arises as to the apportionment of the same or any part thereof, the Collector shall refer such dispute to the decision of the Court.

All costs entailed by such a reference and the proceedings of the Court thereon shall be paid by the parties who dispute the apportionment of the compensation, in such proportions as the Court may direct, and the Collector shall not be required to disburse any such costs, nor shall any such costs be recovered from the Collector.

Determination of proportions.

24. When the amount of compensation has been settled by the Court, and there is any dispute as to the apportionment thereof, or when a reference to the Court has been made under the last preceding section, the Judge sitting alone shall decide the proportions in which the persons interested are entitled to share in such amount.

Appeal.

An appeal shall lie from every such decision to the High Court, unless the Judge whose decision is appealed from is not the District Judge, in which case the appeal shall lie in the first instance to the District Judge.

Every appeal under this section shall be presented within the time and in manner provided by the Code of Civil Procedure for regular appeals in suits.

Payment of compensation.

25. Payment of the compensation shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the award made by him under section sixteen ; or the proceeding held by him under section eighteen, if no application be made to the Court as provided by section nineteen ; or the award made by the Court or the decision of the Judge under section twenty-one ; or, in the case of an appeal under section twenty-four, in accordance with the decision in appeal, as the case may be.

Government not liable to any further claim.

26. The amount of compensation fixed by any award, proceeding, or decision as specified in the last preceding section, shall be deemed to be the full amount payable by the Government in respect of the claim dealt with therein ; and the Government shall not be liable for any further claim to any person whatever in respect of any matter which was the subject of such award, porceeding, or decision, nor shall any such claim be made against the Government in respect of the payment of any portion of such compensation in accordance with any award, proceeding, or decision as aforesaid, or in accordance with any decision of the Judge, or of the District Judge or of the High Court in appeal, as the case may be, under section twenty-four; and no suit shall be brought to set aside an award or decision under this Act.

Liability of person receiving compensation not affected.

27. Nothing contained in the last preceding section shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the whole or any part of any compensation awarded under this Act, to pay the same to the person lawfully entitled thereto.

Abatement of rent on interruption of water-supply.

28. Every tenant holding under an unexpired lease, or having a right of occupancy, who is in occupation of any land at the time when any stoppage or diminution of the supply, in respect of which compensation is allowed under section eleven, takes place, may claim an abatement of the rent previously payable by him for the said land, on the ground that the interruption reduces the value of the holding; provided that no part of the said compensation shall have been received by the said tenant in respect of such reduction in the value of his holding.

Enhancement of rent on restoration of water-supply.

29. If a water-supply increasing the value of such holding is afterwards restored to the said land otherwise than at the cost of the tenant, the rent of the tenant may be enhanced, in respect of the increased value of such land due to the restored water-supply, to an amount not exceeding that at which it stood immediately before the abatement.

Such enhancement shall be on account only of the restored water-supply, and shall not affect the liability of the tenant to enhancement of rent on any other grounds.

Compensation when due.

30. All sums of money payable for compensation under this Part shall become due three months after the claim for such compensation is made in respect of the stoppage, diminution, or damage complained of, and simple interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be allowed on any such sum remaining unpaid after the said three months, except where the non-payment of such sum is caused by the wilful neglect or refusal of the claimant to receive the same.

Collector may invest amount deposited or awarded in Government securities.

Provided that the Collector may at any time invest the whole or any portion of the amount payable as compensation under this Act in any Government securities, and such securities shall be held by the Collector for the benefit of the persons interested, and the persons interested shall be bound to receive such securities with any interest which may have accrued upon them as full payment of the sum which the Collector paid for such securities, and of any sum which he may have paid as expenses incurred in purchasing the same, and of any interest which might otherwise have accrued on such sums.

Compensation not claimable in respect of works executed before Act came into force.

31. No compensation shall be claimable under this Act in respect of any works executed before it came into force, or of any damage, injury, or loss caused by such works.

Service of notice.

32. Service of any notice under this Part shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof signed by the officer therein mentioned.

Whenever it may be practicable, the service of the notice shall be made on the person therein named.

When such person cannot be found, the service may be made on any adult male member of his family residing with him; and if no such adult male member can be found, the notice may be served by fixing the copy on the outer door of the house in which the person therein named ordinarily dwells or carries on business; and if such person has no ordinary place of residence within the district, service of any notice may be made by sending copy of such notice by post, in a registered cover addressed to such person at his usual place of residence.

PART III.

Of the Maintenance of Canals.

Entry for inquiry.

33. Whenever it shall be necessary to make any enquiry or examination in connection with a projected canal or with the maintenance of an existing canal, or with a projected flood-embankment or with the maintenance of an existing flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or other person acting under the general or special orders of a Canal Officer, may enter upon such lands as he may think necessary for the purpose, and may exercise all powers and do all things in respect of such lands as he might exercise and do if the Government had issued a notification under the provisions of section four of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, to the effect that land in that locality is likely to be needed for a public purpose; and may set up and maintain water-gauges, and do all other things necessary for the prosecution of such enquiry and examination.

Power to inspect and regulate water-supply.

34. Such Canal Officer or other person may also enter upon any land, building, or village-channel on account of which any water-rate is chargeable, for the purpose of inspecting or regulating the use of the water supplied, or of measuring the lands irrigated thereby or chargeable with a water-rate, and of doing all things necessary for the proper regulation and management of the canal from which such water is supplied.

Power to enter for repairs, and to prevent accidents.

35. In case of any accident being apprehended or happening to a canal or flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or any person acting under his general or special orders in this behalf, may enter upon any lands adjacent to such canal or flood-embankment, and may execute all works which may be necessary for the purpose of preventing such accident, or repairing any damage done.

Notice to occupier of building, &c.

36. When such Canal Officer or person proposes, under the provisions of either of the three last preceding sections, to enter into any building or enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling-house not supplied with water flowing from any canal, and not being adjacent to a flood-embankment, he shall previously give to the occupier of such building, court, or garden such reasonable notice as the urgency of the case may allow.

Compensation for damage to land.

37. In every case of entry upon any land or building under section seven, section thirty-three, section thirty-four, or section thirty-five, the Canal Officer or person making the entry shall ascertain and record the nature of any crop, tree, building, or other property, to which damage has been done, and the extent of the damage done to any such property, and shall tender compensation to the proprietors or occupiers for all damage done to the same by the entry or by any works executed. If such tender is not accepted, the Canal Officer shall refer the matter to the Collector, who shall thereupon give notice in writing to the persons interested in such land and to the Canal Officer, requiring them to attend before him, on a date to be fixed in the notice, for the purpose of making enquiry as to the amount of compensation.

Appeal from Collector's decision to Commissioner's.

38. After such enquiry as he may think necessary, the Collector shall decide the amount of compensation payable; and such decision shall be subject to an appeal to the Commissioner of the Division, provided that such appeal be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the decision appealed against.

If no such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Collector, or if such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Commissioner, shall be final and conclusive.

Government to provide means of crossing canals and of drainage.

39. Suitable means of crossing canals constructed or maintained at the cost of Government shall be provided at such places as the Lieutenant-Governor thinks necessary for the reasonable convenience of the inhabitants of the adjacent lands; and suitable bridges, culverts, or other works shall be constructed to prevent the drainage of the adjacent lands being obstructed by any canal.

Collector to certify to the Government that means of crossing canals and drainage have been provided.

On the completion of any canal, or of any convenient section of any canal, the Collector, after causing such inspection to be made as may be necessary, shall certify to the Government that suitable and sufficient means of crossing the canal, and suitable and sufficient means of drainage, as aforesaid, have been provided; or shall report in what respects the provision made for the above purposes is defective; and if at any time after he shall have given such certificate it shall be brought to his notice that the provision made as above has proved insufficient, the Collector shall cause inquiry to be made into the circumstances of the case, and if the statement is established, shall report his opinion thereon for the consideration of the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Lieutenant-Governor shall cause such measures in reference thereto to be taken as he thinks proper.

PART IV.

OF DRAINAGE.

Lieutenant-Governor may prohibit formation of obstructions within certain limits.

40. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that injury to the public health or public convenience, or to any canal, or to any land for which irrigation from a canal is available, has arisen or may arise from the obstruction of any river, stream, or natural drainage-course, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by notification published in the Calcutta Gazette, prohibit, within limits to be defined in such notification, the formation of any such obstruction, or may, within such limits, order the removal or other modification of such obstruction.

Thereupon so much of the said river, stream, or natural drainage-channel as is comprised within such limits shall be held to be a drainage-work as defined in section three.

Canal Officer may issue notice to person causing obstructions.

41. The Canal Officer or other person authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in that behalf, may, after such publication, issue an order to the person causing or having control over any such obstruction, to remove or modify the same within a time to be fixed in the order.

Canal Officer may cause obstructions to be removed.

42. If, within the time so fixed, such person does not comply with the order, the Canal Officer may cause the obstruction to be removed or modified, and if the person to whom the order was issued does not, when called upon, pay the expenses of such removal or modification, such expenses shall be recoverable as a demand under the provisions of section one, Bengal Act VII of 1868 (an Act to make further provision for the recovery of arrears of land revenue and public demands recoverable as arrears of revenue).

When drainage works are necessary Lieutenant-Governor may order a scheme to be drawn up and carried out.

43. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that any drainage works are necessary for the public health, or for the improvement or proper cultivation or irrigation of any lands in districts to which the provisions of the Bengal Embankment Act 1873 do not apply, or that protection from floods or other accumulations of water, or from erosion by a river, is required for any lands, the Lieutenant-Governor may cause a scheme for such works to be drawn up and carried into execution, and the persons authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor to draw up and execute such scheme may exercise in connection therewith all or any of the powers conferred on Canal Officers by sections thirty-three, thirty-four, and thirty-five, and shall be liable to any or all of the obligations imposed upon Canal Officers by sections thirty-six and thirty-seven.

Disposal of claims to compensation.

44. Whenever, in pursuance of a notification made under section forty, any obstruction is removed or modified;

or whenever any drainage-work is carried out under the last preceding section, all claims for compensation on account of any loss consequent on the removal or modification of the said obstruction or the construction of such work, may be made before the Collector, and he shall deal with the same in the manner provided in Part II; but no compensation shall be allowed for any damage arising from increase of percolation.

Limitation of such claims.

45. No such claim shall be entertained after the expiration of six months from the occurrence of the loss complained of, unless the Collector is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not making the claim within such period.

PART V.

OF VILLAGE-CHANNELS.

Definition of person.

46. "Person" in this Part includes any number of persons acting jointly.

Register of village-channels to be kept.

47. The Canal Officer shall keep a register of all village-channels, whether already existing or constructed under this Act, and shall note thereon in respect of every village-channel whether it is a public channel maintained at the cost of the Government, or a private channel maintained at the cost of the owners; and shall register the names of the owners of every such private channel.

Extension or branch of village-channel to be registered.

A village-channel made as an extension of, or a branch to, an existing village-channel shall be registered as a separate village-channel; and so much of the length of any village-channel as lies within the limits of any one village or mouzah shall be entered on the register as a separate village-channel. Every section of a village-channel so separately entered on the register shall be deemed to be a separate village-channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Canal Officer may register as one village-channel a section including portions lying within two or more villages.

Provided always that whenever it shall seem fit to the Canal Officer for any special reason to enter upon his register as one village-channel a section of a village-channel which includes portions lying within two or more villages or mouzahs, the Canal Officer may, with the consent of the Collector obtained in writing, register such section as one village-channel, and such section shall be deemed to be one village-channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Any person may acquire an existing village-channel by agreement.

48. Any person may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, acquire the property in an existing village-channel for the purpose of improving or maintaining it—

(a) by taking over any village-channel belonging to Government;

(b) by transfer of a village-channel from the owner thereof by private agreement.

Any person may construct a new village-channel with consent of owners or occupiers.

49. Any person may, with the permission of a Canal Officer, construct a new village-channel if he has obtained the consent of the owners and occupiers of the land required therefor.

Any person may construct village-channel by applying to Canal Officer.

50. Any person desiring the construction of a new village-channel, but being unable or unwilling to construct it under a private arrangement with the owners and occupiers of the land affected, as mentioned in the last preceding section, may apply in writing to the Canal Officer stating that he desires the said Canal Officer, in his behalf and at his cost, to do all things necessary for constructing such village-channel;

that he is ready to defray all costs necessary for acquiring the land and constructing such village-channel.

Procedure when Canal Officer considers construction of village channel expedient.

51. If the Canal Officer considers the construction of such village-channel expedient, he may call upon the applicant to deposit any part of the expense such Officer may consider necessary, and upon such deposit being made, shall cause inquiry to be made into the most suitable alignment for the said village-channel, and shall mark out the land which, in his opinion, it will be necessary to occupy for the construction thereof, and shall forthwith publish a notification in every village through which the village-channel is proposed to be taken, that so much of such land as is situated within such village has been so marked out, and shall send a copy of such notification to the Collector of every district in which any part of such land is known to be situate for publication on such land.

Person wishing to be joint-owner must make his application within thirty days.

Such notification shall also call upon any person who wishes to be admitted a joint owner of such village-channel to make his application in that respect within thirty days of the publication of such notification. If any such applicant appears, and his application is admitted, he shall be liable to pay his share in the construction of such village-channel and in the cost of acquiring such land, and shall be an owner of such village-channel when constructed.

Collector to acquire land.

52. On receipt of copy of such notification, the Collector shall proceed to acquire such land under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, as if a declaration had been issued by the Government for the acquisition thereof under section six of that Act, and as if the Government had thereupon directed the Collector to take order for the acquisition of such land under section seven of the said Act, and (if necessary) as if the Government had issued orders for summary possession being taken under section seventeen of the said Act.

Procedure after construction of village-channel.

53. On being put in possession of the land the Canal Officer shall construct the required village-channel; and on its completion shall give to the applicant notice thereof, and of any sum payable by him on account of the cost of acquiring the land and constructing the village-channel. On such notice being given, such sum shall be due from the applicant to the Canal Officer. On receipt of payment in full of all expenses incurred, the Canal Officer shall make over possession of such village-channel to such applicant.

Canal Officer may direct transfer of a village-channel.

54. Whenever a Canal Officer considers that the transfer of a village channel from the owner is necessary for the proper management of the irrigation from such village-channel, he may cause a notice to be served on the registered owner to appear on a certain day, not less than fifteen days after service of notice, and to prefer any objection to such transfer. After hearing such objection the Canal Officer may order that such village-channel shall be transferred to such person as he may think fit, and that such person be registered as owner of the said village-channel:

Provided that no person shall be registered as the owner of a village-channel under this section, unless he has expressed in writing his willingness to be so registered, and until he has paid to the Canal Officer such sum as may be fixed by the Canal Officer under section fifty-six.

A person may be admitted joint owner of an existing village-channel.

55. Any person wishing to become the joint owner of an existing village-channel may petition the Canal Officer to that effect, and on receipt of such petition the Canal Officer may, if he think fit, issue a notice as provided in the last preceding section, upon the registered owner, and after hearing any objection which the registered owner may prefer against the admission of such applicant to be a joint owner, may direct that the applicant shall be registered as such joint owner.

Canal Officer shall determine compensation to be paid for transfer or acquisition of joint ownership.

56. When deciding the question of transfer or of admission to joint ownership under either of the two last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall also determine what amount shall be paid—as the costs of the proceedings;

as compensation to the previous owners;

and the amount so determined shall be due by the transferee or the person admitted to registry as a joint owner, as the case may be; and on payment of such amount, the village-channel shall be transferred, or the applicant shall be registered as owner or as a joint owner thereof, as the case may be.

Canal Officer may fix rent for a village-channel transferred.

57. Instead of awarding payment of compensation under the last preceding section, the Canal Officer may fix an amount of rent to be paid annually to the previous owners by the persons to whom the village-channel is transferred.

Ownership of village-channel.

58. Every person

(a) acquiring a village-channel as provided in section forty-eight; or

(b) constructing a village-channel as provided in section forty-nine; or

(c) receiving possession of a village-channel as provided in section fifty-three; or

(d) acquiring a village-channel by transfer, as provided in section fifty-four, or

(e) being admitted to registration as joint owner in a village-channel, as provided in section fifty-five, shall be deemed to be an owner of such village-channel.

Obligations and rights of owner of village-channel.

59. Every owner of a village-channel shall be bound—

(a) to construct and maintain all works necessary for the passage across such village-channel of canals, village-channels, drainage-channels, and public roads existing at the time of its construction, and of the drainage intercepted by it, and for affording proper communications across it for the convenience of the occupants of neighbouring lands;

(b) to maintain such village-channel in a fit state of repair for the conveyance of water;

(c) to allow the use of it to others on such terms as may be declared equitable by the Canal Officer as hereinafter prescribed;

and shall be entitled—

(d) to have a supply of water by such village-channel at such rates and on such terms as are prescribed by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine;

(e) to receive such rent for the use of the village-channel by other persons as the Canal Officer may award him.

If owner of village-channel fails to execute works or make repairs, Canal Officer may execute them on his behalf.

60. If the owner of a village-channel fails to fulfil the obligations mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of the last preceding section the Canal Officer may require him by notice to execute the necessary works or repairs within a period not being less than fifteen days, and in the event of failure, may execute them on his behalf; and all expenses incurred by the execution of such works or repairs shall be a sum due by such owner to Government; and if any such owner who has already failed on one occasion to execute such works or repairs when required to do so, and has left them to be executed on his behalf by the Canal Officer, shall again fail to execute any such works or repairs when required to do so; or if any such owner shall refuse in any respect to fulfil the obligation mentioned in clause (c) of the last preceding section, after having been required to fulfil the same by a notice in writing from the Canal Officer, the Canal Officer may strike such village-channel off the register, and so disqualify it to be any longer a medium for the conveyance of canal water.

Resignation of ownership.

61. Any owner may resign his interest in a village-channel, provided such resignation be duly registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Owner may transfer interest.

62. Any owner of a village-channel may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, transfer his interest to any other person, provided that the liabilities of the person so transferring shall not cease till such transfer is registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Procedure on death of owner of village-channel.

63. If any owner of a village-channel dies, his legal representative may apply for registration in his stead. If no such application for registry be made within six weeks from the death of the said owner, the remaining registered owners of the village-channel, if any, shall be deemed to be owners of the entire interest in the village-channel, until some other person shall have established his claim to be registered as owner in place of the deceased. If the deceased shall have been the sole registered owner, the Canal Officer shall be deemed to be his representative for the purposes of this Part, and shall exercise all rights and be bound by all liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of his ownership of the said village-channel, until some person shall have established his right to be registered as owner thereof in place of the deceased; and the Canal Officer shall account to such person for all sums received and expended in the exercise of the rights and discharge of the liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of such ownership.

Procedure when any person applies for registration in lieu of deceased owner.

64. When any person applies for registration under the three last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the other registered owners to prefer any objection to the resignation, transfer, or succession within fifteen days, and if no such objection shall be made, or if the objections made be deemed invalid, shall order such resignation, transfer, or succession to be registered.

Interest of owners equal, unless unequal interests registered.

65. All joint owners of a village-channel shall be held to have an equal interest in it, unless, with the permission of the Canal Officer, they register specific unequal interests.

Person other than owner may have supply of water through village-channel under certain conditions.

66. Any person not an owner of a village-channel, desiring to have a supply of water through such village-channel, may make a private arrangement with the owners for the conveyance of water, or may apply to the Canal Officer for authority to use such village-channel.

Canal Officer may authorise supply.

67. On receipt of such application, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the owners to show cause why such permission should not be granted, and if no objection be raised, or if any objections be raised, and found invalid, shall authorize the conveyance of such supply on such conditions as may appear to him equitable.

Canal Officer to fix a sum as rent of village-channel.

68. The Canal Officer shall also fix a sum as rent to be paid for the use of such village-channel to the owner. Such rent may be in the form of a percentage on the water-rate of the person using the village-channel, or otherwise, as may be fixed by the Canal Officer.

Owner of a village-channel receiving supply through another village-channel.

69. The owner of a village-channel which receives its water through another village-channel may, at the discretion of the Canal Officer, either be declared a joint owner of such other village-channel, or may be required to pay rent for the use of the same to the owner thereof, as provided in the last preceding section.

Instalments in which rent is payable.

70. All rent payable under either of the two last preceding sections shall be deemed to be due in the same instalments and at the same periods as the water-rate is due, or in such other instalments and at such other dates as the Canal Officer may direct, and may be collected by the Canal Officer on behalf of the person entitled to it, if the Canal Officer thinks fit.

Canal Officer not to pay more than amount actually collected as rent.

71. Any Canal Officer collecting rent under the last preceding section on behalf of any person entitled thereto, shall be bound to pay to the person entitled to the same no more than the amount actually collected by him as rent.

Land acquired for a village-channel may not be used for other purpose.

72. No land acquired under this Part for a village-channel shall be used for any other purpose without the consent of the Canal Officer previously obtained.

Dues how to be recovered.

73. Every sum declared to be due under this Part shall be recoverable by the Canal Officer on behalf of the Government or of the person entitled to receive the same, and shall be held to be a demand under the provisions of section one of the aforesaid Bengal Act VII of 1868, or any other similar Act for the time being in force.

PART VI.

OF THE SUPPLY OF WATER.

Water to be supplied on written application only.

74. Every person desiring that water shall be supplied to his land from a canal, shall present a written application to that effect to the Canal Officer, in the form given in Schedule (B) hereto annexed, or in a similar form, binding himself by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under the powers vested in him by this Act; and no person shall be liable to pay any rate or due whatever, on account of water supplied to his land with the permission of the Canal Officer, otherwise than on such application, nor shall water be supplied otherwise than on such application.

Written permission to be given.

75. If the application mentioned in the last preceding section be granted by the Canal Officer, the Canal Officer shall cause his permission to be recorded in the form given in Schedule (C) hereto annexed, or in some similar form, binding himself by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor as aforesaid.

Rules to be subject to certain conditions.

76. All rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine shall be consistent with the following conditions:—

Power to stop water-supply;

(a) The Canal Officer may not stop the supply of water to any village-channel, or to any person who is entitled to such supply, except in the following cases:—

(i) whenever and so long as it is necessary to stop such supply for the purpose of executing any work ordered by competent authority;

(ii) whenever and so long as any village-channel is not maintained in such repair as to prevent the wasteful escape of water therefrom;

(iii) whenever and so long as it is necessary to do so in rotation to supply the legitimate demands of other persons entitled to water;

(iv) whenever and so long as it may be necessary to stop the supply in order to prevent the wastage or misuse of water.

claims to compensation in case of failure or stoppage of supply;

(b) No claim shall be made against the Government for compensation in respect of loss caused by the failure or stoppage of the water in a canal, by reason of any cause beyond the control of the Government, or of any repairs, alterations, or additions to the canal, or of any measures taken for regulating the proper flow of water therein, or for maintaining the established course of irrigation which the Canal Officer considers necessary; but the person suffering such loss shall be entitled to such remission of the ordinary charges payable for the use of the water as is authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor:

claims on account of interruption from other causes;

(c) If the supply of water to any land irrigated from a canal be interrupted otherwise than in the manner described in the last preceding clause, the occupier or owner of such land may present a petition for compensation to the Collector for any loss arising from such interruption, and the Collector shall award to the petitioner reasonable compensation for such loss:

duration of supply;

(d) When the water of a canal is supplied for the irrigation of a single crop, the permission to use such water shall be held to continue only until that crop comes to maturity, and to apply only to that crop; but if it be supplied for irrigating two or more crops to be raised on the same land within the year, such permission shall be held to continue for one year from the commencement of the irrigation, and to apply to such crops only as are matured within that year:

sale or sub-letting of right to use canal-water;

(e) No person entitled to use the water of any canal, or any work, building, or land appertaining to any canal shall sell or sub-let or otherwise transfer his right to such use without the permission of the Canal Officer, but all contracts made between Government and the owner or occupier of any immoveable property, as to the supply of canal-water to such property, shall be transferable therewith, and shall be presumed to have been so transferred whenever a transfer of such property takes place.

contracts for water transferable with land.

Canal Officer may supply water for purposes other than those of irrigation.

77. On application being made for a supply of water to be used for purposes other than those of irrigation, the Canal Officer may give permission for water to be taken for such purposes, under such special conditions and restrictions, as to the limitation and control of the supply, as he shall think proper to impose in each case.

PART VII.

OF WATER-RATES.

Charge for water how determined.

78. The rates to be charged for canal-water supplied for purposes of irrigation shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor, and all persons accepting the water shall pay for it accordingly.

Liability when person using water unauthorizedly cannot be identified.

79. If water supplied through a village-channel be used in an unauthorized manner, and if the person by whose act or neglect such use has occurred cannot be identified, the persons on whose land such water has flowed, if such land has derived benefit therefrom, or if no land has derived benefit therefrom, all the persons chargeable in respect of the water supplied through such village-channel in respect of the crop then on the ground, shall be liable to the charges made for such use, as determined by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine.

Liability when water runs to waste.

80. If water supplied through a village-channel be suffered to run to waste, and if, after enquiry by the Canal Officer, the person through whose act or neglect such water was suffered to run to waste cannot be discovered, all the persons chargeable in respect of the water supplied through such village-channel for the crop then on the ground shall be jointly liable for the charges made in respect of the water so wasted, as determined by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine.

All questions arising under this and the last preceding section shall be decided by the Canal Officer, subject to the provisions of section ninety-one.

Charges recoverable in addition to penalties.

81. All charges for the unauthorized use or for waste of water shall be deemed to be water-rate due on the crop, and may be recovered as such water-rate in addition to any penalties incurred on account of such use or waste.

Power to contract for collection of canal-dues.

82. The Canal Officer may enter into an agreement with any person for the collection and payment to the Government by such person of any sum payable under this Act by a third party.

Any sum payable under this Part deemed to be rent.

83. Any sum lawfully due under this Part, either to the Government, or to any person who has entered into an agreement to collect dues for the Government and certified by the Canal Officer to be so due, shall be deemed to be rent payable on a pottah or engagement in respect of the land irrigated, and shall be recoverable as such by the person to whom it is payable.

Provided that the claim (if any) for rent in respect of such land shall have priority over any claim for arrears of water-rate so far as regards recovery of rent by the exercise of the power of distraint.

Person who distrains may be called on to produce account.

84. If any person distrains half or more than half of any crop on account of which water-rate is due, such person shall be bound, on requisition by the Canal Officer, to furnish him with an account showing how the produce thus distrained has been appropriated in payment of such rent, and the Canal Officer shall be entitled to challenge such account before any Court competent to try suits for arrears of rent in respect of the land in question, and such Court, if it finds that the value of the crop distrained was in excess of the amount of rent which had been due for a period not longer than a year, together with the costs of the distraint, may require the distrainer to pay the water-rate due on such crop.

Arrears of water-rate deemed to be a demand under Bengal Act VII of 1868.

85. Every arrear of water-rate which is due to Government, and every sum due to Government by any person on account of collections of water-rate, and every sum due to such person on account of water-rate and certified by the Canal Officer to be so due, shall also be held to be a demand under the provisions of section one of the aforesaid Bengal Act VII of 1868, and may be recovered as provided in that Act, together with the costs of executing the processes.

Sections eighty-two to eighty-five do not apply to fines.

86. Nothing in sections eighty-two to eighty-five (inclusive) applies to fines.

PART VIII.

87. Whenever a dispute arises between two or more persons in regard to their mutual rights or liabilities in respect of the use, construction, or maintenance of a village-channel, any such person interested may apply in writing to the Canal Officer stating the matter in dispute. Such officer shall thereupon give notice to the other persons interested that, on a day to be named in such notice, he will proceed to enquire into the said matter, and, after such enquiry, he may pass his order thereon, or may transfer the matter to the Collector, who shall thereupon enquire into and pass his order on the said matter.

Dispute as to shares and payments.

88. Whenever any dispute arises among joint owners of a village-channel as to their shares of expense or as to the amounts severally contributed, or as to failure on the part of any owner to contribute his share, the matter may be decided after inquiry by the Canal Officer or Collector, as provided in the last preceding section.

Order passed by Collector and Canal Officer to remain in force until set aside by Civil Court.

89. Any order passed by the Collector, under either of the two last preceding sections, and, subject to the provisions of section ninety-one, any such order passed by a Canal Officer, shall remain in force until set aside by the decree of a Civil Court, and may be executed by any Canal Officer as if it were a decree of the Civil Court.

Power to summon and examine witnesses.

92. Any officer empowered under this Act to conduct any enquiry may exercise all such powers connected with the summoning and examining of witnesses, as are conferred on Civil Courts by the Code of Civil Procedure; and every such enquiry shall be deemed a judicial proceeding.

Sale how to be conducted.

115. If the sum due be not paid with costs before the time fixed for the sale, or the warrant be not discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the moveable property seized shall be sold by auction, at the time and place specified, in the most public manner possible, and the proceeds shall be applied in discharge of the arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned on demand to the person in possession of the moveable property at the time of the seizure; or if unclaimed for a period of twelve months, shall become vested in the Commissioners and be transferred to the Municipal Fund.

Return of sales.

The tax-collector or other officer authorized in that behalf shall make a return of all such sales to the Commissioners in the form marked (E) in the second schedule.

Certain persons prohibited from purchasing at sales.

116. All officers and servants of the Commissioners, and all chowkeedars, constables, and other officers of Police are prohibited from purchasing any property at any such sale.

Commissioners to keep account of distresses and sales.

117. The Commissioners shall cause a regular account to be kept of all distresses levied and sales made for the recovery of taxes under this Act.

Sale of property beyond limits of Municipality.

118. If no sufficient goods or chattels belonging to a defaulter, or being upon the premises in respect of which he is assessed or rated, can be found within the Municipality, the Magistrate may, on the application of the Commissioners, issue his warrant to any officer of his Court for the distress and sale of any personal property or effects belonging to the defaulter within any other part of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate, or for the distress and sale of any personal property belonging to the defaulter within the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate whatsoever, and such other Magistrate shall endorse the warrant so issued, and cause it to be executed, and the amount, if levied, to be remitted to the Magistrate issuing the warrant, who shall remit the same to the Commissioners.

Distress or sale not unlawful for want of form.

119. No distress or sale made under this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser on account of any error, defect, or want of form in the bill, notice, summons, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto.

Commissioners may bring suit instead of distraining, or on failure of distress.

120. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize thereby the whole or any part of any tax, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Irrecoverable taxes.

121. The Commissioners may order to be struck off the books the amount of any tax or rate which may appear to them to be irrecoverable.

Of the Tax on Carriages, Horses, and other Animals.

Tax on carriages, horses, and other animals.

122. When it has been determined that a tax on carriages, horses, and other animals specified in the third schedule shall be imposed, the Commissioners at a meeting shall make an order that every carriage, horse, and every other animal of the kind specified in the third schedule which is kept or habitually used within, or which is let for hire within or without the Municipality, and habitually used within it, shall pay the tax, and shall cause such order to be published in the manner required by section 362.

Such order shall be published at least one month before the beginning of the half-year in which such tax shall first take effect; and shall specify at what rates, not exceeding the rates given in the third schedule, such tax shall be levied.

But such tax shall not be imposed on—

(a) horses or ponies belonging to officers doing regimental duty, at the rate of one animal for each officer;

(b) animals exempt from any municipal tax under section 25 of the Indian Volunteers' Act, 1869;

(c) carriages or animals belonging to Government, or to the Municipality, or for keeping which for the execution of their duty an allowance is made by the Government or by the Commissioners to any of their officers;

(d) animals used by, or exclusively for the purposes of, any regiment;

(e) horses or ponies used by police officers, at the rate of not more than one for each officer;

(f) carriages, the wheels of which do not exceed twenty-four inches in diameter;

(g) animals under eleven hands in height;

(h) carriages or animals kept for sale by any bonâ fide dealer in such carriages or animals, and not used for any other purpose.

Tax so fixed to continue in force until altered.

123. Any order of the Commissioners imposing a tax under the last preceding section shall continue in force until rescinded, and the tax shall be levied at the rates specified in the order published as aforesaid, unless and until the Commissioners at a meeting, held not less than fifteen days before the end of the year, make and publish an order specifying any different rates at which the tax shall be payable for the ensuing year.

Licenses how to be obtained.

124. In any Municipality in which a tax has been imposed under the last preceding section, the owner of every carriage, horse, and other animal specified in the third schedule shall, within the first month of each half-year, forward to the Commissioners a statement in writing, signed by him, containing a description of the carriages, horses, and other animals liable to the tax for which he is bound to take out a license.

Such owner shall at the same time pay to the Commissioners such sum as shall be payable by him for the current half-year for the carriages, horses, and other animals specified in such statement, according to the rates specified in any order for the time being in force under the two last preceding sections.

Proportionate tax on carriages, &c., acquired during half-year.

125. If any person acquires possession at any time after the commencement of any half-year, of any carriage, horse, or other animal specified in the third schedule, in respect of which no license has been given for such half-year, he shall forward a statement as above required within one month of the date on which he may have acquired possession thereof, and shall pay such amount of the tax as shall bear the same proportion to the whole tax for the half-year as the unexpired portion of the half-year bears to the half-year; and such amount shall be calculated from the date on which such person may have acquired possession as aforesaid.

On payment of tax, Commissioners to give a license.

126 On receiving the amount of the tax due as aforesaid, the Commissioners, or some person authorised by them in that behalf, shall give to the person paying the same a license for the several carriages, horses, and other animals for the period in respect of which the amount is received.

Such license shall be for the current half-year and no longer.

Carriage, &c., liable to the tax although the owner be absent.

127. Whenever the owner of any carriage, horse, or other animal liable to pay the said tax is not resident within the limits of the Municipality to the Commissioners of which the tax is due, the person in whose immediate possession the carriage, horse, or other animal is for the time being kept shall take out a license for the same.

Penalty

128. Whoever keeps or is in possession of any carriage, horse, or other animal without the license required by the three last preceding sections, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such license, exclusive of the amount so payable.

Commissioners may compound with livery stable-keepers.

129. The Commissioners at their discretion may compound, for any period not exceeding one year, with livery stable-keepers and other persons keeping carriages or animals for hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the carriages or animals so kept by such person, in lieu of the tax at the rates specified in any order made by the Commissioners under sections 122 and 123.

List of persons licensed to be prepared.

130. The Commissioners shall from time to time cause to be prepared and entered in a book, to be kept by them, and to be open to the inspection of any person interested therein, a list of the persons to whom, during the then current half-year, a license has been given, and of the carriages, horses, and other animals in respect of which they have paid the tax.

Power to inspect stable, &c., and to summon persons liable to the payment of the tax

131. The Commissioners, or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may at any time between sunrise and sunset enter and inspect any stable or coach-house, or any place wherein they may have reason to believe that there is any carriage, horse, or other animal liable to the tax for which a license has not been duly taken out.

And the Commissioners may summon any person whom they have reason to believe to be liable to the payment of any such tax, or any servant of such person, and may examine such person or servant as to the number and description of the carriages, horses, and other animals in respect of which such person is liable to be taxed.

Refund of tax in certain cases.

132. On proof being given to the satisfaction of the Commissioners that a carriage, horse, or other animal for which a license has been taken out for any half-year has ceased to be kept or to be used within the Municipality during the course of such half-year, the Commissioners shall order a refund of so much of the tax for the half-year as shall bear the same proportion to the whole tax for the half-year as the period during which such carriage, horse, or other animal has not been kept or used in the Municipality bears to the half-year; but no such refund shall be allowed unless notice be given to the Commissioners within one month of the time when such use of such carriage, horse, or other animal ceased, and the Commissioners shall pass no order for refund until after the close of the half-year in respect of which the refund is claimed.

Of the Registration of Carts.

Registration and number of carts.

133. The Commissioners at a meeting may make and publish an order that every cart, which is kept or habitually used within, or which is let for hire within or without the Municipality and habitually used within it, shall be registered by the Commissioners with the name and residence of the owner, and shall bear the number of registration in such manner as the said Commissioners shall direct.

This section shall not apply to carts—

(a) which are the property of the Government or of the Municipality;

(b) which are kept without the limits of the Municipality, and are only temporarily and casually used within such limits;

(c) which are kept in Howrah or within the Suburbs of Calcutta.

Fee for registration.

134. The registration of carts under the last preceding section shall be made, and the numbers assigned yearly or half-yearly, upon such days as the Commissioners shall notify, and such fee as they shall from time to time fix and notify, not exceeding four rupees if the registration has effect for a year, and not exceeding two rupees if the registration has effect for half a year, shall be paid for each registration.

Proportionate payment of fee.

135. Any person becoming possessed of any cart which has not been registered for the then current period of registration, shall register the same within one month of the date on which he may have become possessed thereof, and the Commissioners shall grant registration in any such case on payment of such amount of the fee as shall bear the same proportion to the whole fee for the current period of registration as the unexpired portion of the current period of registration bears to the whole of such period; and such fee shall be calculated from the date on which such person may have become possessed as aforesaid.

Transfer of ownership.

136. When the ownership of any registered cart is transferred within any period of registration, it shall be registered anew within one month of the transfer in the name of the person to whom it has been transferred, and a fee not exceeding four annas shall be paid for every such last-mentioned registration.

Penalty.

137. Whoever keeps or is in possession of a cart not duly registered as required by the three last preceding sections, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding three times the amount payable by him in respect of such registration, exclusive of the amount so payable; and whoever, being the owner or driver of any cart, shall fail to affix thereto the registration number as required by section 131, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five rupees.

Seizure and sale of unregistered cart.

138. If any person owns or keeps any cart hereinbefore required to be registered without having caused the same to be registered, the Commissioners, or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may seize and detain such cart (provided the same be not employed at the time of seizure in the conveyance of any passengers or goods), together with the animals drawing the same; and all police officers are required, on the application of the Commissioners, or of any servant of the Commissioners duly authorized in that behalf, to assist in the said seizure.

After such seizure the Commissioners shall forthwith issue a notice in writing that after the expiration of ten days they will sell such vehicle and animals by auction at such place as they may state in the notice; and if any registration fee, together with the cost arising from such seizure and custody, remains unpaid for ten days after the issue of such notice, the Commissioners may sell the property seized for payment of the said fee, and of all expenses occasioned by such non-payment, seizure, custody, and sale.

Any balance that may remain out of the proceeds of the sale shall be returned, on demand, if made within twelve months, to the owner of the property, and if unclaimed after such period, shall be credited to the Municipal Fund.

Provided that if at any time before the sale is concluded the person whose cart has been seized shall tender to the Commissioners, or the person authorized by them to sell the cart, the amount of all the expenses incurred, and the registration fee payable by him, the Commissioners shall forthwith release the cart so seized.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the surplus of the sale proceeds of a cart seized under this section may be devoted to the payment of any fine imposed under the last preceding section; and any cart which has been seized under this section may be sold for the realization of any such fine.

Of Tolls on Ferries.

Existing public ferries.

139. The Lieutenant-Governor may, with the consent of the Commissioners, make over to the Commissioners any existing public ferry within or adjacent to the limits of the Municipality,

Every ferry while so administered shall be deemed to be a municipal ferry, and the profits derivable therefrom, or such part of the profits as the Lieutenant-Governor shall order, shall be carried to the credit of the Municipal Fund.

Other ferries may be declared to be municipal.

140. The Commissioners may also, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, declare that any other ferry within or adjacent to the limits of the Municipality is a municipal ferry, and the profits derivable therefrom shall thenceforward be carried to the credit of the Municipal Fund:

provided that due compensation shall be made by the Municipality to any person for the loss which he may have sustained in consequence of such ferry being declared to be a municipal ferry.

The amount of compensation due in such cases shall be ascertained and awarded by the Magistrate under the provisions of section 4 of Bengal Act I of 1866 (to amend certain provisions of Regulation VI of 1819) or any similar law for the time being in force.

142. When it has been determined to impose tolls on municipal ferries, the Commissioners at a meeting shall make and publish an order specifying the ferries, and, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor, the rates at which such tolls shall be levied.

Such rates may from time to time be varied with the like sanction.

When persons crossing river not liable to toll.

143. No person shall be liable to pay any toll for crossing any river or stream at or near a municipal ferry unless he avails himself of the means provided by the Commissioners for crossing such river or stream.

144. Every lease of a ferry given by the Commissioners as hereinafter provided shall be liable to be cancelled at once, if it shall appear to the Commissioners at a meeting that the lessee has failed to make due provision for the convenience or safety of the public within fifteen days after being required to do so by a notice in writing from the Commissioners.

On the cancelment of a lease, the Commissioners may take possession of all boats and other appliances which have been used by the lessee in the working of the ferry; and may either retain the same permanently on payment of a fair price to the proprietor, or may retain them for such time as may be necessary, not exceeding three months, until they can make arrangements for such other boats and appliances as may be necessary, in which case the Commissioners shall pay a fair price to the owners for the use of the said boats and appliances.

Provided that within a week of taking such possession the Commissioners shall be bound to give notice to the said lessee of the intention to retain the said boats and appliances permanently, or of the period during which they intend to retain them, as the case may be.

Toll must be prepaid.

145. Any collector or lessee of tolls, or his agent, may refuse to convey any person or goods across a municipal ferry until the proper toll has been paid, and may require any person who refuses to pay the toll to leave the boat and to remove his goods from it.

or of the Magistrate of the district and the Commissioners, if one of the two banks between which he plies is within, and the other bank is without, such limits.

This section shall not apply to any private ferry which may be in existence at the commencement of this Act.

Penalty.

147. Whoever keeps a ferry-boat contrary to the provisions of the last preceding section, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and to a further fine, not exceeding ten rupees, for each day during which the offence is continued after he has been required by a notice in writing to desist from such offence.

Of Tolls on Roads.

148. The Lieutenant-Governor may, with the consent of the Commissioners, make over to the Commissioners any existing toll-bar within the limits of the Municipality, to be administered by the Municipality until the Lieutenant-Governor shall otherwise direct; every toll-bar while so administered shall be deemed to be a municipal toll-bar, and the profits derivable from it, or such part thereof as the Lieutenant-Governor shall direct, shall be carried to the credit of the Municipal Fund.

Commissioners may establish toll-bar.

Provided that no such toll-bar shall be established, or tolls levied, otherwise than for the purpose of recovering the expenses incurred in constructing such bridge or road, and in maintaining such bridge or road in repair for the five years next after the construction thereof, together with interest on such expenses as hereinafter provided.

After such seizure the Commissioners shall forthwith issue a notice in writing that after the expiration of ten days they will sell the property seized by auction at such place as they may state in the notice; and if any toll, together with the cost arising from such seizure and custody, remain undischarged for ten days after the issue of such notice, the Commissioners may sell the property seized for discharge of the toll, and of all expenses occasioned by such non-payment, seizure, custody, and sale.

Any balance that may remain out of the proceeds of the sale shall be returned, on demand, if made within twelve months, to the owner of the property, and if unclaimed after such period shall be credited to the Municipal Fund.

Provided that if, at any time before the sale has been concluded, the person whose property has been seized shall tender to the Commissioners, or the officer appointed by them to sell the property, the amount of all the expenses incurred and of the toll payable by him, the Commissioners shall forthwith release the property seized.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the surplus of the sale proceeds of any property seized under this section may be devoted to the payment of any fine imposed under the last preceding section; and any property which has been seized under this section may be sold for the realization of any such fine.

Provided that during such deputation, the District Superintendent of Police shall make due provision for the efficient performance of police duties within the Municipality.

And the Inspector-General of Police is hereby precluded from exercising over the Police within the said suburbs any of the powers and authorities vested in him by the said Act V of 1861.

Lieutenant-Governor may extend Chapter.

316. The provisions of this Chapter may be extended by the Lieutenant-Governor, by notification published in the Calcutta Gazette, to any city, town, suburb or bazar not being within the limits of the ordinary original jurisdiction of the High Court at Fort William in Bengal, from such date as may be specified therein, and shall thereupon come into force in such city, town, suburb or bazar on the date so specified Lieutenant-Governor may vary limits of town or withdraw it from operation of Chapter.

317. The Lieutenant-Governor may, by like notification, at any time vary the limits of any Union, or withdraw any Union from the operation of this Chapter.

Unions may be formed.

318. The Lieutenant-Governor may, by notification to be published in the said Gazette, form into a Union for the purposes of this Chapter any city, town, suburb, or bazar, or any part or parts of a city, town, suburb, or bazar with any other city, town, suburb, or bazar, or part or parts of a city town, suburb, or bazar; but no agricultural village intervening shall be included in such Union.

Government may define limits of towns, &c

319. For the purposes of this Chapter, the Lieutenant-Governor may define and declare the limits of any Union, and all occupiers of houses within any such Union shall be liable to be assessed according to the provisions of this Chapter for the purposes mentioned in the next succeeding section; but such Union shall not include any agricultural village.

Magistrate to raise amount of expense.

320. The Magistrate of every Union shall, by ways and means in and by this Chapter provided, cause to be levied and raised in such Union the amount of the expense of the police to be borne under the provisions of this Chapter by such Union, and the cost of raising such amount; and the Magistrate may by the same ways and means cause to be levied such further sum as to him shall seem meet, and apply the same in cleansing such Union, in providing drinking-water or in lighting or otherwise improving the same:

Provided that the aggregate amount to be raised under the provisions of this section shall not exceed the average rate of one rupee and eight annas per annum for each house, and the amount assessed in respect of any one house shall not be more than the pay of a police officer of the lowest grade who is appointed to such Union.

The Town Fund.

321. All sums raised, levied, or received by the Magistrate, and all fines paid or levied under this Chapter, and all other sums which the Lieutenant-Governor may direct, shall constitute a fund which shall be called the Union Fund of the Union on account of which they are raised, levied, or received; and all expenditure authorized by this Chapter shall be made from such fund.

Magistrate may cause estimates to be prepared.

322. The Magistrate shall, before the close of each year, cause to be prepared in detail estimates showing the probable receipts and expenditure of the Union during the ensuing year, and shall lay such estimates before the Commissioner of the division, who may accept, amend, or reject the same.

Nature of the tax to be levied.

323. The tax to be levied in any Union for the purposes of this Chapter shall be an assessment according to the circumstances and the property to be protected of the persons liable to the same.

Constitution of panchaits.

324. For the purposes hereinafter mentioned, the Magistrate shall constitute and appoint a panchait for each Union, or, when he may see fit to divide any Union into convenient wards, for each ward thereof; and shall issue a certificate of appointment, specifying the names, residence, business, or other description of the persons appointed, and the period for which the appointment is made.

Every panchait shall consist of three or five respectable persons residing or carrying on business in or near to any such Union, or in or near to any such division thereof:

Provided that instead of any one such person, the Magistrate may appoint any person whom he may think fit to be a member of the panchait notwithstanding such person may not reside or carry on business in or near to such Union, or in or near to any such division thereof.

Duties of panchait.

325. The panchait so appointed, or the majority of them, shall, once in every year, if required so to do by the Magistrate, prepare and make, in accordance with the rules laid down in the requisition, an assessment upon the several persons liable to be assessed in respect of their occupation of property within the Union, or any ward thereof as aforesaid for which the panchait shall be appointed, and shall enter the same in a list which shall specify the names of the several occupiers of property within such Union or ward thereof liable to be assessed under the provisions of this Chapter, the trade, business, or other description of such occupier, the property occupied, and the amount payable monthly by such occupier.

Form of Magistrate's requisition.

326. The requisition of the Magistrate to the panchait to make out such list shall be in the form marked (A), set forth in the fourth schedule or to the like effect.

Panchait may revise existing assessment.

327. The panchait shall, if required by the Magistrate so to do, instead of making a new assessment, revise and amend the assessment then in force.

Magistrate may amend and settle assessment as revised by the panchait.

328. When an assessment shall have been made or revised, as the case may be, the panchait shall forward to the Magistrate the list containing the same, and the Magistrate shall revise and, if necessary, amend and settle it.

Magistrate may exempt occupiers unable to pay the assessment.

329. The Magistrate may, at his discretion, exempt from the assessment any occupier who may be unable from poverty to pay the same.

Assessment to be published.

330. When the assessment shall have been settled, the Magistrate shall sign the list, and shall cause a copy thereof to be prepared in the form (B) in the fourth schedule, and deposited in his office, and a notification in the form (C) of the said schedule or to the like effect, and written in the language which is ordinarily spoken in such Union, to be published in the manner provided in section 362.

Assessment to stand good for one year.

331. Unless revised or corrected as hereinafter provided, every assessment made under this Chapter shall stand good for one whole year, and until a new one is made.

Change of occupation before a new assessment.

In case the occupier of any property included in any assessment shall be changed before a new assessment is made, the new occupier, instead of the former occupier thereof, shall be liable in respect of such property for any portion of the assessment which shall have become payable during his occupation; and, after notification to such person, the Magistrate may cause his name to be substituted in the said list for the name of the former occupier.

Revised assessment to be deemed a new one.

Every assessment which shall be revised according to the provisions of section 327 shall be deemed a new assessment;

Provided that if no new assessment is made within the first three months of any year, a notification of the list of the previous year shall be published as required by section 330, and such list shall thereupon be deemed to be the assessment for the current year, and shall be open to appeal under the next succeeding section.

Appeal from assessment.

332. Any person assessed who shall be dissatisfied with his assessment or who shall dispute his occupation of any property, or his liability to be assessed, may appeal on unstamped paper to the Magistrate; and the Magistrate, after making such inquiries as he deems necessary, by examination of the appellant on oath or solemn affirmation, or otherwise, may confirm the assessment or amend the same.

The decision of the Magistrate in such cases shall be final, and no objection shall be taken to any assessment, nor shall the liability of any person to be assessed be questioned in any other manner or by any other court:

Provided that no appeal shall be received after the expiration of one month from the time of the publication of the notification prescribed by section 330, or of the notification of the substitution of the name of an occupier under section 331, unless the Magistrate, upon reasonable cause shown, shall extend the time for receiving such appeal.

Commissioner of division may direct revision of assessment.

333. The Commissioner of the division, with the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor, may at any time direct the Magistrate to revise the assessment of any Union, or ward thereof as aforesaid, specifying the reasons which, in his opinion, render such revision necessary, and the Magistrate shall, according to such direction, revise and, if necessary, amend the same.

Magistrate may direct revision of assessment at any time of the year for reasons to be stated.

334. The Magistrate may require the panchait to revise the assessment at any period during the year, but on every such occasion he shall address a written order to the panchait specifying the reasons which render such revision necessary, and requiring an amended return within a stated period.

Publication of assessment as revised under the two last sections.

335. Whenever any assessment is revised during the year as provided in the two last preceding sections, a copy of such revised list shall be prepared and deposited as provided in section 330, and a notification shall be published in the manner directed in the said section. And all objections to such revised assessment shall be made and dealt with in the manner prescribed by section 331.

If panchait refuse or omit to act, Magistrate may assume their functions.

336. If the persons appointed a panchait, or a majority of them, refuse or omit, for a period of fifteen days after the receipt of an order from the Magistrate, to perform the duties required of them, the Magistrate may himself make or revise the assessment, and may enforce the same as if it had been made or revised in the first instance by the panchait:

Provided that the functions of the panchait shall not thereby absolutely cease and determine, but may be resumed at any time, only not so as to invalidate any act done by the Magistrate under this section.

Residents only bound to act on a panchait.

337. No person shall be bound to act on a panchait unless he shall reside or carry on business within the limits of the Union or ward thereof for which the panchait is to be appointed.

Duration of panchait and limitation of service thereon.

338. Every panchait shall be appointed for the period of one year, and no person shall be compelled to serve on a panchait for more than one year at a time, or within less than three years after the expiry of previous service; but nothing in this section shall prevent any person from being appointed to serve on a panchait at any time whatsoever with his own consent.

Member of panchait removeable only on application of rate-payers.

339. If a majority of the persons assessed in any Union or ward for which a panchait shall be appointed, not being in arrear, make application in writing to the Magistrate for the removal of any member of the panchait appointed for such district, the Magistrate, if he think it expedient, may remove such member from the panchait.

Vacancies in panchait how to be supplied.

340. If any vacancy shall occur among the members of a panchait, or if any member appointed shall refuse or decline or be unable to act, the Magistrate may, by a written communication to the person appointed, nominate and appoint another person to supply the vacancy or to be a member of the panchait.

Appointment and duty of sudder panchait

341 In cities and large towns containing three or more divisions or districts, the Magistrate may appoint a sudder panchait consisting of not less than five members, who may be selected either from the members of the local panchaits or from any other residents of the town.

It shall be the duty of the sudder panchait to assist the Magistrate, when required so to do, in carrying out generally the objects of this Chapter, and particularly in revising the assessment made by the panchaits of wards of the Union, and enquiring into, and reporting on, appeals preferred against the same.

Appointment of Tax Collectors and other establishments

342. Subject to the approval of the Commissioner of the division, the Magistrate may appoint one or more tax collectors and such other servants as may be necessary for preparing, or assisting the panchait in preparing, the assessment for copying the same, for collecting the tax, keeping the accounts and records, and otherwise carrying out the purposes of this Chapter. The Magistrate shall take from every tax collector such security for the due disposal of the sums collected by him as may be thought necessary.

Collection of assessment.

343. On such dates as may be fixed by the panchaits for payment of instalments of the tax, the tax collector shall proceed in person, or through some one of his office establishment, to collect the amount due for the current month from each person subject to the tax, and for all sums so collected the tax collector shall grant a receipt.

Provided that, with the sanction of the Commissioner of the division previously obtained, the collection may be made quarterly instead of monthly, and in such case the amount due for each quarter shall be collected in the last month of that quarter.

Recovery of sums not paid to the Tax Collector.

344. For the recovery of all sums which may not be paid to the tax collector on demand, the Magistrate shall proceed as far as possible in accordance with sections 111 to 120 (both inclusive).

Part V of Chapter II is applicable to towns.

345. The provisions of Part V of Chapter II shall, as far as possible, be applicable to Unions. In so applying them, the sections of the said Part shall be read as if the word "Union" were substituted for the word "municipality," and for the word "municipal," wherever such words occur; and all functions assigned to the Commissioners of Municipalities by the said Part shall be performed by the panchaits of Unions; provided that the District Superintendent of Police shall present his estimate as mentioned in section 167 to the Magistrate, and not to the panchait; provided also that the Magistrate shall cause such estimate to be translated, made available for inspection by any tax-payers, and laid before the panchaits in the manner provided in section 169, and that the District Superintendent of Police shall cause the bill mentioned in section 173 to be laid before the Magistrate and not before the panchait, and the Magistrate shall cause the amount to be paid as provided in the same section.

54. If the applicant's possession of, succession to, or acquisition by transfer of the extent of interest in respect of which he has applied to be registered, is disputed by or on behalf of any person making a conflicting claim in respect thereof, and if the possession of the applicant in accordance with his application is not proved to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector shall ascertain by summary inquiry who is the person best entitled to the extent of interest in dispute, and shall put such person in possession thereof and make the necessary entry in the registers accordingly, subject to any orders which may subsequently be made by any Civil Court;

or if in the opinion of the Collector the dispute be one which can more properly be determined by a Civil Court, the Collector shall refer the matter in dispute to the principal Civil Court of the district for determination as hereinafert provided.

Provided that if the applicant's possession of any extent of interest in accordance with his application be not disputed, or if such possession be proved to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may register the said applicant's name in respect of such extent of interest, and may at the same time make a reference as hereinafter provided to the Civil Court for determination of any dispute as to any further extent of interest in respect of which the applicant has applied to be registered, but in respect of which the right of the applicant to be registered is disputed, and is not proved to the satisfaction of the Collector.

Effect of Collector's order.

55. Every order of a Collector passed under the first clause of the last preceding section shall be of the same force and effect as an order passed by the Judge under section 4 of Act XIX of 1841, determining summarily the right to possession and delivering possession accordingly;

PART V.

OF THE OPENING OF SEPARATE ACCOUNTS IN RESPECT OF SHARES.

67. Notwithstanding anything contained in Act XI of 1859 (an Act to improve the law relating to sales of land, &c.), from the commencement of this Act no separate account shall be opened under the provisions of section 10 or of section 11 of the said Act in respect of the share of any applicant under the said sections otherwise than for a share corresponding with the character and extent of interest in the estate in respect of which such applicant is recorded as proprietor or manager under this Act.

In course of time X has inherited A's 4 annas share, and also C's interest in the 7 annas share, which amounted to 3 annas; X has also acquired by purchase 2 annas out of B's 5 annas share, so that the interests in the estate are now distributed as follows :—

X	... ...	9 annas.
B	... ...	3 „
D & E	...	4 „

X, if a recorded proprietor of the estate, may apply to the Collector to close the separate account which is open in respect of A's 4 annas share, and also the separate account which is open in respect of B's 5 annas share, as neither of these shares corresponds with the extent of interest held by any one proprietor, or held jointly by two or more proprietors in the estate;

and in the same application X may apply for the opening of a separate account in respect of the 9 annas share which he now holds.

Separate account may be closed and another opened.

69. On receipt of such application the Collector shall cause a copy of the same to be published in the manner provided in section 10 of Act XI of 1859; and if within six weeks from the date of such publication no objection is made by any other recorded proprietor of the estate, the Collector shall close the separate account which then stands open, and shall open a separate account with the applicant as required by him, under section 10, or section 11 of Act XI of 1859, or under section 71 of this Act, as the case may be.

Effect of objection.

70. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the share in respect of which any separate account is open as aforesaid has not been broken up, and does still correspond with the character and extent of interest held by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, or object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the estate is less or other than that claimed by him.

or, when the application is in respect of a specific portion of the land of an estate or in respect of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, object that the amount of Government revenue stated by the applicant to have been heretofore paid on account of such portion of land, or on account of the applicants undivided interest therein, is not the amount which has been recognized by the other sharers as the Government revenue thereof, the Collector shall refer the parties to the Civil Court, and shall suspend proceedings until the question at issue is judicially determined.

Proprietor holding undivided interest in specific lands may apply for separate account.

71. When a recorded proprietor of a joint estate whose share consists of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, but not extending over the whole estate, desires to pay his share of the Government revenue separately, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the land in which he holds such undivided interest and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of Government revenue heretofore paid on account of such undivided interest. On the receipt of this application the Collector shall cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in section 10 of Act XI of 1859.

In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector shall open a separate account with the applicant, and shall credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it.

The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence.

Sections 12, 13, and 14 of Act XI 1859 applicable.

72. Section 12 of the said Act XI of 1859 shall apply to every application made under the last preceding section; and the effect and consequences of opening a separate account under the last preceding section shall be such and the same as are described in section 13 and in section 14 of Act XI of 1859.

A copy of such order shall be published by being posted up at the court of every Judge and Munsif, and at the office of every Collector and Sub-Divisional Officer within whose jurisdiction, and at every police station within the jurisdiction of which, the said tract or any part of it is situated, and in such one or more conspicuous places in the said tract as the Collector may direct.

Lieutenant-Governor to specify matters for inquiry.

5. Whenever the Lieutenant-Governor shall have made an order under section three, the Lieutenant-Governor shall also issue instructions specifying any matters of fact into which the Collector shall inquire, in accordance with the provisions of the said section; and on receipt of such instructions the Collector shall proceed to make the inquiry in accordance therewith.

Power to Collector to enforce attendance of witnesses.

7. For the purpose of such inquiry, the Collector shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of parties and witnesses, to examine such parties and witnesses, and to compel the production of documents by the same means (as far as may be) and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

Collector to draw up report, and to allow persons to take copies of the same.

8. After making the necessary inquiry, the Collector shall draw up a report stating the result of the inquiry, and his own opinion on each of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, and shall publish a notice in his office stating that any person may take a copy of the said report for the purpose of advancing before the Commissioner any objections thereto which he may think fit, and that such objections must be filed in the office of the Commissioner, or in the office of the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within fifteen days of the publication of the said notice.

The Collector shall forward such report and copies of any objections which may be filed in his office under the last preceding section to the Commissioner, and the Commissioner, after considering such objections, and causing any further inquiry to be made which he may think fit, shall submit the report of the Collector, with copies of the objections made thereto, and with his own opinion on each of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, to the Board.

Board to issue instructions to Collector.

10. After considering the reports and objections submitted by the Commissioner under the last preceding section, the Board shall issue such instructions as to it shall seem fit, not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, in respect to the determination of each of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, and the Collector shall make an order determining each of the said matters in accordance with such instructions of the Board.

Suits to be transferred to Collector.

11. On receipt of such instructions the Collector shall publish a notice of such receipt at his office, and from the date of the publication of such notice, and as long as this Act is in force in the tract mentioned in section three, all suits of the nature of those specified in section 23 of Act X of 1859, relating to such tract, shall be instituted before, and, except as hereinafter otherwise expressly provided, be cognizable by, the Collector and by no other tribunal.

Collector to send copy of notice to Courts.

12. As soon as possible after publication of the notice mentioned in the last preceding section, the Collector shall send a copy thereof to every Court which had jurisdiction to entertain such suits immediately before the publication of the said notice.

Procedure in suits.

13. In the disposal of such suits the Collector shall, as far as possible, follow the procedure prescribed in Act X of 1859, and all powers exercised by a Collector under the said Act may be exercised by the Collector under this Act, provided that all such suits shall be decided by a reference to, and in accordance with, any order of the Collector determining a matter under section ten, in so far as such order may be applicable.

Power to refer to arbitration.

14. The Collector may, with the consent of the parties concerned, refer any such suit to arbitration, and the provisions of sections 313 to 325 (both inclusive) of the aforesaid Act VIII of 1859 shall, as far as may be practicable, apply to such references.

Rules for determining rate of rent.

14A. Whenever in any suit instituted under the provisions of this Act it shall appear to the Collector that a ryot having a right of occupancy is liable to enhancement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been increased otherwise than by the agency or at the expense of the ryot;

or whenever in any such suit it shall appear to the Collector that such ryot is entitled to claim an abatement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been decreased by any cause beyond the powers of the said ryot,

the Collector shall, if possible, fix the rate of rent payable by such ryot, so that the rent previously paid by such ryot shall bear to the rent so fixed the same proportion as the former value of the produce of the soil, calculated on an average of three or five years rent before the date of the alleged rise or decrease in value, bears to the present value of such produce;

but if in any such suit the Collector shall not be able to ascertain to his satisfaction the former value of the produce as required for the application of the above rule, the Collector may determine the rate of rent payable by such ryot according to any of the following methods:—

(a) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the existing average gross value of the produce of the land held by him as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(b) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the average net profits of the land held by him (after deducting from the average gross annual value of the produce of such lands such a sum as may be deemed proper on account of costs of production and disposal of such produce) as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(c) by taking as the standard of comparison the rates which are generally paid by ryots having no right of occupancy in adjacent places, or in such places as the Collector may select, for lands of a similar description and having similar advantages; and by fixing the rates of rent to be paid by the ryot having a right of occupancy at such percentage below the rent which would be paid for the same lands by ryots having no right of occupancy as the Collector may consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case.

Suit may be brought by or against any number of ryots collectively.

15. In every suit under this Act of the nature of those specified in the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of section 23 of Act X of 1859, any number of ryots or other tenants may be sued, or may sue collectively, and it shall be no ground for dismissing or refusing to hear the application that such ryots or other tenants are wrongly joined as plaintiffs ordefendants, provided all such ryots or tenants hold land in the same estate;

but no order shall be passed in such case unless the officer making such order is satisfied that all parties have had an opportunity to appear and make objection to any claims preferred against them;

and if at any time it shall appear to the Collector that the question between any two of the parties of whom one is so joined with others cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, the Collector may order a separate trial to be held.

Order to specify how far it applies to each ryot

16. Every order passed in any such case as is mentioned in the first clause of the last preceding section, shall specify the extent to which each of the ryots or other tenants named in the order shall be affected thereby.

Rate of rent once fixed under Act, to be fixed for five years.

17. Every decree of a Collector under this Act in any suit of the nature of those specified in the first clause of section 23 of Act X of 1859 shall have effect, and the rates of rent determined by such decree shall be payable from the beginning of the year in which such suit was instituted (such year being computed according to the era in force in the aforesaid tract), or from such later date as the Collector may fix; and the rates of rent so determined shall not be liable to abatement or enhancement for five years from the first day of the year in which the decree may have effect as provided in this section, or, in case any part of the tract is comprised within a temporarily-settled estate, until the conclusion of the period of the settlement with Government under which such estate is held, if such period expires before the lapse of five years as aforesaid.

Provided that, during the currency of the term for which the rent has been fixed as aforesaid, any person may bring a suit to enhance the rent of any ryot or tenant whose rent has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the ryot's or tenant's holding has been increased by alluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

And any ryot or tenant may, during the said period, bring a suit for abatement of his rent which has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the land held by him has been diminished by diluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

Collector may refer suit to Civil Court.

18. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if it shall appear to the Collector that any suit which is pending before him involves any question relating to the title of land or to some interest in land, as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, or any other question which can more properly be decided by a civil court, or, in districts in which Act X of 1859 is in force, by a revenue court under that Act, the Collector may transfer such suit to a civil court or revenue court (according to whether such civil court or such revenue court would have had jurisdiction in the matter if this Act had not been passed); and such court shall thereupon proceed to deal with the suit as if this Act had not been passed, and as if the suit had originally been instituted before such court.

Collector may decide question before transferring suit to civil court.

19. If such suit involves a question of rent or any other question which may properly be settled by the Collector under this Act, as well as a question which may more properly be decided by such civil court or revenue court, the Collector may decide the former question under this Act before transferring the suit to such other court; and such decision shall be subject to the provisions of this Act in respect of appeals, and the civil court or revenue court shall be bound to give the final decision in the suit in accordance with the decision of the Collector or of the appellate authority under this Act on such question, so far as such decision is applicable.

Enforcement of decisions.

20. Every order and decree of a Collector under this Act may be enforced by the same means and in the same manner as if such order or decree were an order or decree to the same effect made under Act X of 1859.

Powers of Collector after withdrawal of Act.

21. Notwithstanding that the Lieutenant-Governor may have issued a notification as provided in section three declaring this Act to be no longer in force in any tract, the Collector shall proceed to decide all suits pending before him on the date of issue of such notification as if no such notification had been issued; and in respect of all such suits and of all other matters and suits which may be pending before the Board, the Commissioner, or the Collector on the date of the issue of such notification, the said Board, Commissioner, and Collector shall, until such matters or suits are finally decided or disposed of, exercise the same powers with respect thereto as if such notification had not been issued.

Suit to contest order or decree under this.

22. No suit to contest any order or judgment of any officer under the provisions of this Act shall be instituted before any court or tribunal otherwise than as provided in this Act.

Control and supervision of Commissioner and Board.

23. In the performance of their duties under this Act, the Deputy Collectors shall be subject to the general control and direction of the Collector, the Collector to the general control and direction of the Commissioner, and all officers to the general control and direction of the Board.

Appeal to and from Collector.

24. An appeal shall lie to the Collector against every order and judgment of a Deputy Collector under this Act, except as hereinafter otherwise provided; but no appeal shall lie against any order or judgment of the Collector under this Act except as hereinafter expressly provided.

No appeal from any decree of Collector for money below Rs. 100, unless the decision involve some question of right to enhance rents or some question relating to a title to land.

25. In suits of the nature of those specified in clauses two, four, and seven of section twenty-three of Act X of 1859, when such suits have been tried and decided by the Collector, if the amount sued for, or the value of the property claimed, does not exceed one hundred rupees, the judgment of the Collector shall be final and not open to revision or appeal, unless in any such suit a question of right to enhance or otherwise vary the rent of a ryot or tenant, or any question relating to a title to land, or to some interest in land as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, has been determined by the judgment, in which case the judgment shall be open to appeal in the manner provided in section twenty-eight.

The provisions of section 154 of Act X of 1859 shall apply to all suits in which the judgment of the Collector is final.

No appeal to lie against judgment declaring arrear due unless arrears have been paid.

26. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, no appeal shall lie against any order declaring arrears of rent to be due and directing that such arrears be paid, unless such appeal shall be accompanied by the certificate of the Collector that the amount of such arrears has been paid to the Collector; and on payment of such amount, the Collector, if required so to do by the person making such payment, shall be bound to grant such certificate, and to hold the amount in deposit until the appeal against his order shall have been disposed of, or until the period for making such appeal shall have expired.

Appeal against judgment of Deputy Collector.

27. When any such suit as is mentioned in section twenty-five in which, if tried and decided by the Collector, the judgment of the Collector would be final, is tried and decided by a Deputy Collector, an appeal from the judgment of the Deputy Collector shall lie to the Collector, and the provisions of sections 156 to 159 (both inclusive) of the said Act X of 1859 shall apply to such appeals.

In what suits appeal to lie to Commissioner and to Board.

28. In all suits other than those in which when tried and decided by a Collector, the judgment of the Collector is final as aforesaid, or when tried and decided by a Deputy Collector, an appeal is allowed to the Collector, an appeal from the judgment of the Collector or Deputy Collector shall lie to the Commissioner, and the decision of the Commissioner shall be final, unless the amount or value in dispute exceed five thousand rupees, in which case an appeal from the Commissioner's decision shall lie to the Board.

Time for presenting appeals from orders.

29. Every appeal against the order of a Deputy Collector shall be presented to the Collector within fifteen days, and every appeal against the order of a Collector shall be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the date of the order appealed against.

Every appeal against the order of a Commissioner shall be presented to the Board, or to the Commissioner for transmission to the Board, within sixty days of the date of the order appealed against.

Orders passed in appeal by a Commissioner or a Collector shall not be open to any further appeal, except as hereinbefore provided: but the Board or the Commissioner may at any time call for any case, and pass such orders thereon as they may think proper.

From Collector of Gyah, dated 10th January 1876.
From Collector of Shahabad, dated 17th January 1876.

After having the benefit of considering the opinions and suggestions of the officers noted in the margin, we have made material changes in the form and the provisions of the Bill, and have introduced some important additions.

We have divided the Bill into ten Parts.

PART I.

In the first Part we have added numerous definitions; and have made alterations in the definitions of "Deputy Collector," "Estate," and "the Collector."

We have provided that partitions of estates in progress when the Bill comes into force may be completed either under the procedure of the old law, or of this Bill, as the Collector may think best, and that certain provisions of the Bill as to striking cases off the file after estates have been admitted to partition may be applied to such pending cases. We have reproduced in other words the provision of the existing law, that the land revenue shall be assessed on each separate estate into which the parent estate is broken up, in proportion to the assets of such estate.

We have laid down a rule for calculating the rental of land to form the basis of partition proceedings.

PART II.

In view of the provisions of the Bill for the compulsory registration of estates and of the interests of proprietors therein which is now before this Council, we have provided that only recorded proprietors of joint undivided estates, who are in actual possession of the proprietary interests in respect of which they are recorded on the Collectors' registers, shall be entitled to claim partition of estates, and separation of the interests which they hold therein.

We have specified the different kinds of interests which proprietors ordinarily hold in estates, and have defined the rights of the holders of each kind in respect of the assignment to them of lands as their separate estates.

We have debarred the holders of life interests only in estates from applying for partition of such estates.

We have provided that no partition shall be made which would result in the formation of a separate estate liable for an annual amount of revenue less than twenty rupees, and of which the assets would be less than two hundred rupees, unless the proprietor of such estate agrees to redeem the revenue for which such estate would be liable, by a capitalized payment at such rate as the Lieutenant-Governor may determine with reference to the circumstances of each case.

We have provided that when an estate has been divided by private arrangement of the proprietors, and the lands are held in severalty by the proprietors in accordance with such arrangement, no partition of such estate shall be made under the provisions of the Bill otherwise than on the joint application of all the proprietors.

We have provided that no partition shall be made of which the effect would be to break up a compact estate into one or more estates consisting of lands so scattered as to endanger the public revenue.

We have provided that nothing in this Bill shall relieve the entire parent estate from its joint liability for the whole amount of land revenue assessed upon it until the partition proceedings are completed, and the applicant for partition has been finally put in possession of the separate estate representing his interest; from which time each separate estate formed by the partition will become separately liable for the amount of land revenue assessed upon it. Up to such time we have left it to joint proprietors to protect their several interests by causing separate accounts to be opened for their respective shares under Act XI of 1859.

PART III.

We have laid down in detail the procedure for dealing with applications for partition; and have required applicants to file copies of their rent rolls and statements of their collections with their applications when possible.

We have provided that when objection is made to the extent of interest claimed by an applicant or a question of right and title is raised, as between the applicant and other persons claiming to be proprietors, it shall be in the discretion of the Collector either to refuse to make the partition, or, if satisfied that the applicant is in possession in accordance with his claim, to direct that the partition shall proceed in accordance with the applicant's claim, or to direct that the proceedings be postponed for four months in order to give the objector an opportunity of instituting a suit to try the question in dispute.

We have provided that if the objector fails to avail himself of such opportunity, or if he fails to bring a suit within four months of the date on which the Collector has ordered the partition to proceed notwithstanding his objection, or within four months of the date on which the Collector has admitted an estate to partition, no objection having been made to such admission, he shall by such laches forfeit his right to recover any interest in common tenancy of the parent estate.

No suit brought after the expiration of the four months shall be allowed to stay or to interfere with the partition proceedings; and every decree passed in such suit will be subject to such proceedings, so that any right which the plaintiff may recover will give him a status in that separate estate only which is in process of being formed for, or, which has been assigned to the individual proprietor from whom the plaintiff is declared by the decree to be entitled to recover.

We have provided that the Collector may employ a Deputy Collector to make the enquiries connected with an application, but that all important orders shall be passed by the Collector himself.

We have provided that as soon as the Collector has ordered a partition to be made, he may appoint a Deputy Collector to carry out the partition.

We have provided that after an estate has been admitted to partition, the case may be struck off the file at the joint request of the parties thereto, or, by order of the Commissioner for good and sufficient reason.

PART IV.

We have empowered the officer making the partition to appoint the necessary ameens and establishments for carrying it out, and to fix their remuneration under sanction of the Commissioner; and have authorized the appointment of special establishments in the office of the Collector and of the Commissioner when the partition cases to be supervised are so numerous or extensive as to require such agency.

We have defined what items shall be deemed costs leviable from the parties to a partition.

We have provided that in districts in which partitions are numerous, instead of leaving the expenses of each partition to be dealt with separately, the Lieutenant-Governor may order the formation of a general fund for the partition of estates to which all sums levied on account of making partitions shall be credited, and all costs of establishments entertained for that purpose and other expenses charged; and for districts in which the partition work is so heavy as to require this organization, we have provided that the salary of the Deputy Collector whose time is employed in making the partitions shall form a portion of the expenses leviable from the parties.

We have provided that where a general fund is formed, the expenses may be levied from the parties in the shape of fees on a scale to be fixed by the Board so as to keep the receipts and charges of the fund as far as possible in equilibrium, and that the accounts of the fund of each district shall be published annually for general information.

We have given power to the Commissioners to order that any proprietor who wilfully delays the progress of a partition and thereby increases the cost of it, shall be required to pay more than his proportionate share of the expenses.

PART V.

We have provided that rent-rolls and measurement papers filed shall be verified by a person who has a personal knowledge of the facts.

We have laid down the procedure as to the summoning of parties and witnesses and the enforcement of the production of papers, and have provided that the cost of any special enquiry which is rendered necessary by the delay of any party to make an objection at the proper time shall be borne entirely by such party.

PART VI.

We have provided for partitions being effected by the parties themselves and by arbitrators, such partitions being subject to the approval of the revenue officers for the protection of the public revenue.

PART VII.

We have provided that the general arrangement of the partition shall be devised, and the situation of the several separate estates indicated, by the Deputy Collector himself, in consultation with the parties; thus depriving the ameens of the power of suggesting and initiating such general arrangements, which they now enjoy and notoriously abuse.

In order to avoid the unnecessary delay and waste of labor which is caused by the Collector at a later stage of the proceedings disapproving of the general arrangement made by the Deputy Collector, we have provided that the approval of the Collector to the general arrangement proposed by the Deputy Collector shall be obtained before its details are carried out.

We have allowed the officer conducting the partition to award the payment of compensation to persons whose attendance at the office on days fixed for hearing has been rendered fruitless by the fault of others.

We have laid down the procedure for completing the details of a partition, and for the consideration and approval or amendment or rejection by the Collector of a partition as made by the Deputy Collector.

PART VIII.

In re-enacting the existing rules for the guidance of officers making partitions, and in adding new rules to clear up certain points which have hitherto been doubtful, we have distinguished between rules applicable to estates of which the lands are held in common tenancy, to estates of which the lands are held in severalty, and to estates of both classes.

We have made compactness of the estate a consideration secondary to the main object of making an equitable partition.

We have provided that whenever the dwelling-house of one proprietor is situated on land which is unavoidably assigned to the separate estate of another proprietor, the former shall be allowed to hold the land on which it is situated on payment of a rent to be fixed in perpetuity by the officer making the partition; and that this annual rent may be redeemed by payment of a capitalized sum.

We believe that this provision will be appreciated as a boon by those concerned.

We have empowered the officer making the partition to make a similar arrangement allowing a proprietor to hold, on a fixed rent, as tenant of another proprietor, orchards and other lands which have acquired a special value to him, or through the improvement made by him, but we have not provided that the rent fixed on such lands may be redeemed.

We have provided that when lands of an estate are held in severalty by the proprietors in accordance with a private arrangement made by them, such estate shall not be brought under partition otherwise than on a joint application from all the proprietors thereof.

We have allowed the Collector to give effect under this law not only to the private division of lands as made among themselves by the proprietors, but also to any private arrangement which they may have made as to the proportions of the whole land revenue for which each proprietor's share shall be liable; provided always that such private arrangement can be accepted with reasonable security to the public revenue, and not otherwise.

We have laid down rules as to the mode of allotting lands held without payment of rent, and lands held on permanent intermediate tenures, the rent of which cannot be altered by the proprietors or their representatives.

We have prescribed a procedure for dealing with lands held in common between the proprietors of the estate under partition and the proprietors of other estates.

We have laid down how the Collector is to act in case of a boundary dispute between the estate under partition and another estate.

We have provided that in cases in which a dispute has been raised before the Collector as to whether any lands belong to the estate under partition or to any other estate, and the Collector has included the disputed land on the partition, the fact of such disputed land being subsequently declared by a Civil Court not to have belonged to the estate which was under partition shall not disturb the partition, but that the proprietor who is dispossessed of such land after it has been assigned to his separate estate by the Collector, shall be entitled to recover compensation on account of the reduction in the proportionate value of the separate estate assigned to him; such compensation being recoverable from the proprietors of the separate estates on which a proportionate share of the loss caused by the decree of the Civil Court in respect of the said lands does not fall.

We have provided that the officer making the partition may, in his discretion, allot equal separate estates according to lot, or may, with the sanction of the Collector, dispense with lots; and we have provided that two or more shares may be aggregated so as to form equal shares for the purpose of casting lots.

PART IX.

We have prescribed a procedure for the Commissioner in dealing with partition cases; and have authorized the Collector to cause boundary marks defining the separate estates formed by the partition to be erected at the cost of the proprietors; and have provided that such marks shall be maintained as provided in the Bengal Survey Act, 1875.

PART X.

We have provided that a tenure created by one or more proprietors of a joint undivided parent estate, but not by all the proprietors of such estate jointly, shall, after partition of the estate, hold good in respect of, and be confined to, the separate estate which has been assigned to the proprietors who created such tenure.

We have generally retained the provisions of the existing law empowering the Lieutenant-Governor to readjust the apportionment of land revenue on separate estates where fraud is discovered within twelve years of a partition.

We have specified the mode of publication of general notifications, and of service of notices on individuals.

We have empowered the Collector to enforce compliance with his requisitions by imposition of a daily fine.

We have provided that the cost of any local enquiry may be dealt with apart from the general expenses of a partition, and levied from any party on whom the officer making the partition thinks proper to impose the payment of such cost.

We have provided that all sums payable under this Bill shall be leviable as demands under Bengal Act VII of 1868.

We have specified the orders of a Deputy Collector, of a Collector, and of a Commissioner respectively, against which an appeal will lie as of right to the superior revenue authority, but we have provided that all proceedings and orders of every subordinate authority will be subject to supervision, control, and revision by the superior authorities.

We have authorized the Commissioner and the Board to pass such orders as they think proper as to the payment of costs of appeals made to them respectively.

We have provided that the Lieutenant-Governor may vest any Collector or Deputy Collector employed on a partition with any powers with which such officer might be vested if the parent estate were under settlement.

We have provided that under the orders of a Civil Court or of the Board, partition of a revenue-free tenure may be made under the provisions of the Bill.

We have provided that a revenue officer may exercise the same powers as a civil court in respect of false evidence given on forgery brought to light in the course of partition proceedings.

We have defined the orders of revenue officers which shall be final, and not liable to be contested in any civil court, or otherwise than as provided in this Bill.

We have reserved a general power of control to the Lieutenant-Governor, and have provided that the Board shall make rules for the guidance of officers;

And we have made other verbal and minor changes in the Bill, as referred to us.

N.B.—In signing this report I think it proper to mention, with reference to Part II of this Bill, that I am opposed to those provisions of the Bill for the compulsory registration of estates which require the registration of the extent of interest possessed by proprietors, and that it is my intention to move an amendment regarding those provisions when that Bill comes before the Council.

and if any land is not let, but is held and occupied directly by the proprietors or any of them, the annual rent for which such land might reasonably be expected to let shall be deemed to be the rental of such land.

Exception 1.—If the rent payable by the cultivating ryots on account of any land shall have been determined by any Court of competent jurisdiction, or shall have been altered with the consent of the said ryots at any time during the said three years, the amount so determined, or the amount to which the rent may have been so altered, shall be deemed to be the rental of the land.

Exception 3.—If any land is held on a tenure which, although not protected as aforesaid, is admitted by all the recorded proprietors of the estate to be a permanent tenure created by all the proprietors of the estate, and of such nature that the rent thereof is not liable to be raised under any circumstances by the proprietors of the said estate, or any person deriving his title from such proprietors, the rent payable by the holder of such tenure (whether he be known as talukdar, patnidar, mokarraridar, or by any other designation) shall be deemed to be the rental of such land.

Exception 4.—If any land be unoccupied, such amount as the Collector may determine, with reference to all the circumstances of the case, shall be deemed to be the rental of such land.

PART II.

OF THE RIGHT TO CLAIM PARTITION.

Who entitled to claim partition.

8. Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, every recorded proprietor of a joint undivided estate, who is in actual possession of the interest in respect of which he is so recorded, is entitled to claim a partition of the said estate, and the separation therefrom and assignment to him as a separate estate of lands representing the interest of which he is in such possession, provided that, and as far only as, such partition, separation, and assignment can be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Any two or more such recorded proprietors may claim that lands representing the interests of all such claimants may be formed into one separate estate to be held by them as a joint undivided estate; and every provision of this Act which applies to an applicant for partition shall apply to any two or more persons making such joint claim.

Partition according to interest.

9. (a) If the interest of any recorded proprietor who is entitled to claim partition as aforesaid is an undivided share in an estate held in common tenancy, such person shall be entitled to have assigned to him lands of which the assets shall bear the same proportion to the assets of the parent estate as his undivided share in the parent estate bears to the entire parent estate.

(b) If the interest of such recorded proprietor is the proprietary right of certain specific mouzahs or lands forming part of the parent estate, and held by him in severalty, he shall be entitled to have assigned to him the said mouzahs or lands.

(c) If the interest of such recorded proprietor consists of an undivided share held in common tenancy in certain specific mouzahs or tracts forming part of the parent estate, (but not extending over the whole area of the parent estate,) he shall be entitled to have assigned to him lands situated within such specific mouzahs or tracts, of which the assets shall bear the same proportion to the assets of such specific mouzahs or tracts as the share which he holds in such specific mouzahs or tracts bears to the entire mouzahs or tracts.

Provided that if the interest of such recorded proprietor consists of such undivided share in more than one mouzah or tract, he shall not be entitled to have lands assigned to him in every such mouzah or tract; but the Collector may assign to him lands situated in any one or more of the said mouzahs or tracts, provided that the assets of such lands are in proportion to the aggregate of the interests which he holds in all such mouzahs or tracts.

(d) If such recorded proprietor holds in the parent estate more than one of the kinds of interest specified in this section, lands shall be assigned to him as far as possible in accordance with the principles above laid down.

Life estate.

10. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, no person having a proprietary interest in an estate for the term of his life only shall be deemed to be a person entitled to claim partition under this Act.

No partition allowed which results in forming separate estate liable for less than twenty rupees annual land revenue.

11. No application for the partition of an estate shall be admitted, and no partition of an estate shall be made if the result of such partition would be to form any separate estate liable for an annual amount of land revenue less than twenty rupees, and of which the assets would be less than two hundred rupees, until the proprietor of such separate estate agrees to redeem the amount of revenue for which his estate would be liable, by payment of such sum as the Lieutenant-Governor may fix with reference to the circumstances of such estate.

Partition of an estate in which private division has been made, not to be made except on joint petition of proprietors or on order of Civil Court.

12. Whenever a division of the lands of any estate has been made by private arrangement of the proprietors thereof, and in accordance with such arrangement each proprietor is in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing his interest in the estate, no such estate shall be brought under partition and no partition of such estate shall be made under this Act otherwise than on a joint petition presented by all the proprietors thereof, unless such partition shall have been ordered to be made by a Civil Court.

Under certain circumstances Collector may refuse to declare lands held in severalty to be a separate estate.

13. The Collector may refuse to admit an application for the formation of lands held in severalty into a separate estate, if in consequence of such lands being intermingled with those held by other proprietors the result of the partition would be to form out of a compact estate one or more estates consisting of scattered parcels of land, in such a way as, in the opinion of the Collector, to endanger the safety of the public revenue, and the Collector may at any time refuse to proceed with a partition which would have such a result.

But a partition may be allowed in such a case if the recorded proprietors shall agree to such a distribution of land as shall make the estates formed by the partition reasonably compact, or if the person who would on the completion of the partition be proprietor of such scattered separate estate agrees to redeem, in the manner provided in section 11, the amount of revenue for which his separate estate may be made liable.

Nothing in this section shall be understood to prohibit the partition into separate estates of a parent estate which before such partition is not compact and consists only of scattered parcels of land.

Interest alienated with special condition as to revenue liability.

14. No proprietor who has alienated any portion of his interest in an estate or in any specific lands of an estate, by private contract, with the condition that the transferee shall be liable in respect of the interest acquired by him to pay a specified amount or a specified share of the land revenue for which the estate is liable (such amount or share being other than the proportionate amount or the proportionate share for which such transferred interest if formed into a separate estate would be liable under the provisions of section 6) ; and no proprietor who has derived his title from any proprietor who has made any alienation as aforesaid, shall be entitled to claim a separation under this Act of the interest which he continues to hold in the estate; and no such transferee as aforesaid, and no person deriving his title from such transferee, shall be entitled to claim a separation of the interest which has been so acquired:

Provided that a separation of such interests may be made, if the parties concerned agree to waive the conditions of the contract as regards the proportion of revenue for which the transferor and transferee or their representatives respectively are liable, and to hold the estates which may be allotted to them respectively by the partition, subject to the payment of such amount of land revenue as may be assessed upon them respectively by the revenue authorities under his Act.

Arrears of revenue may be realized by sale of parent estate.

15. Notwithstanding that a parent estate may have been declared to be under partition as provided in section 31, any arrears of revenue accruing due on such estate before the date specified in the notice issued under section 119 may be realized by sale of the parent estate as if such estate had not been declared to be under partition; and if such sale takes place the partition proceedings shall cease from the date thereof.

Shares may be protected from liability for arrears under laws in force.

16. Nothing contained in the last preceding section shall be deemed to affect the provisions of sections 10, 11, 12, 13, or 14 of Act XI of 1859 (an Act to improve the law relating to sale of lands for arrears of revenue), or any provisions of any similar law for the time being in force in respect to the opening of separate accounts for different shares in an estate, and the protection afforded to such shares thereby:

Provided that if any share in any estate is sold for its own arrears of revenue while such estate is under partition in accordance with the provisions of this Act, such share shall be sold subject to the partition proceedings, which shall proceed as if no such sale had taken place; and the purchaser of the share sold may, from the date of such sale, exercise all the rights which the proprietor whose share he has purchased might have exercised, and shall be subject to all the liabilities to which such proprietor would have been subject, in respect of the partition proceedings.

PART III.

OF THE APPLICATION FOR PARTITION; THE ADMISSION OF AN ESTATE TO PARTITION; AND THE DISCONTINUANCE OF THE PARTITION PROCEEDINGS AFTER SUCH ADMISSION.

Application for partition to be made to Collector of the district.

17. All applications for partition shall be made to the Collector of the district on the revenue-roll of which the estate is borne, and shall be made in person or by duly authorized agent, on paper bearing such stamp as may be required by any law for the time being in force.

Application to be signed, and certain particulars specified.

18. The application shall be signed by the applicant, and shall supply the following information in regard to the parent estate, so far as the particulars are known to the applicant or can be ascertained by him :—

(a) name of the estate ;

(b) number under which the estate is borne on the revenue-roll, and the revenue demand for which it is liable ;

(c) number under which the estate is borne on the Collector's general register of revenue-paying lands ;

(d) name and address of every proprietor, whether recorded or unrecorded ;

(e) the character and extent of the right of which each proprietor is in possession ;

(f) a specification of any lands held by all or any of the proprietors of the parent estate in common with all or any of the proprietors of other estates, and of the rights of such proprietors.

Application must be accompanied by copy of rent-roll and statement of rents.

19. Subject to the provisions of section 59, every application shall, if possible, be accompanied by a copy of the rent-roll of the estate, by a statement of the rents collected from such estate on behalf of the applicant during each of the three years immediately preceding such application, and by copies of any measurement papers of the estate which the applicant may have in his possession.

The said rent-roll, statement, and measurement papers shall be attested by the patwari or patwaris of the villages, if any, and every such application, rent-roll, and statement shall be presented, subscribed, and verified as provided in section 43.

If the applicant is unable to produce a rent-roll or statement as above required, he shall state the reason of such inability, and the name and address of the person who has in his possession the information necessary for the preparation of such rent-roll and statement, and the Collector may, if he shall think fit, require such person to produce such rent-roll and statement.

Collector may reject application.

20. If the application does not fulfil the requirements of the three last preceding sections, the Collector may reject such application or may order it to be amended.

Procedure of Collector on receipt of application

21. If, in the opinion of the Collector, the application fulfils the said requirements and there appears to be no objection to making the partition applied for, the Collector shall publish a notification of the application in the manner prescribed in section 130, and shall also cause copies thereof to be posted up at the Court of the Judge of the district, at the court of every Munsif and Sub-divisional Officer within whose jurisdiction, and at every Police Station within the jurisdiction of which any lands appertaining to the estate are known to be situated, and shall invite any person claiming any proprietary right in the estate, who may object to the partition, to state his objection either in person or by duly authorized agent, on a day to be specified in the notification, not being less than thirty or more than sixty days from the date of the publication of the notification on the estate.

Notice to proprietors who have not joined therein.

22 Notice of the application shall also be served in the manner prescribed by section 131, on such of the recorded proprietors of the estate as shall not have joined in the application, and on any other proprietor who may have been named in the application.

In case of valid objection being made within time allowed, application may be refused

23. If any objection be made to the partition by any person claiming a proprietary right as aforesaid on or before the day specified in the notification published under section 21, or at any subsequent time if it shall seem fit to the Collector to admit such objection, and the Collector, on consideration of such objection, shall be of opinion that there is good and sufficient reason for rejecting the application, he may reject the same, and in that case shall record the grounds of such rejection.

Procedure when objection raises any question of title or right.

24. Suit in Civil Court when not to affect proceedings taken under this Act

26. No suit instituted in a Civil Court by any person claiming any right or title in the parent estate, after the lapse of four months from the issue of an order of the Collector under clauses (a) and (b) of section 24, or after the lapse of four months from the issue of an order of the Collector under section 31, shall avail to stay or affect the progress of any proceedings which shall have been taken under this Act for the partition of an estate ; and all rights which may be conferred on any person by the final decree in such suit shall be subject to such proceedings as hereinafter provided.

and such person or body of persons may apply, as in this Act provided, for the separation and assignment to him, or them, of the lands representing the extent of interest so acquired; and such application shall be dealt with under the provisions of section 32.

28. Every decree passed in such suit after the date specified in the notice under section 119, shall be made in recognition of the partition proceedings, and shall be framed in such manner as to give effect to such division of the parent estates into separate estates as shall have been made by the Collector, and not to disturb such division; and if the effect of any such decree shall be to declare any person or body of persons to have been entitled to any extent of interest in the parent estate in excess of the extent of interest which is represented by the separate estate assigned to such person or body of persons by the Collector in the partition proceedings, such decree shall specify, separately in respect of the proprietor or joint proprietors of every separate estate formed by the partition, the proportion of such excess of interest which such person or body of persons is entitled to recover from such proprietor or joint proprietors; and every person or body of persons so declared entitled to recover any extent of interest from the proprietor or joint proprietors of a separate estate shall be entitled to recover such extent of interest out of the separate estate which has been assigned to such proprietor or joint proprietors, and out of such separate estate only;

In the latter case all or any of the rent-rolls, measurements, and other papers which were used in the separation of the original applicant's share, may be used, as far as they are applicable, in the partition for which subsequent application has been made.

79. On the date so fixed, or on any other date to which the hearing may have been postponed, the Collector shall take into consideration the papers as laid before him, and after calling for any further information which he may deem necessary, and disposing of any objections which shall be taken to the proposed partition and allotment of land revenue, may approve the partition as made by the Deputy Collector with such amendments as he may think proper, or return it for amendment to the Deputy Collector who made it, or to another Deputy Collector, or make a fresh partition himself

The Collector may return the said papers for amendment or enquiry as often as he may think fit.

Proprietor when not entitled to make subsequent objection.

80. No proprietor who shall have failed to appear before the Deputy Collector in person or by agent on any date fixed for the arrangement of the partition under the provisions of section 61, or of section 70, and no proprietor who shall fail so to appear before the Collector on any date fixed under section 78 or section 79, shall be entitled, at any subsequent time, to make any objection to the orders which may be passed on such dates respectively.

Collector may cause a fresh partition paper and map to be prepared.

81. When the Collector approves the partition made by the Deputy Collector with amendments, he may cause a fresh partition paper and map to be prepared, or may cause the amendments made by him to be noted on the paper and map submitted by the Deputy Collector.

When the Collector makes a fresh partition himself, he shall cause a fresh partition paper and map to be prepared.

Procedure when Collector approves of a partition.

82. Whenever the Collector shall have approved of a partition as made by the Deputy Collector without amendment, he shall cause a notice to be served on each of the recorded proprietors, that the papers will be submitted at once for confirmation of the partition by the Commissioner, and that any appeals or objections must be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the date of the service of the said notice, or, if the said notice requires the proprietor to produce the extract of any partition in order that amendments may be noted thereon, or to take out a fresh extract from the partition paper as hereinafter provided, then within six weeks of such date.

Procedure when Collector approves partition paper with amendments.

83. Whenever the Collector shall have approved and adopted the partition paper sent up by the Deputy Collector with amendments, and shall, under section 81, have directed that such amendments be noted on the partition paper and map submitted by the Deputy Collector, the notice to be served on each of the recorded proprietors under the last preceding section shall, in the case of every such proprietor whose separate estate is affected by such amendments, in addition to the particulars mentioned in the said section, require such proprietor to produce before the Collector, within fifteen days of the service of such notice, the extract from the paper of partition and any map relating to his separate estate which is mentioned in section 77, in order that the amendments made by the Collector in the partition may be noted thereon; and such amendments shall be noted thereon by the Collector accordingly, and the extract and map shall be returned to the proprietor who produced it.

Whenever the Collector shall have ordered, under section 81, that a new partition paper and map be prepared, he shall cause separate extracts of the portions of the partition paper which relate to each separate estate, and maps, if necessary, to be prepared as required by section 77, and in such case the notice served under section 82 shall, in addition to the particulars mentioned in that section, require the recorded proprietors to take out of the Collector's office such extracts and maps relating to their respective separate estates.

Papers to be forwarded to Commissioner.

84. As soon as practicable after the issue of the notice under section 82, the Collector shall forward to the Commissioner all papers relating to the partition as approved or as made by the Collector.

PART VIII.

OF THE GENERAL PRINCIPLES ON WHICH PARTITIONS SHALL BE MADE.

Rules applicable to the partition of lands which are held by the proprietors in common tenancy.

Estates formed in course of partition to be as compact as possible.

85. Each separate estate shall be made as compact as is compatible with the primary object of making an equitable partition among the proprietors, and with the other provisions of this Part, but no partition made or approved by a Collector shall be set aside on the ground only that the separate estates are not compact.

Circumstances to be considered in making partitions

86. In selecting the villages or lands to be assigned to each separate estate formed out of a parent estate which has been held in common tenancy, the Collector shall take into consideration the advantages or disadvantages arising from situation;

the vicinity of roads, railways, navigable rivers, or canals;

the nature and quality of the soil and produce;

the quantity of cultivable and uncultivable waste land;

the facilities for irrigation;

the state of the embankments and watercourses;

liability to accretion and diluvion, and any other circumstances affecting the value of the lands.

Rule when dwelling-house belonging to one proprietor is situate on ground to be allotted to another proprietor.

87. If a dwelling-house belonging to one proprietor is situated on any land which it may be necessary to include in the separate estate of another proprietor, the owner of such house may retain occupation thereof with the offices, buildings, and grounds immediately attached thereto, upon agreeing to pay rent for the land occupied by such dwelling-house, offices, buildings, and grounds to the proprietor of the separate estate in which such land is included.

The limits of the land so occupied and the rent to be paid for it in perpetuity shall be fixed by the Deputy Collector, and shall be stated in the paper of partition.

In every such case a defined pathway shall, as far as possible, be secured to the owner of the house, leading from his house to some portion of the separate estate allotted to him.

Rule contained in last preceding section may be applied to gardens, orchards, &c.

88. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall think fit, he may apply the rule contained in the last preceding section to gardens, to orchards of trees, to land planted with bamboos, and to nijjote, sir, or khamar lands, which before the partition were held in the separate occupation of any proprietor; and to any other lands which in his opinion have gained a special value, or are of special value to the proprietor in whose occupation they are found to be, in consequence of improvements made by such proprietor or of the particular use to which such lands are put.

Calculation of rental.

89. In calculating the rental for the purposes of the partition, the rent fixed in perpetuity on any land by the Deputy Collector under either of the two last preceding sections shall be considered to be the rental of such land.

Rent may be redeemed.

90. Whenever the dwelling-house of one proprietor, with the offices, buildings, and grounds immediately attached thereto, shall have been included in the separate estate of another proprietor, and the annual rent to be paid in perpetuity in respect of the land occupied thereby shall have been fixed by the Deputy Collector and stated in the paper of partition, as provided in section 87, the proprietor whose dwelling-house, offices, buildings, and grounds have been included as aforesaid may apply to the Deputy Collector for permission to redeem the annual rent so fixed.

Deputy Collector to certify amount payable in redemption of rent.

91. The Deputy Collector shall certify the amount payable by such proprietor in redemption of such annual rent; and such amount shall be calculated and fixed by the Deputy Collector at ten per centum above the sum which would be required to purchase, at the market prices then prevailing, so much stock of the Government loan which was last issued as would yield an annual amount of interest equal to the annual land rent fixed by the Deputy Collector under section 87.

But not after possession of separate estates has been given.

92. The proprietor desiring to redeem the rent as aforesaid, may pay to the Deputy Collector the amount so certified at any time before possession is given to the several proprietors of the separate estates allotted to each, as provided in section 118, but not after such possession has been given.

Notice of payment to be given; and land to be held rent-free.

93. On receipt of such payment, the Deputy Collector shall give notice to the proprietor in whose separate estate such land is situated that such payment has been made, and that the sum paid will be paid to him or to his authorized agent on application; and that from the date on which possession as aforesaid may be given, the proprietor who has redeemed the rent of such land will be entitled to hold such land as a rent-free tenure secured against the proprietor of the estate and against any auction purchaser at a sale for arrears of revenue, including the Government; and from such date the lands shall be so held as a rent-free tenure.

Collector to register rent-free tenure.

94. The Deputy Collector shall at the same time also give notice to the Collector of the district of the creation of such tenure; and the Collector of the district shall thereupon cause such tenure to be specially registered in the manner provided by section 42 of Act XI of 1859, or by any similar law for the time being in force.

Rules applicable to the formation into separate estates of lands which are held by proprietors in severalty.

Joint petition may be presented for partition according to private division.

95. Whenever in any parent estate a division of the lands thereof has been made by private arrangement of the proprietors of such estate, and in accordance with such arrangement each proprietor is in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing his interest in such parent estate, the joint application presented to the Collector by all the recorded proprietors of such estate as required by section 12 may be to the effect that a partition of such estate be made by assigning to each proprietor or to two or more proprietors jointly as his or their separate estate, the lands of which he or they are in separate possession in accordance with such arrangement, and also that each separate estate so formed be made liable for such portion of the entire land revenue of the parent estate, as was paid by the proprietor or proprietors thereof under the private arrangement aforesaid.

Partition according to private division to be referred to Collector.

96. The Deputy Collector who is appointed to carry out the partition in accordance with such application, shall satisfy himself that the assets of each separate estate which it is proposed to form are sufficient to secure the payment of the annual amount of land revenue for which it is proposed to make such separate estate liable, and if the Deputy Collector be satisfied that in this respect, and with reference to all the circumstances of the case, the partition of the lands and the assessment of the revenue thereon may be made in the manner proposed without endangering the safety of the revenue, the Deputy Collector shall submit the case with his opinion thereon, and the reasons on which such opinion is founded, to the Collector, who may admit or reject the said application.

Effect of Collector's approval.

97. If the Collector admits the said application, such admission shall be deemed to be the Collector's approval of the general arrangement of the partition as provided in section 74, and the Deputy Collector shall proceed to complete the partition accordingly.

Such partition may be refused.

98. If the Deputy Collector, who is appointed to carry out the partition in accordance with a joint application as mentioned in section 95, is not satisfied that the partition of the lands and the assessment of the revenue payable thereon can be made in the manner proposed without endangering the safety of the public revenue, or if the Collector rejects the application for such partition, the Deputy Collector shall refuse to make same.

Joint petition may be presented for partition of land in accordance with private division with proportional redistribution of public revenue.

99. Whenever the proprietors of an estate are, in accordance with a private arrangement as aforesaid, respectively in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing their respective interests in the estate, the joint application presented to the Collector by all the recorded proprietors of the estate as required by section 12, may be to the effect that a partition of such estate be made by assigning to each proprietor, or to two or more proprietors jointly, as his or their separate estate, the lands of which he or they is or are in possession in accordance with such arrangement, and that the land revenue for which the parent estate is liable may be apportioned among the separate estates so formed, in accordance with the provisions of section 6.

A joint application under this section may be made notwithstanding that a joint application under section 95 has been refused in respect of the same estate.

Lands of which each proprietor is in possession to be allotted to him.

100. Whenever the Deputy Collector who is appointed to carry out the partition, shall find that in accordance with a private arrangement made by the proprietors of an estate, the proprietors respectively, or any of the proprietors, are in possession of separate lands held in severalty as representing portions only of their respective interests in the parent estate, while other lands of the parent estate are held in common tenancy between such proprietors, the Deputy Collector shall allot to the separate estate of each proprietor the lands of which such proprietor is found to be in possession in severalty, in accordance with such private arrangement.

Collector may cause transfer of lands agreed to by parties.

101. Notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section, the Collector may cause any transfer of lands agreed to by the parties to be made from the possession of one proprietor to that of another.

Rules applicable both to lands held in common tenancy and to lands held in severalty.

Rule as to places of worship.

102. Places of worship, burning grounds, and burial grounds which have been held in common previous to the partition of an estate, and lands of which the proceeds have been assigned by the proprietors jointly for religious, charitable, or public purposes, shall continue to be held in common, unless the proprietors shall otherwise agree amongst themselves, in which case they shall state in writing the agreement into which they have entered, and the Deputy Collector shall enter a note of the agreement in the paper of partition.

Rule as to tanks, wells, water-courses, and embankments.

103. Tanks, wells, water-courses, and embankments shall be considered as attached to the land for the benefit of which they were originally made.

In cases in which, from the extent, situation, or construction of such works, it shall be found necessary that they should remain the joint property of the proprietors of two or more of the separate estates, the paper of partition shall specify, as far as the circumstances may admit, the extent to which the proprietors of each of such estates may make use of the same, and the proportion of the charges for repairs to be borne by them respectively.

Lands held rent-free not to be divided.

104. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall find in the parent estate lands which are actually held rent-free (whether the proprietors of the estate do or do not claim a right to receive rent from such lands), the Deputy Collector shall make no division or assignment of such lands among the separate estates, but shall specify in the partition papers and proceedings that such lands are left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which are formed out of the parent estate, in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent estate.

Rule as to permanent intermediate tenures.

105. Whenever the Deputy Collector shall find in the parent estate any lands which are held at a fixed rent on a patni or other permanent intermediate tenure created by all the proprietors of the parent estate or their predecessors, the Deputy Collector may either

(1) assign the lands which are held on such tenure and the assets thereof entirely to one or more of the separate estates, the rental being calculated as provided in Exception 2 or in Exception 3 (as the case may be) of section 7; or

(2) leave such lands unassigned to any separate estate, and specify in the partition papers and proceedings that the lands are left appertaining jointly to all the separate estates which are formed out of the parent estate in the proportion which each separate estate bears to the parent estate. In the event of such lands being so left undivided, the Deputy Collector shall assign to each separate estate such share of the rental of the tenure as shall bear the same proportion to the entire rental of the tenure, as the separate estate bears to the parent estate.

In dealing with a tenure under this section, the Deputy Collector shall take into consideration the extent of the lands comprised in the tenure, and all other circumstances of the case.

Lands held in common between the proprietors of two or more estates how to be dealt with.

106. Whenever any lands are held in common between the proprietors of two or more estates, one of which is under partition in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the Deputy Collector shall first allot to the estate under partition a portion of such common lands of which the assets are in proportion to the interest which the proprietors of such estate hold in the said common lands; and all the provisions of this Act in respect of the allotment between the shareholders in one estate, of lands which are held jointly by such shareholders, shall, as far as possible, apply to the allotment of the proportionate share of such common lands to the estate under partition; and, in respect of the service of notices, hearing of objections, and all other procedure in view to such allotment, the proprietors of the estate under partition, and the proprietors of all other estates who have an interest in the said common lands, shall be deemed to be joint proprietors of a parent estate consisting only of the lands so held in common.

Provided that all expenses of any division of lands so held in common between the proprietors of two or more estates shall be deemed to be expenses of making the partition of the estate which is under partition, and shall be leviable as provided by this Act from the proprietors of such estate, and that the proprietors of any other estate having an interest in such lands shall not be required to bear any portion of such expenses.

Proprietors of other estates may be required to pay a portion of expenses of partition.

107. Notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section, if it shall appear to the Commissioner, on the report of the Collector or otherwise, that the proceedings for such division have been unnecessarily delayed, and the cost of such division enhanced by obstacles vexatiously put in the way of the completion of such division by any proprietor of any estate other than that under partition, or by want of due diligence on the part of any such proprietor in carrying out any requisitions made upon him, the Commissioner may direct that such sum as he shall think fit shall be levied from every such proprietor who is responsible for such delay or additional cost, and every sum so levied shall be taken in diminution of the amount payable by the proprietors of the estate under partition as costs of such partition.

Allotment of lands held in common to be sanctioned by Collector.

108 The allotment of the proportionate share of the lands so held in common to the estate under partition shall be submitted for the approval of the Collector, who may confirm, amend, or reject the same, and in the case of rejection, may make or direct to be made another allotment.

The portion of such common lands assigned to estate under partition how to be dealt with.

109. As soon as the allotment of a proportionate share of the said lands to the estate under partition shall have been approved by the Collector, the lands so allotted shall be dealt with in every respect as if they were held in common tenancy by such of the proprietors of the estate under partition as were found to hold interests in the common lands.

Procedure when dispute exists as to whether any lands form part of the parent estate.

110. If a dispute or doubt shall be found to exist as to whether any lands form part of the parent estate, the Deputy Collector shall enquire into the fact of possession, and shall report his conclusions, with the reasons thereof, to the Collector; whereupon the Collector may order that the partition be struck off the file (in which case no application for a partition of the said estate shall be admitted until the applicant can show that the dispute or doubt has been decided by a court of competent jurisdiction, or has been amicably settled); or if the Collector shall find that possession of the disputed lands is with the proprietors of the parent estate, and if it shall appear to him that the claim of the other parties to the right in such lands is untenable, he may order that the partition shall proceed, and that the disputed lands be treated as part of the estate under partition.

Procedure when Collector thinks that lands belong to parent estate.

Provided that no partition shall be made under this section, if such partition would involve the assignment to any separate estate of such a quantity of the disputed land that the removal of such land from such estate would, in the opinion of the Collector, endanger the safety of the land revenue for which any separate estate would liable be after the partition.

Procedure when partition completed and proprietor of an estate dispossessed by order of a competent court.

111. If, after a partition has been completed in accordance with an order passed by the Collector under clause three of section 110, the proprietor of any separate estate shall be dispossessed by a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction of any lands which may have been assigned to his estate by the partition, such proprietor shall not be entitled to claim any modification of the partition (which shall hold good), but shall be entitled to recover from the proprietors of the other separate estates formed by the partition such compensation as may be fair and equitable having regard to the reduction in the proportionate value of his separate estate which is caused by such dispossession.

And such compensation may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction from the proprietors of those separate estates on which a proportionate share of the total loss caused by the order of dispossession does not fall.

Lots to be drawn for equal shares.

112. When two or more of the separate estates shall consist of the same proportions of the parent estate, the Deputy Collector may, if he think proper, direct the parties entitled thereto to draw lots in his presence for the equal separate estates which have been formed by assignment of lands, unless the recorded proprietors of the equal shares shall agree among themselves as to the allotment of the equal separate estates and shall present a petition to that effect; or, unless for any other reason the Deputy Collector shall, with the sanction of the Collector, think proper to assign the equal separate estates to the proprietors of the equal shares without causing lots to be drawn.

Drawing of lots when aggregate of two or more shares equals one share.

113. When the aggregate of two or more shares equals one other share or equals the aggregate of two or more other shares, the Deputy Collector, with the sanction of the Collector, may cause such aggregate shares to be treated as one share for the purpose of determining by lots as aforesaid how the several separate estates shall be allotted among the several proprietors; and may cause lots to be drawn as often as he shall think proper, in respect of the allotment of such aggregate shares; and for such purpose may decide which separate estates shall be formed into one aggregate share, and after the lots shall have been drawn in respect of such aggregate shares, may order that lots shall again be drawn for the allotment of any equal separate estates between the proprietors of such estates.

Provided that lots shall in no case be drawn until after all objections which any proprietor may make as to the papers accepted as the basis of the partition, and as to the assets of the lands which it is proposed to allot to the separate estates respectively, shall have been disposed of.

Illustrations.

I.—The partition of a parent estate is being made into the following shares:—

8 annas.
4 annas.
3 annas.
1 anna.

For the purposes of drawing lots, the 4 anna, 3 anna, and 1 anna share may be taken together, and considered to be an aggregate 8 annas share.

The Deputy Collector will divide the parent estate into two halves of equal value; and will then cause lots to be drawn, in order to determine which of the two halves shall be assigned to the proprietor of the integral 8 annas share, and which shall be divided among the proprietors of the 4 annas, 3 annas, and 1 anna shares.

Subsequently, if necessary, the Deputy Collector may again, cause lots, to be drawn by the proprietor of the 4 annas share on the one hand, and the proprietors of the aggregated share made up by taking together the 3 annas share and the 1 anna share.

II.—The partition is being made of a parent estate into the following shares:—

6 annas.
4 annas.
3 annas.
2 annas.
1 anna.

Two tracts in the estate may first be marked off the value of each being equivalent to a 6 annas share, and then, for the purpose of drawing lots, in respect of the assignment of these two tracts the 4 annas share and the 2 annas share may be taken together as an aggregate 6 annas share; and lots may be drawn, between the proprietors of the aggregated share so formed on the one hand, and the proprietor of the integral 6 annas share on the other.

One of the two 6 annas tracts having thus been finally assigned to the proprietor of the integral 6 annas share, the Deputy Collector will proceed to assign the rest of the estate among the remaining sharers, and he may again, for the purpose of causing lots to be drawn, mark off two tracts the value of each of which shall be equivalent to five annas of the parent estate, and may cause lots to be drawn for these two tracts between the proprietors of the four anna share and the 1 anna share taken together as an aggregate 5 annas share on the one hand, and the proprietors of the 3 annas share and the 2 annas share taken together as another 5 annas share on the other.

Finally, their separate estates will be assigned to the proprietor of the 4 annas share, and of the 1 anna share respectively, within the tract which fell to them jointly by lot; and their separate estates will be assigned to the proprietors of the 3 annas share and of the 2 annas share respectively within the tract which fell to them jointly by lot.

PART IX.

OF THE PROCEDURE BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER UP TO THE FINAL COMPLETION OF THE PARTITION AND SEPARATION.

114. If no appeal or objection shall be presented to the Commissioner within the time allowed by section 82, the Commissioner may proceed to consider the case without issue of any notice, and may confirm the partition made by the Collector.

If no appeal presented, Commissioner may consider the case without issue of notice.

115. If it shall appear to the Commissioner that the proceedings of the Collector should be amended, or if a petition of appeal or objection shall have been presented within the period allowed by section 82, the Commissioner shall fix a day for hearing and disposing of the case, and shall cause a notification of the same to be published and a notice of the same to be posted up in his own office.

Commissioner to fix a day for hearing case.

116. On the day so fixed, which shall not be less than thirty days after the publication of the said notification at the office of the Collector, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing of the case, may extend, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing may have been postponed by a notice published in his own office, the Commissioner shall after hearing and disposing of all objections, and calling for any further information or enquiry which may be necessary, either confirm the partition as proposed by the Collector or modify the same, or return the papers of the partition to the Collector for any changes the Commissioner may think proper to be made.

Commissioner to confirm, modify, or return petition.

If the partition is returned to the Collector for amendment, the Collector shall proceed to make the said amendments or to cause them to be made in the same manner as if he had himself passed such orders on a partition submitted to him for approval by a Deputy Collector.

117. The Commissioner may, before confirming a partition, return the papers for amendment or inquiry as often as he shall think fit, and as often as he shall so return them the procedure prescribed in the last preceding section shall be followed.

Commissioner may return papers for amendment or inquiry.

118 After the expiration of not less than sixty days from the date of the order of the Commissioner confirming a partition, or, if an appeal has been preferred to the Board, or if any proceedings in respect of the partition be pending before the Board, then on receipt of the final order of the Board determining that the partition as sanctioned by the Commissioner shall not be disturbed, the Collector shall cause to be published in his office, and in some conspicuous place in each of the estates separately constituted by such order, a notice that the partition has been finally confirmed as it was sanctioned by the Commissioner, or with any amendments or alterations, as the case may be.

Procedure by Collector on receipt of order of Commissioner or of Board of Revenue on appeal.

If the partition as finally sanctioned involves any amendments which may conveniently be made on the extracts of the partition papers and on any maps which have been prepared ann delivered or offered by notice to the recorded proprietors as required by section 77 or section 83, the Collector shall cause a notice to be served on every recorded proprietor whose estate is affected by such amendments requiring him to produce such extracts and maps in order that such amendments may be noted on them; and if the alterations made in the partition as finally sanctioned be such as to make it desirable to prepare fresh extracts and maps as aforesaid, the Collector shall cause such fresh extracts and maps to be prepared; and shall cause a notice to be served on each proprietor declaring the extract and map which was furnished or offered to him under section 77 or section 83, as the case may be, to be cancelled, and requiring him to take out of the Collector's office such fresh extract and map.

119 The Collector shall then proceed to give the several proprietors possession of the separate estates allotted to each, and if necessary, may require the assistance of the Magistrate in giving such possession; and shall cause to be served on every recorded proprietor of a separate estate, a notice that from the date specified in such notice, the separate estate assigned to him (as described in the extract from the partition paper prepared and delivered or offered to him under section 77, section 83, or section 118, as the case may be) will be deemed to be separated from the parent estate, and to be separately liable for the amount of land revenue specified in such notice, and shall call upon him to enter into a separate engagement for the payment of such revenue.

Procedure as to giving possession of separated estates.

Time of service of notice under preceding section.

120. The date specified in such notice shall not be more than three months after the proprietors have been put in possession of their respective separate estates as herein provided.

Each separate estate to be borne on the revenue roll as separately liable for revenue assessed upon it.

121. From the date specified in such notice, each separate estate shall be borne on the revenue roll and general register of the Collector as a distinct estate separately liable for the amount of land revenue assessed upon it under this Act; and shall be so liable, whether the proprietor have executed an agreement for the payment of the amount of land revenue so assessed upon the said estate, or whether he shall have failed to execute such agreement.

Collector may direct the construction of boundary marks.

122. The Collector may direct the construction of such boundary marks as he may think proper to distinguish the lands of each separate estate, and the cost of such boundary marks shall be deemed to be expenses of the partition.

Boundary marks erected under this Act shall be assigned to zemindars, or to zemindars jointly with tenure-holders, for preservation, as provided in the second clause of section 29, Bengal Act V of 1875 (the Bengal Survey Act 1875), and after they have been so assigned, the provisions of sections 19, 20, and 52 to 57 (both inclusive) of the said Act shall apply to such boundary marks.

PART X.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Any point may be referred to arbitration.

123. The Deputy Collector, with the consent of all the parties concerned, may refer to arbitration any point arising in the course of a partition; and the provisions of Part VIII shall, as far as possible, be applicable to such references.

Case of proprietor who has created a tenure.

124. If any proprietor of an estate held in common tenancy brought under division under the provisions of this Act shall have given his share or a portion of it in patni or other tenure or lease, such tenure or lease shall hold good, as regards the lands finally allotted to the share of the lessor, and only as to such land.

Illustrations.

I.—A, the proprietor of a quarter share in a joint undivided estate held in common tenancy, gives to B a patni tenure of the whole of his interest in the estate, entitling B, as long as such estate is held in common tenancy, to collect one-fourth of the rent payable by every ryot on the estate;

Partition of the said estate is made under this Act, and certain specific lands are assigned to A as his separate estate;

B will become patnidar of the entire separate estate which has been assigned to A, and will be entitled to collect the whole of the rents from the ryots on that estate.

II.—A, the proprietor of a quarter share in a joint undivided estate held in common tenancy, gives to B a patni tenure of one-half of his share in the estate, entitling B, as long as such estate is held in common tenancy, to collect one-eighth of the rent payable by every ryot on the estate;

Partition of the estate is made under the Act, and certain specific lands are assigned to A as his separate estate;

B will become patnidar of one-half of A's separate estate, and will hold his patni in common tenancy with the half of A's interest which A has not given in patni; so that B will be entitled to collect one-half of the rent payable by every ryot on A's estate, and A will be entitled to collect the other half.

Two estates may be united.

125. If two or more estates shall come into the possession of one proprietor or of the same body of proprietors, such proprietor or body of proprietors, after being recorded as proprietors, may apply to have such estates united, and to hold them as a single estate.

Application for such union how to be made, and how to be dealt with.

126. Such application shall be made in writing to the Collector, and the Collector shall not less than thirty days after the issue of a notification of such application (provided he see no objection), comply with the same, and cause the necessary entries to be made in the records of his office, and shall report the case to the Commissioner.

Cause of sale of a separate estate for arrears to be ascertained.

127. Whenever any separate estate created under this Act shall fall in arrear so as to require a sale of the land for the discharge of the arrear at any period within twelve years of the date of the confirmation of the partition, the Collector shall, if possible, ascertain the cause of the estate having fallen into arrear, and shall enquire whether such arrear has been caused by any fraudulent or erroneous allotment of the assessment or assignment of lands at the time of the partition, shall make a report upon the case to the Commissioner for such action as the said Commissioner may think proper.

In certain cases Lieutenant-Governor may order a new allotment of the land revenue.

128. If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Lieutenant-Governor at any time within twelve years from the date of confirmation of a partition, that through any fraud or error at the time of making the partition the assets of the lands assigned to any separate estate were not in proportion to the amount of land revenue for which such estate was made liable, or that the amount of land revenue assessed on any separate estate was not in proportion to the assets of the lands assigned to such estate, the Lieutenant-Governor may to order a new allotment of the land revenue upon the separate estates in accordance with the principles prescribed in this Act, on an estimate of the assets of each such estate as they stood at the time of the partition, such estimate being made on such evidence and information as may be procurable respecting the same.

Under-assessed estates to make refund to over-assessed estates.

129. Whenever the Lieutenant Governor shall pass an order for the re-allotment of the land revenue on any separate estates under the last preceding section, the Lieutenant-Governor may direct that the proprietors whose estates are found to have

Notice as to claims for compensation.

A copy of sections eleven, twelve and thirteen shall be annexed to every such notice.

9. When any claim for compensation is made before the Collector in accordance with the last preceding section, the Collector shall issue a notice requiring all persons interested in the matter in respect of which compensation is claimed, to appear personally or by agent before him at a time and place therein mentioned (such time not being earlier than fifteen days after the date of publication of the notice), and to state the nature of their respective interests in the property affected, and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for such interests.

10. The Collector may also require any person on whom a notice may be served under the last preceding section, and who makes a claim for compensation in accordance therewith, to deliver to him a statement containing, so far as may be practicable, the name of every other person possessing any interest in the property affected or any part thereof, as co-proprietor, sub-proprietor, mortgagee, tenant, or otherwise, and of the nature of such interest, and of the rents and profits (if any) received or receivable on account thereof for the year next preceding the date of the statement.

Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (c), compensation may be awarded in respect of the loss of any tolls which were lawfully levied on any river or channel at the time of the issue of the notification mentioned in section six.

In determining the amount of compensation under this section, regard shall be had to the diminution in the market-value at the time of awarding compensation, of the property in respect of which compensation is claimed; and where such market-value is not ascertainable, the amount shall be reckoned at twelve times the amount of the diminution of the annual net profits of such property, caused by the exercise of the powers conferred by this Act.

Diminution in market-value to be considered.

No right to any such supply of water as is referred to in clauses (d), (e), or (f) of this section, in respect of a work or channel not in use at the date of the notification, shall be acquired as against the Government, except by grant or under the Indian Limitation Act, 1871, Part IV.

12. If any supply of drinking-water is substantially deteriorated or diminished by any works undertaken in accordance with a declaration made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section six, the Canal Officer shall be bound to provide within convenient distance an adequate supply of good drinking-water in lieu of that so deteriorated or diminished, and no person shall be entitled to claim any further compensation in respect of the said deterioration or diminution.

Compensation for loss of drinking-water.

13. No claim for compensation for any such stoppage, diminution, or damage shall be entertained after the expiration of six months from such stoppage, diminution, or damage, unless the Collector is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not making the claim within such period.

Limitation of claims.

14. On the day fixed in the notice mentioned in section nine, the Collector shall proceed to enquire summarily into the claim and to determine the amount of compensation which in his opinion should be allowed therefor, and shall tender such amount to the persons interested who have attended in pursuance of the notice given under section nine.

Enquiry into claim and tender of compensation.

For the purpose of such enquiry, the Collector shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel the production of documents by the same means and, as far as may be, in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

Power to summon witnesses.

15. The Collector may, if no claimant attends pursuant to the notice, or if for any other cause he thinks fit, from time to time postpone the enquiry to a day to be fixed by him.

Postponement of enquiry.

16. If the Collector and the persons interested agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed, the Collector shall make an award under his hand for the same.

Award in case of compensation being agreed on.

Such award shall be filed in the Collector's office, and shall be conclusive, as between the Collector and the persons interested, of the value of the said property and the amount of compensation allowed for the same.

Award to be filed and to be evidence.

17. If the Collector and the persons interested do not agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed, or if upon the said enquiry any question respecting the title to the property of which the value has been diminished, or any rights thereto, or interest therein, arises between or among two or more persons making conflicting claims in respect thereof, the Collector shall refer the matter to the determination of the Court in manner hereinafter provided.

Collector to refer the matter to Court when compensation not accepted as sufficient.

18. If, when the Collector proceeds to make the enquiry as mentioned in sections fourteen and fifteen, no claimant attends, or if any person whom the Collector has reason to think interested, does not attend, the Collector shall hold a proceeding and record the following particulars :—

Collector to record certain particulars in certain cases.

(b) the names of the persons whom he has reason to think interested in such property ;

(c) the amount fixed by him as compensation ; and

(d) the grounds on which such amount was determined ;

and shall place the amount so fixed by him in deposit, there to be held on account of the persons interested, and shall issue a notice to the persons believed to be interested, informing them that the said amount has been deposited as required by this section, and that, should no application be made to the Court (as provided in the next succeeding section) within six weeks of the issue of the notice on the last of the persons named therein, the Collector will pay the amount to any persons legally authorized to receive and to give an acquittance for the same.

And to place the amount of compensation in deposit.

19. Any person on whom notice may be served under the last preceding section, and any person interested in any property in respect of which such notice has been issued, may, within six weeks of the service of such notice, apply to the Court stating his objection to the amount of compensation as fixed by the Collector under the last preceding section, and the amount which he claims as compensation. On receipt of such application the Court shall proceed to determine the amount of compensation to be paid on account of the claim and all other matters, as if a reference had been made to it under section seventeen.

Objections may be made to the amount of compensation fixed by the Collector.

20. In making a reference under section seventeen the Collector shall state, for the information of the Court, the particulars mentioned in section eighteen.

Procedure in making reference under section seventeen.

Procedure on receipt of a reference under section seventeen.

Provided that instead of the last clause of the said section twenty-six, the following shall be read: "The provisions of this section and of section eleven of the Bengal Irrigation Act, 1876, shall be read to every assessor in a language which he understands, before he gives his opinion as to the amount of compensation to be awarded."

22. Where there are several persons interested, if such persons agree in the apportionment of the compensation, the particulars of such apportionment shall be specified in the award, whether such award be made by the Collector or by the Court, and as between such persons the award shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the apportionment.

Particulars of apportionment to be specified.

23. When the amount of compensation has been settled under section sixteen, if any dispute arises as to the apportionment of the same or any part thereof, the Collector shall refer such dispute to the decision of the Court.

Disputes as to apportionment.

All costs entailed by such a reference and the proceedings of the Court thereon shall be paid by the parties who dispute the apportionment of the compensation, in such proportions as the Court may direct, and the Collector shall not be required to disburse any such costs, nor shall any such costs be recovered from the Collector.

24. When the amount of compensation has been settled by the Court, and there is any dispute as to the apportionment thereof, or when a reference to the Court has been made under the last preceding section, the Judge sitting alone shall decide the proportions in which the persons interested are entitled to share in such amount.

Determination of proportions.

An appeal shall lie from every such decision to the High Court, unless the Judge whose decision is appealed from is not the District Judge, in which case the appeal shall lie in the first instance to the District Judge.

Appeal.

Every appeal under this section shall be presented within the time and in manner provided by the Code of Civil Procedure for regular appeals in suits.

25. Payment of the compensation shall be made by the Collector in accordance with the award made by him under section sixteen ; or the proceeding held by him under section eighteen, if no application be made to the Court as provided by section nineteen ; or the award made by the Court or the decision of the Judge under section twenty-one ; or, in the case of an appeal under section twenty-four, in accordance with the decision in appeal, as the case may be.

28. Every tenant holding under an unexpired lease, or having a right of occupancy, who is in occupation of any land at the time when any stoppage or diminution of the supply, in respect of which compensation is allowed under section eleven, takes place, may claim an abatement of the rent previously payable by him for the said land, on the ground that the interruption reduces the value of the holding; provided that no part of the said compensation shall have been received by the said tenant in respect of such reduction in the value of his holding.

Enhancement of rent on restoration of water-supply.

29. If a water-supply increasing the value of such holding is afterwards restored to the said land otherwise than at the cost of the tenant, the rent of the tenant may be enhanced, in respect of the increased value of such land due to the restored water-supply, to an amount not exceeding that at which it stood immediately before the abatement.

Such enhancement shall be on account only of the restored water-supply, and shall not affect the liability of the tenant to enhancement of rent on any other grounds.

PART III.

Of the Maintenance of Canals.

Entry for inquiry.

33. Whenever it shall be necessary to make any enquiry or examination in connection with a projected canal or with the maintenance of an existing canal, or with a projected flood-embankment or with the maintenance of an existing flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or other person acting under the general or special orders of a Canal Officer may enter upon such lands as he may think necessary for the purpose, and may exercise all powers and do all things in respect of such lands as he might exercise and do if the Government had issued a notification under the provisions of section four of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, to the effect that land in that locality is likely to be needed for a public purpose; and may set up and maintain water-gauges, and do all other things necessary for the prosecution of such enquiry and examination.

Power to inspect and regulate water-supply.

34. Such Canal Officer or other person may also enter upon any land, building, or village-channel on account of which any water-rate is chargeable, for the purpose of inspecting or regulating the use of the water supplied or of measuring the lands irrigated thereby or chargeable with a water-rate, and of doing all things necessary for the proper regulation and management of the canal from which such water is supplied.

Power to enter for repairs, and to prevent accidents.

35. In case of any accident being apprehended or happening to a canal or flood-embankment, any Canal Officer or any person acting under his general or special orders in this behalf, may enter upon any lands adjacent to such canal or flood-embankment, and may execute all works which may be necessary for the purpose of preventing such accident, or repairing any damage done.

Notice to occupier of building, &c.

36. When such Canal Officer or person proposes, under the provisions of either of the three last preceding sections, to enter into any building or enclosed court or garden attached to a dwelling-house not supplied with water flowing from any canal, and not being adjacent to a flood-embankment, he shall previously give to the occupier of such building, court, or garden such reasonable notice as the urgency of the case may allow.

Compensation for damage to land.

37. In every case of entry upon any land or building under section seven, section thirty-three, section thirty-four, or section thirty-five, the Canal Officer or person making the entry shall ascertain and record the nature of any crop, tree, building, or other property, to which damage has been done, and the extent of the damage done to any such property, and shall tender compensation to the proprietors or occupiers for all damage done to the same by the entry or by any works executed. If such tender is not accepted, the Canal Officer shall refer the matter to the Collector, who shall thereupon give notice in writing to the persons interested in such land and to the Canal Officer, requiring them to attend before him, on a date to be fixed in the notice, for the purpose of making enquiry as to the amount of compensation.

Appeal from Collector's decision to Commissioner's.

38. After such enquiry as he may think necessary, the Collector shall decide the amount of compensation payable; and such decision shall be subject to an appeal to the Commissioner of the Division, provided that such appeal be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the decision appealed against.

If no such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Collector, or if such appeal be preferred, the decision of the Commissioner, shall be final and conclusive.

Government to provide means of crossing canals and of drainage.

39. Suitable means of crossing canals constructed or maintained at the cost of Government shall be provided at such places as the Lieutenant-Governor thinks necessary for the reasonable convenience of the inhabitants of the adjacent lands; and suitable bridges, culverts, or other works shall be constructed to prevent the drainage of the adjacent lands being obstructed by any canal.

Collector to certify to the Government that means of crossing canals and drainage have been provided.

On the completion of any canal, or of any convenient section of any canal, the Collector, after causing such inspection to be made as may be necessary, shall certify to the Government that suitable and sufficient means of crossing the canal, and suitable and sufficient means of drainage, as aforesaid, have been provided; or shall report in what respects the provision made for the above purposes is defective; and if at any time after he shall have given such certificate it shall be brought to his notice that the provision made as above has proved insufficient, the Collector shall cause inquiry to be made into the circumstances of the case, and if the statement is established, shall report his opinion thereon for the consideration of the Lieutenant-Governor, and the Lieutenant-Governor shall cause such measures in reference thereto to be taken as he thinks proper.

PART IV.

OF DRAINAGE.

Lieutenant-Governor may prohibit formation of obstructions within certain limits.

40. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that injury to the public health or public convenience, or to any canal, or to any land for which irrigation from a canal is available, has arisen or may arise from the obstruction of any river, stream, or natural drainage-course, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by notification published in the Calcutta Gazette, prohibit, within limits to be defined in such notification, the formation of any such obstruction, or may, within such limits, order the removal or other modification of such obstruction.

Thereupon so much of the said river, stream, or natural drainage-channel as is comprised within such limits shall be held to be a drainage-work as defined in section three.

Canal Officer may issue notice to person causing obstructions.

41. The Canal Officer or other person authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor in that behalf, may, after such publication, issue an order to the person causing or having control over any such obstruction, to remove or modify the same within a time to be fixed in the order.

Canal Officer may cause obstructions to be removed.

42. If, within the time so fixed, such person does not comply with the order, the Canal Officer may cause the obstruction to be removed or modified, and if the person to whom the order was issued does not, when called upon, pay the expenses of such removal or modification, such expenses shall be recoverable as a demand under the provisions of section one, Bengal Act VII of 1868 (an Act to make further provision for the recovery of arrears of land revenue and public demands recoverable as arrears of revenue).

When drainage works are necessary Lieutenant-Governor may order a scheme to be drawn up and carried out.

43. Whenever it appears to the Lieutenant-Governor that any drainage works are necessary for the public health, or for the improvement or proper cultivation or irrigation of any lands in districts to which the provisions of the Bengal Embankment Act 1873 do not apply, or that protection from floods or other accumulations of water, or from erosion by a river, is required for any lands, the Lieutenant-Governor may cause a scheme for such works to be drawn up and carried into execution, and the persons authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor to draw up and execute such scheme may exercise in connection therewith all or any of the powers conferred on Canal Officers by sections thirty-three, thirty-four, and thirty-five, and shall be liable to any or all of the obligations imposed upon Canal Officers by sections thirty-six and thirty-seven.

Disposal of claims to compensation.

44 Whenever, in pursuance of a notification made under section forty, any obstruction is removed or modified;

or whenever any drainage-work is carried out under the last preceding section, all claims for compensation on account of any loss consequent on the removal or modification of the said obstruction or the construction of such work, may be made before the Collector, and he shall deal with the same in the manner provided in Part II; but no compensation shall be allowed for any damage arising from increase of percolation.

Limitation of such claims.

45. No such claim shall be entertained after the expiration of six months from the occurrence of the loss complained of, unless the Collector is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not making the claim within such period.

PART V.

OF VILLAGE-CHANNELS

Definition of person.

46. "Person" in this Part includes any number of persons acting jointly

Register of village-channels to be kept.

47. The Canal Officer shall keep a register of all village-channels, whether already existing or constructed under this Act, and shall note thereon in respect of every village-channel whether it is a public channel maintained at the cost of the Government, or a private channel maintained at the cost of the owners; and shall register the names of the owners of every such private channel.

Extension or branch of village-channel to be registered.

A village-channel made as an extension of, or a branch to, an existing village-channel shall be registered as a separate village-channel; and so much of the length of any village-channel as lies within the limits of any one village or mouzah shall be entered on the register as a separate village-channel. Every section of a village-channel so separately entered on the register shall be deemed to be a separate village channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Canal Officer may register as one village-channel a section including portions lying within two or more villages.

Provided always that whenever it shall seem fit to the Canal Officer for any special reason to enter upon his register as one village-channel a section of a village-channel which includes portions lying within two or more villages or mouzahs, the Canal Officer may, with the consent of the Collector obtained in writing, register such section as one village-channel, and such section shall be deemed to be one village-channel in respect of all rights and liabilities imposed by this Act.

Any person may acquire an existing village-channel by agreement.

48. Any person may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, acquire the property in an existing village-channel for the purpose of improving or maintaining it—

(a) by taking over any village-channel belonging to Government;

(b) by transfer of a village-channel from the owner thereof by private agreement.

Any person may construct a new village-channel with consent of owners or occupiers.

49. Any person may, with the permission of a Canal Officer, construct a new village-channel if he has obtained the consent of the owners and occupiers of the land required therefor.

Any person may construct village-channel by applying to Canal Officer.)

50. Any person desiring the construction of a new village-channel, but being unable or unwilling to construct it under a private arrangement with the owners and occupiers of the land affected, as mentioned in the last preceding section, may apply in writing to the Canal Officer stating that he desires the said Canal Officer, in his behalf and at his cost, to do all things necessary for constructing such village-channel;

that he is ready to defray all costs necessary for acquiring the land and constructing such village-channel.

Procedure when Canal Officer considers construction of village-channel expedient.

51. If the Canal Officer considers the construction of such village-channel expedient, he may call upon the applicant to deposit any part of the expense such Officer may consider necessary, and upon such deposit being made, shall cause inquiry to be made into the most suitable alignment for the said village-channel, and shall mark out the land which, in his opinion, it will be necessary to occupy for the construction thereof, and shall forthwith publish a notification in every village through which the village-channel is proposed to be taken, that so much of such land as is situated within such village has been so marked out, and shall send a copy of such notification to the Collector of every district in which any part of such land is known to be situate for publication on such land.

Person wishing to be joint owner must make his application within thirty days.

Such notification shall also call upon any person who wishes to be admitted a joint owner of such village-channel to make his application in that respect within thirty days of the publication of such notification. If any such applicant appears, and his application is admitted, he shall be liable to pay his share in the construction of such village-channel and in the cost of acquiring such land, and shall be an owner of such village-channel when constructed.

Collector to acquire land.

52. On receipt of copy of such notification, the Collector shall proceed to acquire such land under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1870, as if a declaration had been issued by the Government for the acquisition thereof under section six of that Act, and as if the Government had thereupon directed the Collector to take order for the acquisition of such land under section seven of the said Act, and (if necessary) as if the Government had issued orders for summary possession being taken under section seventeen of the said Act.

Procedure after construction of village-channel.

53. On being put in possession of the land the Canal Officer shall construct the required village-channel; and on its completion shall give to the applicant notice thereof, and of any sum payable by him on account of the cost of acquiring the land and constructing the village-channel. On such notice being given, such sum shall be due from the applicant to the Canal Officer. On receipt of payment in full of all expenses incurred the Canal Officer shall make over possession of such village-channel to such applicant.

Canal Officer may direct transfer of a village-channel.

54. Whenever a Canal Officer considers that the transfer of a village channel from the owner is necessary for the proper management of the irrigation from such village-channel, he may cause a notice to be served on the registered owner to appear on a certain day, not less than fifteen days after service of notice, and to prefer any objection to such transfer. After hearing such objection the Canal Officer may order that such village-channel shall be transferred to such person as he may think fit, and that such person be registered as owner of the said village-channel:

Provided that no person shall be registered as the owner of a village channel under this section, unless he has expressed in writing his willingness to be so registered, and until he has paid to the Canal Officer such sum as may be fixed by the Canal Officer under section fifty-six.

A person may be admitted joint owner of an existing village-channel.

55. Any person wishing to become the joint owner of an existing village-channel may petition the Canal Officer to that effect, and on receipt of such petition the Canal Officer may, if he think fit, issue a notice as provided in the last preceding section, upon the registered owner, and after hearing any objection which the registered owner may prefer against the admission of such applicant to be a joint owner, may direct that the applicant shall be registered as such joint owner.

Canal Officer shall determine compensation to be paid for transfer or acquisition of joint ownership.

56. When deciding the question of transfer or of admission to joint ownership under either of the two last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall also determine what amount shall be paid—

as the costs of the proceedings;

as compensation to the previous owners;

and the amount so determined shall be due by the transferee or the person admitted to registry as a joint owner, as the case may be; and on payment of such amount, the village-channel shall be transferred, or the applicant shall be registered as owner or as a joint owner thereof, as the case may be.

Canal Officer may fix rent for a village-channel transferred.

57. Instead of awarding payment of compensation under the last preceding section, the Canal Officer may fix an amount of rent to be paid annually to the previous owners by the persons to whom the village-channel is transferred.

Ownership of village-channel.

58. Every person

(a) acquiring a village-channel as provided in section forty-eight; or

(b) constructing a village-channel as provided in section forty-nine; or

(c) receiving possession of a village-channel as provided in section fifty-three; or

(d) acquiring a village-channel by transfer, as provided in section fifty-four, or

(e) being admitted to registration as joint owner in a village-channel, as provided in section fifty-five,

shall be deemed to be an owner of such village-channel.

Obligations and rights of owner of village-channel.

59. Every owner of a village-channel shall be bound—

(a) to construct and maintain all works necessary for the passage across such village-channel of canals, village-channels, drainage-channels, and public roads existing at the time of its construction, and of the drainage intercepted by it, and for affording proper communications across it for the convenience of the occupants of neighbouring lands;

(b) to maintain such village-channel in a fit state of repair for the conveyance of water;

(c) to allow the use of it to others on such terms as may be declared equitable by the Canal Officer as hereinafter prescribed;

and shall be entitled—

(d) to have a supply of water by such village-channel at such rates and on such terms as are prescribed by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine;

(e) to receive such rent for the use of the village-channel by other persons as the Canal Officer may award him.

If owner of village-channel fails to execute works or make repairs, Canal Officer may execute them on his behalf.

60. If the owner of a village-channel fails to fulfil the obligations mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of the last preceding section the Canal Officer may require him by notice to execute the necessary works or repairs within a period not being less than fifteen days, and in the event of failure, may execute them on his behalf; and all expenses incurred by the execution of such works or repairs shall be a sum due by such owner to Government; and if any such owner who has already failed on one occasion to execute such works or repairs when required to do so, and has left them to be executed on his behalf by the Canal Officer, shall again fail to execute any such works or repairs when required to do so; or if any such owner shall refuse in any respect to fulfil the obligation mentioned in clause (c) of the last preceding section, after having been required to fulfil the same by a notice in writing from the Canal Officer, the Canal Officer may strike such village-channel off the register, and so disqualify it to be any longer a medium for the conveyance of canal water.

Resignation of ownership.

61. Any owner may resign his interest in a village-channel, provided such resignation be duly registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Owner may transfer interest.

62. Any owner of a village-channel may, with the consent of the Canal Officer, transfer his interest to any other person, provided that the liabilities of the person so transferring shall not cease till such transfer is registered in the office of the Canal Officer.

Procedure on death of owner of village-channel.

63 If any owner of a village-channel dies, his legal representative may apply for registration in his stead. If no such application for registry be made within six weeks from the death of the said owner, the remaining registered owners of the village-channel, if any, shall be deemed to be owners of the entire interest in the village-channel, until some other person shall have established his claim to be registered as owner in place of the deceased. If the deceased shall have been the sole registered owner, the Canal Officer shall be deemed to be his representative for the purposes of this Part, and shall exercise all rights and be bound by all liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of his ownership of the said village-channel, until some person shall have established his right to be registered as owner thereof in place of the deceased; and the Canal Officer shall account to such person for all sums received and expended in the exercise of the rights and discharge of the liabilities which attached to the deceased in respect of such ownership.

Procedure when any person applies for registration in lieu of deceased owner.

64. When any person applies for registration under the three last preceding sections, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the other registered owners to prefer any objection to the resignation, transfer, or succession within fifteen days, and if no such objection shall be made, or if the objections made be deemed invalid, shall order such resignation, transfer, or succession to be registered.

Interest of owners equal, unless unequal interests registered.

65. All joint owners of a village-channel shall be held to have an equal interest in it, unless, with the permission of the Canal Officer, they register specific unequal interests.

Person other than owner may have supply of water through village-channel under certain conditions.

66. Any person not an owner of a village-channel, desiring to have a supply of water through such village-channel, may make a private arrangement with the owners for the conveyance of water, or may apply to the Canal Officer for authority to use such village-channel.

Canal Officer may authorise supply.

67. On receipt of such application, the Canal Officer shall serve notice on the owners to show cause why such permission should not be granted, and if no objection be raised, or if any objections be raised, and found invalid, shall authorize the conveyance of such supply on such conditions as may appear to him equitable.

Canal Officer to fix a sum as rent of village-channel.

68. The Canal Officer shall also fix a sum as rent to be paid for the use of such village-channel to the owner. Such rent may be in the form of a percentage on the water-rate of the person using the village-channel, or otherwise, as may be fixed by the Canal Officer.

Owner of a village-channel receiving supply through another village-channel.

69. The owner of a village-channel which receives its water through another village-channel may, at the discretion of the Canal Officer, either be declared a joint owner of such other village-channel, or may be required to pay rent for the use of the same to the owner thereof, as provided in the last preceding section.

Instalments in which rent is payable.

70. All rent payable under either of the two last preceding sections shall be deemed to be due in the same instalments and at the same periods as the water-rate is due, or in such other instalments and at such other dates as the Canal Officer may direct, and may be collected by the Canal Officer on behalf of the person entitled to it, if the Canal Officer thinks fit.

Canal Officer not to pay more than amount actually collected as rent.

71. Any Canal Officer collecting rent under the last preceding section on behalf of any person entitled thereto, shall be bound to pay to the person entitled to the same no more than the amount actually collected by him as rent.

Land acquired for a village-channel may not be used for other purpose.

72. No land acquired under this Part for a village-channel shall be used for any other purpose without the consent of the Canal Officer previously obtained.

Dues how to be recovered

73. Every sum declared to be due under this Part shall be recoverable by the Canal Officer on behalf of the Government or of the person entitled to receive the same, and shall be held to be a demand under the provisions of section one of the aforesaid Bengal Act VII of 1868, or any other similar Act for the time being in force.

PART VI.

OF THE SUPPLY OF WATER.

Water to be supplied on written application only.

74. Every person desiring that water shall be supplied to his land from a canal, shall present a written application to that effect to the Canal Officer, in the form given in Schedule (B) hereto annexed, or in a similar form, binding himself by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under the powers vested in him by this Act; and no person shall be liable to pay any rate or due whatever, on account of water supplied to his land with the permission of the Canal Officer, otherwise than on such application, nor shall water be supplied otherwise than on such application.

Written permission to be given.

75. If the application mentioned in the last preceding section be granted by the Canal Officer, the Canal Officer shall cause his permission to be recorded in the form given in Schedule (C) hereto annexed, or in some similar form, binding himself by the rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor as aforesaid.

Rules to be subject to certain conditions.

76. All rules made by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine shall be consistent with the following conditions:—

Power to stop water-supply;

(a) The Canal Officer may not stop the supply of water to any village-channel, or to any person who is entitled to such supply, except in the following cases:—

(i) whenever and so long as it is necessary to stop such supply for the purpose of executing any work ordered by competent authority;

(ii) whenever and so long as any village-channel is not maintained in such repair as to prevent the wasteful escape of water therefrom;

(iii) whenever and so long as it is necessary to do so in rotation to supply the legitimate demands of other persons entitled to water;

claims to compensation in case of failure or stoppage of supply;

(b) No claim shall be made against the Government for compensation in respect of loss caused by the failure or stoppage of the water in a canal, by reason of any cause beyond the control of the Government, or of any repairs, alterations, or additions to the canal, or of any measures taken for regulating the proper flow of water therein, or for maintaining the established course of irrigation which the Canal Officer considers necessary; but the person suffering such loss shall be entitled to such remission of the ordinary charges payable for the use of the water as is authorized by the Lieutenant-Governor:

claims on account of interruption from other causes;

(c) If the supply of water to any land irrigated from a canal be interrupted otherwise than in the manner described in the last preceding clause, the occupier or owner of such land may present a petition for compensation to the Collector for any loss arising from such interruption, and the Collector shall award to the petitioner a reasonable compensation for such loss:

duration of supply;

(d) When the water of a canal is supplied for the irrigation of a single crop, the permission to use such water shall be held to continue only until that crop comes to maturity, and to apply only to that crop; but if it be supplied for irrigating two or more crops to be raised on the same land within the year, such permission shall be held to continue for one year from the commencement of the irrigation, and to apply to such crops only as are matured within that year:

sale or sub-letting of right to use canal-water,

(e) No person entitled to use the water of any canal, or any work, building, or land appertaining to any canal shall sell or sub-let or otherwise transfer his right to such use without the permission of the Canal Officer, but all contracts made between Government and the owner or occupier of any immoveable property, as to the supply of canal-water to such property, shall be transferable therewith, and shall be presumed to have been so transferred whenever a transfer of such property takes place.

contracts for water transferable with land.

Canal Officer may supply water for purposes other than those of irrigation.

77. On application being made for a supply of water to be used for purposes other than those of irrigation, the Canal Officer may give permission for water to be taken for such purposes, under such special conditions and restrictions, as to the limitation and control of the supply, as he shall think proper to impose in each case.

PART VII.

OF WATER-RATES.

Charge for water how determined.

78. The rates to be charged for canal-water supplied for purposes of irrigation shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor, and all persons accepting the water shall pay for it accordingly.

Liability when person using water unauthorizedly cannot be identified.

79. If water supplied through a village-channel be used in an unauthorized manner, and if the person by whose act or neglect such use has occurred cannot be identified, the persons on whose land such water has flowed, if such land has derived benefit therefrom, or if no land has derived benefit therefrom, all the persons chargeable in respect of the water supplied through such village-channel in respect of the crop then on the ground, shall be liable to the charges made for such use, as determined by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine.

Liability when water runs to waste.

80. If water supplied through a village-channel be suffered to run to waste, and if, after enquiry by the Canal Officer, the person through whose act or neglect such water was suffered to run to waste cannot be discovered, all the persons chargeable in respect of the water supplied through such village-channel for the crop then on the ground shall be jointly liable for the charges made in respect of the water so wasted, as determined by the Lieutenant-Governor under section ninety-nine.

All questions arising under this and the last preceding section shall be decided by the Canal Officer, subject to the provisions of section ninety-one.

Charges recoverable in addition to penalties.

81. All charges for the unauthorized use or for waste of water shall be deemed to be water-rate due on the crop, and may be recovered as such water-rate in addition to any penalties incurred on account of such use or waste.

Power to contract for collection of canal-dues.

82. The Canal Officer may enter into an agreement with any person for the collection and payment to the Government by such person of any sum payable under this Act by a third party.

Any sum payable under this Part deemed to be rent.

83. Any sum lawfully due under this Part, either to the Government, or to any person who has entered into an agreement to collect dues for the Government and certified by the Canal Officer to be so due, shall be deemed to be rent payable on a pottah or engagement in respect of the land irrigated, and shall be recoverable as such by the person to whom it is payable.

Provided that the claim (if any) for rent in respect of such land shall have priority over any claim for arrears of water-rate so far as regards recovery of rent by the exercise of the power of distraint.

Person who distrains may be called on to produce account.

84. If any person distrains half or more than half of any crop on account of which water-rate is due, such person shall be bound, on requisition by the Canal Officer, to furnish him with an account showing how the produce thus distrained has been appropriated in payment of such rent, and the Canal Officer shall be entitled to challenge such account before any Court competent to try suits for arrears of rent in respect of the land in question, and such Court, if it finds that the value of the crop distrained was in excess of the amount of rent which had been due for a period not longer than a year, together with the costs of the distraint, may require the distrainer to pay the water rate due on such crop.

Arrears of water-rate deemed to be a demand under Bengal Act VII of 1868.

85. Every arrear of water-rate which is due to Government and every sum due to Government by any person on account of collections of water-rate, and every sum due to such person on account of water-rate and certified by the Canal Officer to be so due, shall also be held to be a demand under the provisions of section one of the aforesaid Bengal Act VII of 1868, and may be recovered as provided in that Act, together with the costs of executing the processes.

Sections eighty-two to eighty-five do not apply to fines.

86. Nothing in sections eighty-two to eighty-five (inclusive) applies to fines.

87. Whenever a dispute arises between two or more persons in regard to their mutual rights or liabilities in respect of the use, construction, or maintenance of a village-channel, any such person interested may apply in writing to the Canal Officer stating the matter in dispute. Such officer shall thereupon give notice to the other persons interested that, on a day to be named in such notice, he will proceed to enquire into the said matter, and, after such enquiry, he may pass his order thereon, or may transfer the matter to the Collector, who shall thereupon enquire into and pass his order on the said matter.

Dispute as to shares and payments.

88. Whenever any dispute arises among joint owners of a village-channel as to their shares of expense or as to the amounts severally contributed, or as to failure on the part of any owner to contribute his share, the matter may be decided after inquiry by the Canal Officer or Collector, as provided in the last preceding section.

Order passed by Collector and Canal Officer to remain in force until set aside by Civil Court.

89. Any order passed by the Collector, under either of the two last preceding sections, and, subject to the provisions of section ninety-one, any such order passed by a Canal Officer, shall remain in force until set aside by the decree of a Civil Court, and may be executed by any Canal Officer as if it were a decree of the Civil Court.

Jurisdiction as to suits arising out of powers of distraint.

90. All suits arising out of the exercise of the power of distraint for recovery of water-rates, or out of any acts done under color of the exercise of the said power of distraint, or by persons in receipt of the water-rates against any agents employed by them in the collection of such water-rates, or the sureties of such agents for money received or for accounts kept by such agents in the course of such employment, or for papers in their possession, shall be cognizable by the same Court or authority as would have jurisdiction if such water-rates were rent due for the land irrigated.

Appeal and supervision.

91. Every order passed by a Canal Officer under Part V, Part VI, Part VII, or Part VIII of this Act, shall be appealable to the Collector, provided that the appeal be presented within thirty days of the date on which the Canal Officer made the order appealed against; and no appeal shall lie against any proceeding or order of the Collector under this Act, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, but all such proceedings and orders shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner of the Division and of the Board of Revenue, who may pass such order thereon as they may respectively think fit.

Power to summon and examine witnesses

92. Any officer empowered under this Act to conduct any enquiry may exercise all such powers connected with the summoning and examining of witnesses, as are conferred on Civil Courts by the Code of Civil Procedure; and every such enquiry shall be deemed a judicial proceeding.

Local Government may appoint a Commission.

28. If it shall appear to the Local Government that the Commissioners have failed to make adequate and suitable provision for the cleaning and the conservancy of the Town to an extent likely to be prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of the Town, or of any part thereof, the Local Government may, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, appoint a Commission, consisting of three persons, of whom one shall be the Sanitary Commissioner for Bengal, or the Senior Medical Officer of the Presidency, the second shall be appointed by the Commissioners in meeting within thirty days of the date of the said notification, or in their default, by the Local Government, and the third by the Local Government; and the Local Government shall order the members of the said Commission to report within a certain time, to be fixed by the Local Government, whether they are of opinion that the cleaning and the conservancy of the Town are defective to an extent likely to be prejudicial to the health of the inhabitants of the town, or of any part thereof, and, if they shall be of such opinion, to specify in their report what further provision should be made for the cleaning and the conservancy of the Town up to the end of the year then current, or of the year next succeeding, as may be directed by the Local Government, and to submit an estimate of the cost of the said further provision.

In default of Commissioners, Local Government may carry out recommendation contained in report of the Commission.

29. On receipt of the said report, the Local Government shall forward the same for the consideration of the Commissioners, and if the Commissioners shall decline to carry out the provisions recommended therein, the Local Government may order that such provisions, or any of them, or any portion of them respectively, be carried out; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Commissioners to comply with such order, and to provide the funds mentioned in the said estimate, or such portion thereof as the Local Government may fix; and the Chairman shall forthwith carry out such order, and shall defray the cost of carrying out the same from the Municipal Fund, notwithstanding any power conferred on the Commissioners by section fifty-three, or anything to the contrary contained in any other provision of this Act.

Poll how to be taken.

52. If a poll be demanded as in the last preceding section mentioned, the votes of all the Commissioners present who desire to vote shall be taken under the direction of the President, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Commissioners at such meeting.

Unless so executed it shall not be binding on the Commissioners.

The Commissioners may compound with any contractor or other person in respect of any penalty or damages incurred by reason of the non-performance of any contract entered into as aforesaid, whether such penalty be mentioned in any such contract or otherwise, for such sums of money or other recompense as to the Commissioners may seem proper.

Commissioners may appoint Committees.

55. The Commissioners in meeting may from time to time appoint, from among the Commissioners, such and so many Committees, either of a general or of a special nature, and consisting of such number of persons as they may think fit, for the purpose of inquiring into, and reporting upon, any matter connected with the conservancy or improvement of the Town, or of advising and aiding the Chairman in the discharge of any portion of his executive duties, which in the discretion of the Commissioners would be better regulated or managed with the advice and aid of any such Committee:

Provided that the Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be a member of every such Committee, and that the proceedings of every such Committee shall be submitted to the Commissioners at a meeting;

sanctioning expenditure not provided for in the Budget.

Revision and passing of estimates.

58. It shall be in the discretion of the Commissioners at the meeting referred to in section fifty-six to pass or to reject, or to modify, the estimates of all or any sums entered in the Budget.

When any registered cart is transferred within any half-year, it shall be registered anew in the name of the person to whom it has been transferred; and a fee of four annas shall be paid for every such last mentioned registration.

One-sixth of the total net proceeds of the fees half-yearly received by the Commissioners for the registration of carts, after deducting charges incurred in and about such registration, shall be paid half-yearly by the Commissioners to the municipality of the Suburbs, and one-twelfth of such proceeds to the municipality of Howrah.

Provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Local Government, from time to time, to alter the proportion of the said proceeds required by this section to be paid by the Commissioners to the municipalities of the Suburbs and of Howrah respectively, and to prescribe such other proportions as to it shall seem proper.

Last two sections not to apply to certain carts.

86. The three last preceding sections shall not apply to carts—

(a) which are the property of the Government,

(b) which are the property of the Commissioners, the Municipal Commissioners of the Suburbs, or of Howrah.

(c) or which are kept at any place more than eight miles distant from Government House, and are only temporarily and casually used within the Town, the Suburbs, or Howrah.

On failure to register, the Commissioners may seize and sell cart and animals.

87. If any person owns or keeps any cart hereinbefore required to be registered, without having caused the same to be registered, the Commissioners or any Officer authorized by them in that behalf, may seize such cart (provided the same be not employed at the time of the seizure in the conveyance of passengers or goods), together with the animals or cattle drawing the same, and may detain them; and all Police Officers shall, on the application of the Commissioners or their Officers as aforesaid, seize and detain any such cart, animals, or cattle.

If the cart, animals, or cattle so seized be not claimed within ten days, they may be sold by auction by order of a Justice of the Peace, or Magistrate, and the proceeds of such sale may be applied to the expenses incurred on account of the seizure, detention, and sale; and the surplus (if any), if not claimed within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the Municipal Fund of Calcutta.

If the annual value of any house or land as assessed under Chapter V, shall in any case exceed the amount of rent payable by the occupier to the owner, the owner may in such case recover from the occupier the difference between the sum assessed upon him and the sum at which he would have been assessed had he been rated only upon the amount of rent actually payable to him, and such difference shall be added to the rent payable by the occupier, and shall be recoverable by the owner from him.

Remission of house-rate when house vacant

91. Where any house or land, whereon the rate is assessed under Chapter V, has been vacant for sixty consecutive days during any year, the person assessed to the said rate shall be entitled to a remission of so much thereof, not exceeding one-half of the rate for that year, as shall be proportionate to the number of days such house or land has been vacant, if notice shall have been given in writing to the Commissioners of such house or land being vacant; and the date of vacancy shall be calculated from the date of the delivery of such notice at the office of the Commissioners.

No refund of rates unless application made within six months from vacancy.

95. No refund of rates shall be made under the two last preceding sections, unless the same is applied for within six months from the date of cessation of occupation of the house or land on account of which the refund is applied for.

96 Whenever any house or land, which shall have been unoccupied, shall be occupied during any quarter, there shall be forthwith payable in respect of such house or land, such amount of the Water, Police, and Lighting-rates as shall bear to the entire quarterly instalments of the said rates for such house or land the same proportion as the residue of such quarter after such house or land shall be occupied bears to an entire quarter.

Person subletting to different persons to be deemed occupier.

97. Whenever any person holding any house or land at a rent from the person liable to pay the House-rate has or may sublet the same to different persons holding in severalty, the person so holding shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the occupier of such house or land.

Occupier paying Water-rate to deduct one fourth from rent due to owner.

98. Whenever the person from or by whom the Water-rate shall have been recovered or paid shall not be the owner of the house or land in respect of which the Water-rate shall have been assessed, such person may recover from the owner of such house or land one-fourth of the Water-rate so paid by deducting the same from the rent payable by him to such owner.

When house or land unoccupied, owner to pay one-fourth of Water-rate.

99. Whenever any house or land has been unoccupied during an entire quarter, the owner of the said house or land shall pay to the Commissioners one-fourth of the sum which would have been payable as Water-rate by the occupier if such house or land had been occupied.

The sum payable by the owner under this section shall be payable on the first of April, the first of July, the first of October, and the first of January, for the quarters immediately preceding those dates.

Owner to have same power for recovering rates as for recovering rent.

103. Every owner who, under the provisions of the two last preceding sections, may be entitled to recover any sum from the occupier of any house or of any portion thereof, shall have for the recovery of such sum all such and the same remedies, powers, rights, and authorities as if such sum were rent payable to him by the occupier in respect of such portion of the house as may be in his occupation

CHAPTER V.

OF THE ASSESSMENT OF HOUSES AND LAND.

Annual value of house or land how to be ascertained.

104. The estimated gross annual rent at which any house or land, liable to rate under this Act, might reasonably be expected to let from year to year, shall, for the purposes of any rate to be imposed under this Act, be held and be deemed to be the annual value of such house or land.

The value of land so estimated shall not include the value of any machinery thereupon.

Provided that all the unoccupied land, roads, and slopes of the Port Commissioners shall be rated at the rent for which the said land, roads, or slopes might be reasonably expected to let, in the same manner as if the said land, roads, and slopes were used for other than public purposes, and belonged to persons other than a public body, save and except the road extending from the northern boundary of the premises occupied by the East India Railway Company at Armenian Ghât to the Chitpore canal, and the road extending from the Chitpore road to the river Hooghly at Coomartollah Ghat, for a width not exceeding seventy feet and sixty feet respectively, which shall be exempted from assessment of any rate under this Act.

Annual value to be assessed by the Commissioners; assessment to remain in force for six years.

105. All assessments made by the Commissioners prior to the commencement of this Act shall remain in force during the period for which they were so made, and on the expiration of such assessments, the annual value at which any house or land is to be assessed shall be fixed by the Commissioners, and such house or land shall be assessed upon the value so fixed for six years from the date on which it is so fixed.

When substantial improvement made, Commissioners may re-assess.

106. If, during the currency of any period mentioned in the last preceding section, any substantial alteration and improvement is made to any such house or land, the Commissioners may cause such house or land to be again assessed, even though such period has not expired, and such last mentioned assessment shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of assessment.

When substantial injury done, Commissioners may re-assess.

107. If, during the currency of any period mentioned in section one hundred and five, any such house or land shall receive substantial injury through fire, cyclone, the act of God, or civil commotion, or suffers material depreciation from any cause proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been beyond the control of the owner or occupier thereof, the Commissioners shall, as soon as practicable, on application being made to them in writing by the owner or occupier of such house or land, cause such house or land to be again assessed, even though the current period of assessment has not expired, and such last mentioned assessment shall be in force, and the rate shall be imposed according to it, until the expiration of the said period of assessment;

Provided that if any substantial alteration and improvement shall be made, prior to the expiration of the said period of assessment, to the house or land which shall have been again assessed as aforesaid, the Commissioners may cause such house or land to be again assessed as under section one hundred and six

Annual value assessed to be entered in a book

108. The annual value assessed by the Commissioners as hereinbefore provided, shall be entered in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners, wherein shall also be written in distinct columns—

(a) the name of the owner;

(b) the name of the occupier, if the occupier is the person liable to pay the rate;

(c) a designation of the property, sufficient to identify the same, together with the name and number of the street (if any) in which it is situated;

(d) the amount of the rate assessed thereon; and

(e) the amount of the rate assessed on the house and on the land respectively, whenever any rate is payable by the owner of the land, and the said owner is not the owner of the house situated on the said land.

The book required to be kept under this section is hereinafter called the "assessment book."

When the name of the owner or occupier is not known, it shall be sufficient to designate him in the assessment book as the "owner" or "occupier."

New valuation or measurement to be made.

109. The Commissioners shall from time to time make a valuation or measurement of all houses and land within the Town, and for such purpose may divide the Town into such and so many districts as they may think fit, and proceed to make a separate valuation or measurement district by district, and shall enter the same in the assessment book.

Returns may be required for purpose of valuation.

110. The Commissioners may require the owner or occupier of any house or land, to furnish them with returns of the measurements and of the rent or annual value thereof; and the Commissioners or any person authorized by them in that behalf, may at any time between the hour of seven in the forenoon and sunset enter on, and inspect, survey, and measure such house or land, after giving a notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours.

Penalty.

111. Whoever refuses or fails to furnish any such return for the space of one week from the day on which he shall have been required so to do, or knowingly makes a false or incorrect return, and whoever hinders, obstructs, or prevents any Commissioner or any person appointed by the Commissioners as aforesaid, from entering or inspecting or measuring any such house or land, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

Public notice of valuation and measurement to be given.

112. When the valuation or measurement of any of the districts of the Town, into which it may have been divided by the Commissioners, shall have been completed, the Commissioners shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the assessment book, or a copy thereof, may be inspected, by advertisement in at least two of the English daily newspapers, and in two vernacular newspapers, published within the Town, and also by placards posted up in conspicuous places throughout such district of the Town; and the person in whose custody the assessment book may be, shall permit every person being the owner or occupier of any house or land included in the assessment or measurement, or the agent of such owner or occupier, to inspect the book and to make extracts therefrom without payment of any fee, and every person not being such owner or occupier, to inspect and make extracts, in like manner, on payment of a fee of one rupee.

Notice when valuation made for first time or increased.

113. The Commissioners shall, in all cases in which any house or land is for the first time assessed, or in which the valuation or measurement of any house or land previously assessed is increased, give special notice thereof to the owners or occupiers of the same, and when the valuation is increased as aforesaid, the said notice shall state the grounds of such increase.

Appeals.

114. Appeals against any assessment made by the Commissioners under this Chapter shall lie

(a) to not less than three Commissioners, other than executive officers of the Commissioners; or

(b) to the Court of Small Causes.

In any case of an appeal to the Court of Small Causes under this section the said Court may follow the procedure laid down in sections three hundred and fifty-four and three hundred and fifty-five.

Notice to be given by person appealing.

115. Any person desiring to appeal against any assessment made under this chapter, shall, within fifteen days of the publication of the notice referred to in section one hundred and twelve deliver at the office of the Commissioners a notice in writing, stating the grounds of appeal, and also informing the Commissioners whether he intends to appeal under clause (a) or (b) of the last preceding section.

No appeal shall lie as hereinbefore provided unless the amount of the house-rate for one quarter, under the assessment about to expire, has been deposited with the Commissioners; and unless the appeal is preferred by the person who, at the time the appeal is made, shall be recorded in the said book as the owner of the house or land to which the appeal refers, or by the occupier thereof, or by the agent of either of them.

Notice of day for hearing appeals.

116. The Commissioners shall give notice of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the publication of such notice, when they will proceed to hear the appeals under clause (a) of section one hundred and fourteen.

Every appeal under clause (b) of the said section shall be presented to the Small Cause Court within seven days from the date of the delivery of the notice at the office of the Commissioners under the last preceding section.

Assessment by Commissioners when to be final.

117. The assessment by the Commissioners of any rate, when no appeal therefrom is made as hereinbefore provided, and the adjudication of any appeal under the two last preceding sections, shall be final and conclusive.

Assessments to be entered in assessment book.

118. The assessments made by the Commissioners, subject to such alterations as may from time to time thereafter be duly made on appeal, shall be entered in the assessment book, and the rate calculated on the said assessment shall, subject to such alterations as aforesaid, be deemed to be the rate for the whole period for which the assessment is made, and this period shall be calculated from the commencement of the quarter next succeeding that in which any such amendment shall be so authenticated; and until such date the old assessment shall continue in force, notwithstanding that the period for which the old assessment was made may have expired.

Alteration or amendment of assessment.

119. The Chairman or Vice-Chairman may at any time amend the assessment book by inserting therein the name of any person whose name ought to be so inserted, or by inserting any house or land liable to the rate, after giving notice, to any person interested in the making of the amendment, of a day, not being less than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, when such amendment is to be made; or by striking out the name of any person or any house or land not liable to the rate, or reducing the amount of the assessment, without notice:

and if any amendment shall be made, in cases where notice is required, the same shall be deemed to have been made on the expiration of fifteen days after service of the said notice; and any person interested in such amendment may appeal by application in writing to the Commissioners, to be left at their office three clear days before the day fixed in the said notice for such amendment; and the provisions of sections one hundred and fourteen, one hundred and fifteen, one hundred and sixteen, and one hundred and seventeen, shall, so far as may be practicable, apply to such appeal.

New assessment book need not be prepared every six years.

120. It shall not be necessary to prepare a new assessment book at the expiration of each period of assessment, but the Commissioners in meeting, other than an ordinary meeting, may adopt the valuation or measurement and assessment contained in any assessment book for any previous period, with such alterations as may in particular cases be deemed necessary, as the valuation, or measurement and assessment for the period next following;

Provided that sections one hundred and ten to one hundred and eighteen (both inclusive) shall, as far as may be practicable, be applicable to such valuation or measurement and assessment, and to the assessment book or books in which it is contained.

CHAPTER VI.

OF LEVYING THE RATES.

Bills to be presented.

121. When any rate is due, the Commissioners shall cause to be presented, to the person liable to the payment thereof, a bill for the sum due, which shall also contain a statement of the period, and a description of the property, for which the rate is charged.

Provided that whenever any rate is payable by the owner of the land, and the said owner is not the owner of the house situated on the said land, the assessment on the land and on the house shall be separately entered in the said bill.

Notice of demand.

122. If the bill is not paid by the person liable to pay the same within seven days from the presentation thereof, the Commissioners may cause to be served upon such person a notice of demand, in the form contained in the fourth schedule, or to the like effect; and if he shall not, within seven days from the service of such notice of demand, pay the sum due, or show sufficient cause, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, for non-payment of the same, such sum, with all costs, may be levied by distress and sale of the moveable property of the defaulter, or if the defaulter be the occupier of any house or land in respect of which a rate is due, by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, under a warrant in the form contained in the fifth schedule, or to the like effect, to be issued for that purpose by the Commissioners.

Distress.

For every notice of demand under this section which the Commissioners shall cause to be served upon any person, a fee, not exceeding one rupee, shall be paid by such person.

Such fee shall be added to the amount of the rate in respect of which the notice is given, and, if not duly paid, shall be levied in the same manner as such rate may be levied.

Inventory—notice of distress

123. The officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress under the last preceding section shall make an inventory of the moveable property seized under such warrant, and shall at the time give a notice in writing, in the form contained in the sixth schedule, or to the like effect, to the person in possession thereof at the time of the seizure, that the said moveable property will be sold as therein mentioned.

Sale.

124. If the warrant is not in the meantime discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the moveable property seized shall be sold under the orders of the Commissioners, who shall apply the proceeds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, in discharge of the said arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned, on demand, to the person in possession of the moveable property at the time of the seizure.

All sales of property under this section shall, so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure now in force or hereafter to be in force in the Court of Small Causes with respect to sale after distress.

Fees shall be payable upon distraints under this Act according to the rates set forth in the Table of Fees in the sixth schedule.

All officers and servants of the Corporation are prohibited from purchasing any property at any such sale.

Goods of defaulter, wherever found, may be distrained.

125. The moveable property of any person from whom any rate is due may be distrained, wherever the same may be found, for default in payment of the money due from him.

Rate due from owner may be recovered from occupier and deducted by him from his rent.

126. If the sum due on account of any rate from the owner of any house or land remains unpaid after notice of demand has been duly served, the Commissioners may demand the amount from the occupier for the time being of the house or land, and, on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any moveable property found on the house or land, and, in such case, the occupier may deduct, from the next and following payments of his rent, the amount which may be so paid by, or recovered from, him.

Provided that no arrear of rate, which has remained due from the owner of any house or land for more than one year, shall be so recovered from the occupier thereof.

Distress not unlawful for want of form.

127. No distress levied under this Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser on account of any irregularity committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for any special damage sustained by them in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Commissioners may sue, instead of proceeding by distress.

128. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress and sale the whole or any part of the sum due in respect of any rate, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER VII.

OF THE WATER-SUPPLY.

The Commissioners to provide water-supply.

129. The Commissioners shall provide a supply of water within the Town, and shall for that purpose cause such mains and pipes to be laid, and such tanks, reservoirs, or other works to be made and constructed, as shall be necessary for the supply of filtered water in all the chief public streets of the Town, and shall also erect, in all such streets, sufficient and convenient stand-pipes or pumps for the gratuitous use of the inhabitants of the Town for domestic purposes.

The said stand-pipes or pumps shall be so placed that there shall not be any portion of any such chief street at a greater distance than one hundred and fifty yards from some such stand-pipe or pump.

What are not domestic purposes.

130. A supply of water for domestic purposes shall not include a supply of water for animals, or for washing carriages, where such animals or carriages are kept for sale or hire, or a supply for any trade, manufacture, or business, or for fountains, or for watering gardens or roads, or for any ornamental or mechanical purpose.

Pressure at which water must be kept.

131. The Commissioners shall, between the hours of six in the forenoon and nine in the afternoon, so far as may be reasonably practicable, keep and maintain in their pipes and mains a sufficient supply of filtered water under a pressure of not less than ten feet for the domestic use of the rate-payers, and shall daily, from the hour of seven in the forenoon to nine in the forenoon, and from the hour of five in the afternoon to six in the afternoon, maintain a pressure of water in the service pipes and mains sufficient to raise the water in all houses and places in which the same may be introduced, to a height of not less than fifty feet.

Supply for business.

132. The Commissioners may supply water through a meter, for purposes other than domestic purposes, provided that the person requiring such supply make application to the Commissioners in writing, specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.

The Commissioners may thereupon, subject to such charges or rates as may have been fixed by the Commissioners in meeting, other than an ordinary meeting, lay down, or allow to be laid down, the necessary communication-pipes and works, of such dimensions and character as may be fixed by the Commissioners

Householder entitled to certain supply of water for domestic use

133. The occupier of every house shall be entitled to have, free of further charge, fifteen hundred gallons of filtered water for every rupee paid to the Commissioners as water-rate on account of such house, to be supplied from the service pipes of the Commissioners for domestic use through a ferrule of such size as the Commissioners may determine. If the Commissioners have reason to believe that the occupier of any house consumes more filtered water than he is entitled to as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to provide a water-meter at their own expense, and attach the same to the water-pipes of the said house; and any water which may be used over and above the quantity to which the occupier is entitled as aforesaid shall be paid for by him at the rate of one rupee for every fifteen hundred gallons.

Provided that no charge shall be made by the Commissioners for unfiltered water supplied under the next succeeding section.

Nothing contained in the first clause of this section shall apply to houses assessed at less than twelve hundred rupees per annum.

Commissioners may provide filtered or unfiltered water for latrines.

134. It shall be at the option of the Commissioners to provide filtered or unfiltered water for all latrines and water-closets; and wherever filtered water has been already supplied to such latrines or water-closets, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners at their own expense, and not otherwise, to stop the supply of filtered water, and in lieu thereof to provide unfiltered water for such latrines and water-closets.

All latrines to be provided with cistern.

135. All latrines and water-closets now supplied, or hereafter to be supplied, with water, filtered or unfiltered, shall be provided with a cistern of such size and description as the Commissioners shall direct; and all such cisterns shall be put up at the cost of the owner of the house or land so supplied with water.

Communication-pipes, &c., to be made of required dimensions and at expense of householder

136. Every person paying the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned shall be entitled to lay down communication-pipes from the service pipes of the Commissioners, for bringing into his house or land a reasonable supply of water for domestic use; provided that the Commissioners shall be at liberty to cut off the supply of water to any house or land during the time the said house or land is unoccupied.

The communication-pipes leading the water from the service pipes of the Commissioners into the house of any rate-payer, and the pipes and works within the house connected therewith, shall be of such character, dimensions, and material as the Commissioners shall fix and approve; and shall be made and constructed at the expense of the person requiring the same.

Communication-pipes, &c., must be made to satisfaction of Officer of the Commissioners.

137. The communication-pipes and all fittings thereon leading water from the service pipes of the Commissioners into any house or land, and the pipes, works, and fittings inside the house or land, must in all cases be executed subject to the inspection and to the satisfaction of the Commissioners.

Such communication-pipes, works, and fittings may be made by the servants and workmen of the Commissioners, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the Commissioners and the person requiring the supply, or subject to such charges as may be fixed by the Commissioners; and the Commissioners may require the amount necessary for the execution of such works to be paid or deposited before such works are executed; and such charges and expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as the water-rate.

Power to enter premises.

138. The Officer authorized in that behalf by the Commissioners may, between the hours of seven in the forenoon and five in the afternoon, enter into or on any house or land supplied with water as aforesaid in order to examine all pipes, works, and fittings, connected with the supply of water, and to ascertain if there be any waste or misuse of such water; and if such Officer at any such time be refused admittance into such house or land for the purposes aforesaid, or be prevented from making such examination as aforesaid, the Commissioners may forthwith turn off the water from such house or land.

Provided that nothing hereinbefore contained shall authorize an entry into any room appropriated for the zenana or residence of women, which by the custom of the country is considered private, unless a notice in writing of not less than four hours be given.

When pipes are out of repair, Commissioners may turn off water.

139. In the event of any pipes, works, or fittings connected with the supply of water to any house or land, being at any time found on examination by any officer of the Commissioners authorized in that behalf to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, the Commissioners may cause the water to be turned off from such house or land, after giving notice in writing of not less than twenty-four hours, and may recover the expense incurred for turning off the water from the occupier of such house or land.

Water may be cut off on neglect to pay the rate.

140. If any person supplied with water shall neglect to pay the water-rate hereinbefore mentioned at any of the times of payment thereof, or the charge made for the said water when supplied for other than domestic purposes, the Commissioners may turn off the water from the house or land in respect of which such rate or charge is payable, by cutting off the pipe to such house or land, or by such means as the Commissioners may think fit, and may recover the expenses of turning off the water from such person;

Provided that the stopping or cutting off the supply of water shall not relieve any person from any penalties or liabilities which he may otherwise have incurred.

Occupier in whose house water is wasted liable to penalty.

141. The occupier of any house or land in which water supplied by the Commissioners under this Act is, from negligence or other circumstances under the control of the said occupier, wasted, or in whose house or land the pipes, works, and fittings for the supply of water shall be found to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause any waste of water, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Person causing waste of water liable to penalty.

142. Any person causing waste of water supplied by the Commissioners shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five rupees.

Commissioners at their discretion may allow person outside the Town to take water

On receipt of report Local Government may order Commissioners to serve notice on owners.

286. If the Commissioners make default in carrying out the said order of the Local Government, the Local Government may appoint some officer to perform the same, and such officer may exercise such of the powers conferred upon the Commissioners by sections two hundred and eighty-one and two hundred and eighty-two, as are necessary for the execution of the said works, and shall be liable to all or any of the obligations imposed upon the Commissioners by section two hundred and eighty-three, and the expenses incurred by such officer in the execution of the said works shall be paid by the owner of the land.

If Commissioners make default in carrying out order, Local Government may carry it out.

Provided that the Local Government may order the expenses so incurred to be recovered by instalments from the said owner, or if it should appear to the Local Government that the said owner is by reason of poverty unable to pay the same, may order the same or any portion thereof to be paid out of the Municipal Fund.

Provided that notice shall be given to the recorded proprietors and managers of any estate or revenue-free property before any change is made in any way affecting such estate or property, and to every person whose name the Collector is about to register as proprietor or manager of any estate or revenue-free property, before such registration is effected; and any objections which may be made to the proposed change or registration shall be duly considered by the Collector before he orders such change or registration to be made.

of any interest in such estate or property as proprietor or manager, and that the names of other persons have been recorded as proprietors or managers of every portion of the interest in respect of which such proprietor's or manager's name was borne on the Register, the Collector may order the name of such person to be struck out from among the recorded proprietors or managers of such estate or property, and, if required, may grant him a certificate to that effect.

On receipt of such application the Collector shall proceed, as far as possible, according to the manner hereinafter prescribed in respect of applications for registration as proprietor.

Notice to objectors.

48. If the application be for registration otherwise than as manager appointed as mentioned in the last preceding section, and if it sets forth circumstances which would justify the Collector in registering the name of the person whose name is required to be registered, or if after further enquiry the Collector considers that such circumstances exist, he shall issue a notice requiring all persons who object to the registration of the name of the person whose name is required to be registered, or who dispute the character or extent of the interest in respect of which it is required to be registered, to give in a written statement of their objections, and to appear on a day to be specified in such notice, not being less than one month from the date of the publication thereof.

In case such notice cannot be served in any of the ways hereinbefore mentioned, it shall be served in such way as the Collector issuing such notice may direct.

No fees or other costs shall be payable by the applicant in respect of the service or publication of the notice prescribed by this and the last preceding section.

Irregularity in publication or service of notice not to affect validity of proceedings.

51. No irregularity or omission in the publication or service of notice as required by the three last preceding sections shall affect the validity of any proceedings under this Act, unless it is proved to the satisfaction of the Collector that some material injury was caused by such irregularity or omission.

Inquiry by Collector.

52. On the day fixed in the notice issued under section 48, or as soon thereafter as possible, the Collector shall consider any objections which may be advanced, and make such further inquiry as appears necessary to ascertain the truth of the alleged possession of, succession to, or transfer of the estate, revenue free property, or interest therein, in respect of which registration is applied for; and if it appears to the Collector that the possession exists, or that the succession or transfer has taken place, and that the applicant has acquired possession in accordance with such succession or transfer,

but not otherwise, the Collector shall order the name of the applicant to be registered in the proper Registers as proprietor or manager of the said estate, revenue-free property, or interest therein.

Provided that any person to whom any proprietary right in an estate has been mortgaged, may be registered as mortgagee, whether he be in actual possession or otherwise.

Power to summon witnesses and compel production of documents.

53. For the purpose of the inquiry mentioned in the last preceding section, and of every inquiry held under this Act, the Collector may summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and compel them to give evidence, and compel the production of documents by the same means, and, as far as possible, in the same manner, as is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure.

Payment of costs.

54. All costs of any enquiry or proceeding held before the Collector under this Act shall, except as provided in section 50, be payable by the parties concerned, and the Collector may pass such orders as he shall think fit in respect of the payment of such costs.

Dispute as to succession.

55. If the applicant's possession of, succession to, or acquisition by transfer of the extent of interest in respect of which he has applied to be registered, is disputed by or on behalf of any person making a conflicting claim in respect thereof, and if the possession of the applicant in accordance with his application is not proved to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector shall determine summarily the right to possession in respect of the interest in dispute, and shall deliver possession accordingly, and shall make the necessary entry in the registers accordingly, subject to any orders which may subsequently be made by any Civil Court;

or if, in the opinion of the Collector, the dispute be one which can more properly be determined by a Civil Court, the Collector shall refer the matter in dispute to the principal Civil Court of the district for determination as hereinafter provided.

Provided that if the applicant's possession of any extent of interest in accordance with his application be not disputed, or if such possession be proved to the satisfaction of the Collector, the Collector may register the said applicant's name in respect of such extent of interest, and may at the same time make a reference as hereinafter provided to the Civil Court for determination of any dispute as to any further extent of interest in respect of which the applicant has applied to be registered, but in respect of which the right of the applicant to be registered is disputed, and is not proved to the satisfaction of the Collector.

Effect of Collector's order.

56. Every order of a Collector passed under the first clause of the last preceding section shall be of the same force and effect as an order passed by the Judge under section 4 of Act XIX of 1841, determining summarily the right to possession and delivering possession accordingly; and no proceedings shall be taken by any Civil Court under the said Act in respect of any claim or dispute which has been determined by an order of the Collector as aforesaid.

Procedure on making a reference under section 55.

57. In making a reference to the Civil Court under section 55, the Collector shall state for the information of the said Court in writing under his hand

(1) the name of the estate or revenue-free property to which the reference applies, together with the numbers which it bears on the General Register, and (if an estate), on the revenue-roll of the district;

(2) the names of all the persons who now stand registered on the General Register as proprietors, managers, or mortgagees of such estate or property, with the character and extent of the interest in respect of which each stands registered;

(3) the name of the applicant for registry;

(4) the character and extent of the interest in dispute;

(5) the circumstances of the case as far a they are before the Collector, and the reasons which have led him to make the reference.

Procedure on receipt of reference.

58. On receipt of such reference the said principal Civil Court of the district may either proceed to determine the matter, or may transfer the matter for determination to any other competent Civil Court in the district. The said principal Civil Court, or the Court to which the matter is transferred, shall cite the parties concerned, and give notice of the time at which the matter will be heard; and after expiration of the time so fixed, shall determine summarily the right to possession in respect of the interest in dispute (subject to regular suit), and shall deliver possession accordingly.

Judge may appoint curator.

59. If it shall appear to the Judge of the Court by which the matter is heard that danger is to be apprehended of the misappropriation or waste of the property before the summary suit can be determined, such Judge may appoint curators for the care of the property, and may exercise all or any of the powers mentioned in sections 5 to 13 (both inclusive) of Act XIX of 1841.

Costs.

60. The said Court may make such order as it shall think fit with regard to the payment by the parties of the cost of the enquiry and proceedings.

Provided that no costs shall be recoverable from the parties on account of the issue of notices citing the parties and fixing a date for the first hearing of the case.

Summary decision of Court to be final.

61. The summary decision of the Court under section 58 shall have no other effect than that of settling the actual possession; but for this purpose it shall be final, not subject to any appeal or order for review.

Civil Court to certify its determination to Collector.

62. The Court shall certify to the Collector its determination as to the right of possession, and the Collector shall thereupon make the necessary entries in the proper Registers.

Fees for mutations and entries.

63. The Lieutenant-Governor may prescribe proper fees for changes or entries in the Registers; provided that no fee for a single change or entry shall exceed one hundred rupees.

Such fees shall be levied from the person in whose favor the change or entry is made.

Any two or more persons may join in one application for the registration of their names under this Act in respect of one estate or revenue-free property; and such joint application shall, for the purpose of levying fees under this section, be deemed to be one application.

All fees levied under this section shall be expended in such manner as the Lieutenant-Governor may think fit.

Penalty for omitting to comply with provisions of Act.

64. Whoever, being required by this Act to apply for the registration of his name and the extent of his interest in any estate or revenue-free property, voluntarily or negligently omits to make such application within the prescribed time, shall be liable to such fine as the Collector may think fit to impose, not exceeding one hundred rupees for such omission, and to such further daily fine as the Collector may think fit to impose, not exceeding fifty rupees, for each day during which such person shall omit to apply for such registration after a date to be fixed by the Collector in a notice requiring such person to apply for registration.

Such notice shall be served in the manner prescribed in section 50, and the date before which such person is required to apply for registration shall not be less than one month after service of such notice.

Fine may be levied notwithstanding appeal.

65. The Collector may proceed from time to time to levy any amount which has become due in respect of any such fine, notwithstanding that an appeal against the order imposing such fine may be pending.

Provided that whenever the amount levied under any such order shall have exceeded five hundred rupees, the Collector shall report the case specially to the Commissioner of the Division, and no further levy in respect of such fine shall be made otherwise than by authority of the said Commissioner.

No penalty on person who applies suo motu.

66 Notwithstanding anything contained in section 64, no fine shall be imposed by the Collector under the said section on any person on the ground that such person has failed to make application for registration of his name within the time fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 39 or 40, or on the ground that such person has failed to apply for registration of his name within the time prescribed by section 42

if such person shall, at any time after the expiration of the time fixed or prescribed as aforesaid, of his own motion, and otherwise than after the issue of a requisition by the Collector in that behalf, present such application as is required by this Act for the registration of his name, and of the character and extent of his interest.

Liabilities of proprietors and managers.

67. All the recorded proprietors and managers of an estate or revenue-free property shall be deemed to be jointly and severally liable for the discharge of any duties and obligations which are by any law for the time being in force imposed upon the proprietors of such estate or property; and all persons who are required by this Act to apply for registration shall, from the date on which the obligation so to register is imposed on them respectively by this Act, be deemed to be liable for the discharge of any duties and obligations which are by any such law as aforesaid imposed upon the proprietors of the estate or property in respect of which they are required to apply for registration respectively.

PART V.

OF THE OPENING OF SEPARATE ACCOUNTS IN RESPECT OF SHARES.

No separate account to be opened otherwise than in accordance with registered interest.

68. Notwithstanding anything contained in Act XI of 1859 (an Act to improve the law relating to sales of land, &c.), from the commencement of this Act no separate account shall be opened under the provisions of section 10 or of section 11 of the said Act in respect of the share of any applicant under the said sections otherwise than for a share corresponding with the character and extent of interest in the estate in respect of which such applicant is recorded as proprietor or manager under this Act.

Proprietor holding undivided interest in specific lands may apply for separate account.

69. When a proprietor of a joint estate who is recorded as proprietor of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate, but not extending over the whole estate, desires to pay separately the share of the Government revenue which is due in respect of such interest, he may submit to the Collector a written application to that effect. The application must contain a specification of the land in which he holds such undivided interest and of the boundaries and extent thereof, together with a statement of the amount of Government revenue heretofore paid on account of such undivided interest. On the receipt of this application the Collector shall cause it to be published in the manner prescribed for publication of notice in section 10 of Act XI of 1859.

In the event of no objection being urged by any recorded co-sharer within six weeks from the time of publication, the Collector shall open a separate account with the applicant, and shall credit separately to his share all payments made by him on account of it.

The date on which the Collector records his sanction to the opening of a separate account, shall be held to be that from which the separate liabilities of the share of the applicant commence

Sections 12, 13, and 14 of Act XI 1859 applicable.

70. Section 12 of the said Act XI of 1859 shall apply to every application made under the last preceding section; and the effect and consequences of opening a separate account under the last preceding section shall be such and the same as are described in section 13 and in section 14 of Act XI of 1859.

Application to close a separate account.

71. Whenever any share in respect of which a separate account has been opened by the Collector under section 10 or section 11 of the said Act XI of 1859, or under section 69, shall no longer correspond with the character and extent of interest held in the estate by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, any proprietor or manager whose name is borne on the General Register under this Act as proprietor or manager of any interest in the share in respect of which such separate account is open, may submit to the Collector a written application setting out the circumstances under which such share no longer corresponds with the extent of interest held in the estate by any one or more recorded proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more recorded proprietors or managers, and specifying the manner in which such share has become broken up and distributed among the proprietors of the estate, and praying that the separate account standing open in respect of such share shall be closed, and, if he so desire, praying that another separate account be opened in respect of any other share or shares which were wholly or partly included in the share in respect of which the previous separate account was open.

Illustration.

In a certain estate separate accounts have been opened under section 10 of Act XI of 1859 for the 4 annas share of A, and also for the 5 annas share of B, the accounts of the remaining 7 annas share being kept jointly in the names of the remaining proprietors C, D, and E.

In course of time X has inherited A's 4 annas share, and also C's interest in the 7 annas share, which amounted to 3 annas; X has also acquired by purchase 2 annas out of B's 5 annas share, so that the interests in the estate are now distributed as follows:—

X	... ...	9 annas.
B	... ...	3 ,,
D & E	...	4 ,,

X, if a recorded proprietor of the estate, may apply to the Collector to close the separate account which is open in respect of A's 4 annas share, and also the separate account which is open in respect of B's 5 annas share, as neither of these shares corresponds with the extent of interest held by any one proprietor, or held jointly by two or more proprietors in the estate;

and in the same application X may apply for the opening of a separate account in respect of the 9 annas share which he now holds.

Any of the other proprietors might also make a similar application.

Separate account may be closed and another opened.

72. On receipt of such application the Collector shall cause a copy of the same to be published in the manner provided in section 10 of Act XI of 1859; and if within six weeks from the date of such publication no objection is made by any other recorded proprietor of the estate, the Collector shall close the separate account which then stands open, and shall open a separate account with the applicant as required by him, under section 10, or section 11 of Act XI of 1859, or under section 69, as the case may be.

Effect of objection.

73. If any recorded proprietor of the estate, whether the same be held in common tenancy or otherwise, object that the share in respect of which any separate account is open as aforesaid has not been broken up, and does still correspond with the character and extent of interest held by any one proprietor or manager, or jointly by two or more proprietors or managers, or object that the applicant has no right to the share claimed by him, or that his interest in the estate is less or other than that claimed by him.

or, (when the application is in respect of a specific portion of the land of an estate or in respect of an undivided interest held in common tenancy in any specific portion of the land of the estate), object that the amount of Government revenue stated by the applicant to have been heretofore paid on account of such portion of land, or on account of the applicant's undivided interest therein, is not the amount which has been recognized by the other sharers as the Government revenue thereof,

It shall come into force from the date on which it may be published in the Calcutta Gazette with the assent of the Governor-General, and shall continue in force for three years from such date.

and if application shall be made to the Lieutenant-Governor by any person interested in such dispute praying that the Lieutenant-Governor do take action under the powers vested in him by this Act, the Lieutenant-Governor may, by an order to be published in the Calcutta Gazette, declare the provisions of this Act to be in force in such tract, the boundaries of which shall be defined in the said order, and may direct that inquiry be made for the determination of such dispute by the Collector of the district, or by such other officer as the Lieutenant-Governor may think fit to appoint in that behalf.

A copy of such order shall be published by being posted up at the court of every Judge and Munsif, and at the office of every Collector and Sub-Divisional Officer within whose jurisdiction, and at every police station within the jurisdiction of which, the said tract or any part of it is situated, and in such one or more conspicuous places in the said tract as the Collector may direct.

4. Lieutenant-Governor to specify matters for inquiry.

5. Whenever the Lieutenant-Governor shall have made an order under section three, the Lieutenant-Governor shall also issue instructions specifying any matters of fact into which the Collector shall inquire, in accordance with the provisions of the said section; and on receipt of such instructions the Collector shall proceed to make the inquiry in accordance therewith.

Collector may allow parties to come before him and make objections.

6. Before proceeding to make such inquiry, the Collector shall publish a notification in the manner provided by clause five of section three, stating the nature of the inquiry to be made, and calling upon all parties who may deem themselves interested therein to appear before him, either in person or by agent, for the purpose of making such representations and advancing such objections as to them may seem fit; and such representations and objections (if any) shall be duly heard and considered by the Collector.

Power to Collector to enforce attendance of witnesses.

7. For the purpose of such inquiry, the Collector shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of parties and witnesses, to examine such parties and witnesses, and to compel the production of documents by the same means (as far as may be) and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

Collector to draw up report, and to allow persons to take copies of the same.

8. After making the necessary inquiry, the Collector shall draw up a report stating the result of the inquiry, and his own opinion on each of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, and shall publish a notice in his office stating that any person may take a copy of the said report for the purpose of advancing before the Commissioner any objections thereto which he may think fit, and that such objections must be filed in the office of the Commissioner, or in the office of the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within fifteen days of the publication of the said notice.

of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, to the Board.

Board to issue instructions to Collector.

10. After considering the reports and objections submitted by the Commissioner under the last preceding section, the Board shall issue such instructions as to it shall seem fit, not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, in respect to the determination of each of the matters specified for inquiry under section five, and the Collector shall make an order determining each of the said matters in accordance with such instructions of the Board.

Suits to be transferred to Collector.

11. On receipt of such instructions the Collector shall publish at his office, a notice of such receipt and from the date of the publication of such notice, and as long as this Act is in force in the tract mentioned in section three, all suits of the nature of those specified in section 23 of Act X of 1859, relating to such tract, shall be instituted before, and, except as hereinafter otherwise expressly provided, be cognizable by, the Collector and by no other tribunal.

Collector to send copy of notice to Courts.

12. As soon as possible after publication of the notice mentioned in the last preceding section, the Collector shall send a copy thereof to every Court which had jurisdiction to entertain such suits immediately before the publication of the said notice.

Procedure in suits.

13. In the disposal of such suits the Collector shall, as far as possible, follow the procedure prescribed in Act X of 1859, and all powers exercised by a Collector under the said Act may be exercised by the Collector under this Act, provided that all such suits shall be decided by a reference to, and in accordance with, any order of the Collector determining a matter under section ten, in so far as such order may be applicable.

Power to refer to arbitration.

14. The Collector may, with the consent of the parties concerned, refer any such suit to arbitration, and the provisions of sections 313 to 325 (both inclusive) of the aforesaid Act VIII of 1859 shall, as far as may be practicable, apply to such references.

Rules for determining rate of rent.

15. Whenever in any suit instituted under the provisions of this Act it shall appear to the Collector that a ryot having a right of occupancy is liable to enhancement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been increased otherwise than by the agency or at the expense of the ryot;

or whenever in any such suit it shall appear to the Collector that such ryot is entitled to claim an abatement of the rent previously paid by him on the ground that the value of the produce or the productive powers of the land held by him have been decreased by any cause beyond the powers of the said ryot,

the Collector shall, if possible, fix the rate of rent payable by such ryot, so that the rent previously paid by such ryot shall bear to the rent so fixed the same proportion as the former value of the produce of the soil, calculated on an average of three or five years next before the date of the alleged rise or decrease in value, bears to the present value of such produce;

but if in any such suit the Collector shall not be able to ascertain to his satisfaction the former value of the produce as required for the application of the above rule, the Collector may, if he think proper so to do, determine the rate of rent payable by such ryot according to any of the following methods:—

(a) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the existing average gross value of the produce of the land held by him as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(b) by fixing the rent of the ryot so that it shall represent such portion of the average net profits of the land held by him (after deducting from the average gross annual value of the produce of such lands such a sum as may be deemed proper on account of costs of production and disposal of such produce) as the Collector shall consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case;

(c) by taking as the standard of comparison the rates which are generally paid in adjacent places by ryots having no right of occupancy, or in such places as the Collector may select, for lands of a similar description and having similar advantages; and by fixing the rates of rent to be paid by the ryot having a right of occupancy at such percentage below the rent which would be paid for the same lands by ryots having no right of occupancy as the Collector may consider fair and equitable with reference to the circumstances of each case.

Suit may be brought by or against any number of ryots collectively.

16. In every suit under this Act of the nature of those specified in the first, second, third, and fourth clauses of section 23 of Act X of 1859, any number of ryots or other tenants may be sued, or may sue collectively, and it shall be no ground for dismissing or refusing to hear the application that such ryots or other tenants are wrongly joined as plaintiffs or defendants, provided all such ryots or tenants hold land in the same estate;

but no order shall be passed in such case unless the officer making such order is satisfied that all parties have had an opportunity to appear and make objection to any claims preferred against them;

and if at any time it shall appear to the Collector that the question between any two of the parties of whom one is so joined with others cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, the Collector may order a separate trial to be held.

Order to specify how far it applies to each ryot.

17. Every order passed in any such case as is mentioned in the first clause of the last preceding section, shall specify the extent to which each of the ryots or other tenants named in the order shall be affected thereby.

Rate of rent once fixed under Act, to be fixed for five years.

18. Every decree of a Collector under this Act in any suit of the nature of those specified in the first clause of section 23 of Act X of 1859 shall have effect, and the rates of rent determined by such decree shall be payable from the beginning of the year in which such suit was instituted (such year being computed according to the era in force in the aforesaid tract), or from such later date as the Collector may fix; and the rates of rent so determined shall not be liable to abatement or enhancement for five years from the first day of the year in which the decree may have effect as provided in this section, or, in case any part of the tract is comprised within a temporarily-settled estate, until the conclusion of the period of the settlement with Government under which such estate is held, if such period expires before the lapse of five years as aforesaid.

Provided that, during the currency of the term for which the rent has been fixed as aforesaid, any person may bring a suit to enhance the rent of any ryot or tenant whose rent has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the ryot's or tenant's holding has been increased by alluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

And any ryot or tenant may, during the said period, bring a suit for abatement of his rent which has been so fixed, on the ground that the area of the land held by him has been diminished by diluvion or otherwise, and on no other ground.

Collector may refer suit to Civil Court.

19. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, if it shall appear to the Collector that any suit which is pending before him involves any question relating to the title of land or to some interest in land, as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, or any other question which can more properly be decided by a civil court, or, in districts in which Act X of 1859 is in force, by a revenue court under that Act, the Collector may transfer such suit to a civil court or revenue court (according to whether such civil court or such revenue court would have had jurisdiction in the matter if this Act had not been passed); and such court shall thereupon proceed to deal with the suit as if this Act had not been passed, and as if the suit had originally been instituted before such court.

Collector may decide question before transferring suit to civil court.

20. If such suit involves a question of rent or any other question which may properly be settled by the Collector under this Act, as well as a question which may more properly be decided by such civil court or revenue court, the Collector may decide the former question under this Act before transferring the suit to such other court; and such decision shall be subject to the provisions of this Act in respect of appeals, and the civil court or revenue court shall be bound to give the final decision in the suit in accordance with the decision of the Collector or of the appellate authority under this Act on such question, so far as such decision is applicable.

Enforcement of decisions.

21. Every order and decree of a Collector under this Act may be enforced by the same means and in the same manner as if such order or decree were an order or decree to the same effect made under Act X of 1859.

Powers of Collector after withdrawal of Act.

22. Notwithstanding that the Lieutenant-Governor may have issued a notification as provided in section three declaring this Act to be no longer in force in any tract, the Collector shall proceed to decide all suits pending before him on the date of issue of such notification as if no such notification had been issued; and in respect of all such suits and of all other matters and suits which may be pending before the Board, the Commissioner, or the Collector on the date of the issue of such notification, the said Board, Commissioner, and Collector shall, until such matters or suits are finally decided or disposed of, exercise the same powers with respect thereto as if such notification had not been issued.

Suit to contest order or decree under this.

23. No suit to contest any order or judgment of any officer under the provisions of this Act shall be instituted before any court or tribunal otherwise than as provided in this Act.

Control and supervision of Commissioner and Board.

24. In the performance of their duties under this Act, the Deputy Collectors shall be subject to the general control and direction of the Collector, the Collector to the general control and direction of the Commissioner, and all officers to the general control and direction of the Board.

Appeal to and from Collector.

25. An appeal shall lie to the Collector against every order and judgment of a Deputy Collector under this Act, except as hereinafter otherwise provided; but no appeal shall lie against any order or judgment of the Collector under this Act except as hereinafter expressly provided.

No appeal from any decree of Collector for money below Rs. 100, unless the decision involve some question of right to enhance rents or some question relating to a title to land.

26. In suits of the nature of those specified in clauses two, four, and seven of section twenty-three of Act X of 1859, when such suits have been tried and decided by the Collector, if the amount sued for, or the value of the property claimed, does not exceed one hundred rupees, the judgment of the Collector shall be final and not open to revision or appeal, unless in any such suit a question of right to enhance or otherwise vary the rent of a ryot or tenant, or any question relating to a title to land, or to some interest in land as between parties having conflicting claims thereto, has been determined by the judgment, in which case the judgment shall be open to appeal in the manner provided in section twenty-nine.

The provisions of section 154 of Act X of 1859 shall apply to all suits in which the judgment of the Collector is final.

No appeal to lie against judgment declaring arrear due unless arrears have been paid.

27. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, no appeal shall lie against any order declaring arrears of rent to be due and directing that such arrears be paid, unless such appeal shall be accompanied by the certificate of the Collector that the amount of such arrears has been paid to the Collector; and on payment of such amount, the Collector, if required so to do by the person making such payment, shall be bound to grant such certificate, and to hold the amount in deposit until the appeal shall have been disposed of, or until the period for making such appeal shall have expired.

Appeal against judgment of Deputy Collector.

28. When any such suit as is mentioned in section twenty-six in which, if tried and decided by the Collector, the judgment of the Collector would be final, is tried and decided by a Deputy Collector, an appeal from the judgment of the Deputy Collector shall lie to the Collector, and the provisions of sections 157 to 159 (both inclusive) of the said Act X of 1859 shall apply to such appeals.

In what suits appeal to lie to Commissioner and to Board.

29. In all suits other than those in which when tried and decided by a Collector, the judgment of the Collector is final as aforesaid, or when tried and decided by a Deputy Collector, an appeal is allowed to the Collector, an appeal from the judgment of the Collector or Deputy Collector shall lie to the Commissioner, and the decision of the Commissioner shall be final, unless the amount or value in dispute exceed five thousand rupees, in which case an appeal from the Commissioner's decision shall lie to the Board.

Time for presenting appeals from orders.

30. Every appeal against the order of a Deputy Collector shall be presented to the Collector within fifteen days, and every appeal against the order of a Collector shall be presented to the Commissioner, or to the Collector for transmission to the Commissioner, within thirty days of the date of the order appealed against.

Every appeal against the order of a Commissioner shall be presented to the Board, or to the Commissioner for transmission to the Board, within sixty days of the date of the order appealed against.

Orders passed in appeal by a Commissioner or a Collector shall not be open to any further appeal, except as hereinbefore provided: but the Board or the Commissioner may at any time call for any case, and pass such orders thereon as they may think proper.

No. 131.—The following orders, issued by the Government of India, Financial Department, are republished for information :—

No. 1952, dated the 31*st March* 1876.—The Governor-General in Council directs that the following be published in the Gazette of India for general information :—

FINANCIAL.
No. 48.

INDIA OFFICE, LONDON,
10*th February* 1876.

To His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Governor-General of India in Council.

MY LORD,

Paragraph 1. I have considered in Council your Financial letter dated the 29th January 1875, No. 39, on the subject of the Leave Rules of the Uncovenanted Service.

2. You therein state that you have some doubts as to the intentions of the Duke of Argyll, and as to the manner in which effect should be given to His Grace's instructions; that nearly all the offices in the Uncovenanted Service are such as may, under certain circumstances, be "fitly held by Natives," and that consequently, if you were to adopt a principle of selection, which would be most in accordance with the instructions received by you, the logical conclusion would be that no members of the Service should be admitted to the favourable rules.

3. You consider that the rigid adoption of the principle that the present holders of offices to which natives could fitly be appointed, should not be admitted to the benefits of the favorable rules, would cause not unreasonable dissatisfaction, and you are of opinion that some limit of a more or less arbitrary nature as to the position of those to whom those rules should be extended will have to be laid down.

4. You therefore forward nominal lists, which you state to be complete, of all those officers of the Uncovenanted Service who come within the category set forth in Schedule A of the Civil Leave Code, and request me to determine the principle on which admission to the favorable Leave Rules shall be regulated.

5 With your Financial letter dated the 30th September 1875, No. 340, you forwarded, in continuation of the list already referred to, a list of officers of the Accounts Branch of the Public Works Department whom you proposed to admit to the more favorable rules.

6. The instruction conveyed to your Government in the Financial despatches dated the 10th March 1870 and the 6th December 1871, appear to me to leave no doubt as to the intentions of the Duke of Argyll on this subject.

7. In the former despatch the Duke of Argyll assented to the favorable rules "proposed for holders of offices now held by English gentlemen," with certain modifications, and desired "that they be declared applicable from this date only to officers of the Education Department appointed from England, and to such others of those now actually in the service as you may think fit to include in a nominal list for that purpose, to be submitted for my approval." His Grace also stated that the second set of rules proposed "for all other classes of the Uncovenanted Service would, for the present, apply to all Uncovenanted Servants not entitled to the benefits of the first set of Rules, and hereafter to all Uncovenanted Servants who may not have been appointed from England."

8. In paragraph 7 of the latter despatch, the Duke of Argyll extended the benefits of the first set of Rules to "those Uncovenanted Servants appointed in England to offices for which they had special qualifications," and "to those Europeans who for special reasons may have been, or, with my sanction, may be hereafter appointed in India to certain exceptional posts," and His Grace added "but, in order to confine these privileges within reasonable limits, I must again request that you will furnish me with a nominal list of the officers who appear to you to come within the description referred to in my Financial despatch dated the 10th March 1870, No. 84."

9. The Duke of Argyll concluded*—"The principle which Her Majesty's Government have steadily kept in view throughout the discussion on these Furlough Rules is, that the Uncovenanted Service should be principally reserved for the Natives of the country, and that superior appointments, which require English training and experience should be made, as heretofore, from England, and they look with great disfavour on the system, which appears to be growing up in India, of appointing Englishmen in India to situations that ought only, as a rule, to be filled by civilians who have gained their position by open competition. I trust that the views I have now expressed will put a stop to the above practice."

* Financial Despatch, 10th March 1870.

10. In the views expressed by the Duke of Argyll in those Despatches I concur.

11. In respect, therefore, to the future, I request that it may clearly be understood, that the less favorable Leave Rules will be applicable to all Uncovenanted Servants appointed after the year 1871, unless—

(1) They have been appointed in England.

(2) They have been appointed in India with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

It remains to specify in detail the reasonable concessions which, in accordance with the intimation made by the Duke of Argyll, I am willing to grant to certain of your Uncovenanted Servants who now hold, and, at the date of His Grace's Despatch, held appointments in the Uncovenanted Service. It is to be understood that the instructions contained in the remainder of this despatch apply only to them.

12. I have not within my reach the information necessary to enable me to select individual officers according to their merit or according to the peculiar circumstances of their appointment. In the absence of any such principle of choice, it will be expedient to shape the proposed concessions in such a manner as to harmonise with the policy which has been laid down for the future. Without going so far as to assent to your Excellency's opinion that "if the whole of the classes enumerated in Schedule A are admitted to the new rules, the concession must be extended to the future." I am quite sensible of the difficulty which would attend any attempt to enforce, in respect to the future, a system contrasting violently with that which shall be adopted in respect to present incumbents. It will be, on this ground, expedient to apply a different mode of treatment to the present incumbents of those offices which will in future, so far as they are continued, certainly be filled up as a rule from England, and those which may possibly continue to be filled in India. The Uncovenanted Service of the Public Works Department,—except so far as it is recruited from students educated at the Indian Civil Engineering Colleges which were specially designed for the natives of the country,—will ordinarily in the future be supplied from Cooper's Hill. The forest service will, in like manner, and with possibly an analogous exception, consist of candidates prepared in Europe under the system established by Dr. Brandis. The limited opportunity which exists in India for obtaining men of scientific training furnishes an obvious reason for confining, as a general rule, to persons selected in England the higher grades of the Telegraph and Geological Survey Departments. It has already been determined that the higher Educational Officers shall be selected here. On the other hand, the officers on the present establishment at Mysore only exist for a temporary purpose. A similar consideration applies to the arrangement under which the small number of Uncovenanted Marine and Medical Officers are at present appointed. To all these officers, as occupying posts which, so far as they are filled up by Englishmen at all, will in the future be ordinarily filled up in England, I see no difficulty in extending without restriction the concessions contemplated by the Duke of Argyll.

13. The following officers therefore named in the enclosure to your despatch of 29th January 1875 may be immediately admitted to the more favorable Leave Rules:—

The 274 officers under the Government of India, included in section D.

The 30 officers under the Government of India, included in sub-sections 4 and 6 of section E.

The 20 officers under the Government of Madras, included in sub-section 2 of section B.

The 19 officers under the Government of Bombay, included in sub-section 2 of section C, and four Forest officers in sub-section 1 of the same section.

The 10 officers employed in Mysore, included in section I.

The Educational officers, the officers of the Marine Department who have served in the Indian Navy or Bengal Marine, and the Medical officers named in the lists transmitted by you.

The three Medical officers of the Persian Telegraph Service, as recommended in your Financial letter dated the 26th February 1875, No. 79.

A nominal list of all the above officers is annexed to this despatch.

14. Of the remaining officers named in your lists, the greater part are filling posts which do not require preliminary technical education, and which, in future, if not held by Natives will be occupied partly by Covenanted Civil Servants, or by Uncovenanted Servants specially selected, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, according to the principles adverted to in paragraph 11 of this despatch. Adopting, therefore, with regard to this class of officers, your suggestion that, as respects existing incumbents, an arbitrary limit must be to some extent applied to them, I sanction the extension of the more favorable rules to such of the above-mentioned officers named in your lists as are now in the receipt of salaries of not less than Rs. 6,000 per annum, and I request that a list of the persons to whom this will apply may be forwarded for record in this office.

15. I observe that your lists do not include any of the officers employed in the higher appointments of the Andamans. You may, perhaps, desire to correct the omission, and possibly other similar omissions; if so, I will gladly consider any recommendations you may make.

I have the honor to be,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obdt., humble Servant,

SALISBURY.

DISTRICT ROAD FUND.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 135.

The 17th April 1876.

UNDER Section 89 of Act X of 1871, the following annual accounts and reports of the District Road Committees of Cuttack, Pooree, and Balasore, of works done and in progress during the past cess year 1874-75, together with the remarks thereon of the Commissioner of the Orissa division, are published for general information.

J. E. T. NICOLLS, Colonel, R.E.,
Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal, P. W. D.

No. 301, dated Cuttack, the 30th October 1875.

From— J. BEAMES, Esq., Collector of Cuttack.

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the annual report of the road cess operations for the year ending on 30th September 1875.

2. The total income for the year was Rs. 60,661, and the expenditure Rs. 51,821; leaving a balance of Rs. 8,840-6-5 to be carried to the credit of the fund for the following year.

3. Original works.—The remodelling of the first fifteen miles of the Chandballi road has been completed at a total cost of Rs. 9,212, or Rs. 614 per mile. Out of this amount Rs. 6,135-14-11 were expended during the year under report, the rest having been spent in the previous year. The Executive Engineer considers that this work is a great improvement, and recommends its being carried out over the next 30 miles; but as to do this would cost Rs. 30,000, it is not probable that the Committee will be able to supply the necessary funds. The work consists of uniformly raising the road to a proper section, laying down metalled tracks to prevent the sandy soil, of which the road is made, from being worn into ruts by the heavy cart traffic, putting in culverts in the place of causeways, and building masonry bridges in lieu of the present wooden ones. The road runs through a country intersected by numerous drainage channels and the distributaries and branch distributaries of the Kendrapara canal, and is a very difficult and costly work. It has already been urged that this road should be made a provincial one, as the cost of maintaining it is too heavy for the resources of the Road Cess Fund to bear.

4. The Gobri bridge on this road, with masonry piers, timber and iron girder superstructure, is now finished. It is apparently a strong and useful work, though it cannot be said to be ornamental.

5. The road from Bingharpore to Indpore, completing the through line of communication between the two sub-divisional towns of Jajpore and Kendrapara has been finished as far as the earthwork is concerned; but several bridges and culverts will be required next year, as the country traversed is low and liable to be flooded.

6. A road has also been constructed from Kendrapara to the canal at Marsaghai to open up communication with False Point. It is expected that this road will be largely used for local traffic, even after the extension of the canal to Jamboo. The line selected appears not to have been the best available, but as the shortest, was preferred from considerations of economy. It will require further development this year.

7. Another important work is the road from Salepore to Mahanga. This is 8¾ miles long and acts as a feeder to the Chandballi road, opening up a very fertile and populous tract of country; it will be feasible in future years to continue this road to Jajpore, and it will then be the shortest way from that place to Cuttack. Three-quarters of the earthwork and turfing have been done, and the whole would have been finished, but for the excessive rain, which stopped the work.

8. The Singpore road was marked out, but no work could be done on it owing to want of establishment. This is intended to be prolonged eventually to Aul, and this additional work will complete the line of communication between Jajpore and Aul, which is much needed.

9. The shoal at the mouth of the Chota Brahmini at Patamoondy has again been deepened by the Executive Engineer, Brahmini Division, from funds supplied by the Road Cess Department. This important but inexpensive work will require to be done every year, as the floods cause it to silt up. Only Rs. 454-7-1 has been spent on it, and this small sum yearly will keep open the river, on which there is important boat traffic.

10. Under the head of village roads, several small works have been carried out through the agency of zemindars, both cheaply and effectively.

11. The public garden at Chowllagunge, a suburb of Cuttack, has been very successful Supplies of seeds are regularly received from the Superintendent, Botanical Gardens, Howrah, and germinate freely. I have also commenced what I hope will be a very useful feature in this garden in future years, by sending men into the hills of the Gurjats to bring seedlings of the many valuable and ornamental trees in which those forests are rich. One great obstacle to the establishment of a flourishing timber trade in Orissa is the difficulty merchants and others experience in getting at the trees. It occurred to me that if living specimens of the most valuable kinds could be collected in some central place where they could be easily inspected, their value would by degrees become known. I have therefore made a large plantation of these trees, and the gardener in charge is prepared to give information to visitors concerning them.

12. During this, which is only the second year of its existence, the garden has already begun to be profitable. One thousand nine hundred and sixteen trees have been sold to the Irrigation Department and others, realizing the price of Rs. 246-5; 287 trees have been sent to Jajpore for planting on the roads in that sub-division, 100 to False Point, and 48 to the Court of Wards' cutcherry compound at Kanika. At the request of the Civil Surgeon 42 trees were supplied for the General Hospital compound, and to the Reverend Chaplain 58 for the church compound.

13. In order also to stimulate the people of the district to some interest in the matter 64 trees have been distributed gratis to native gentlemen in the town and district. In addition to this, four miles of the Taldanda road have been planted on both sides with trees, in addition to the two miles planted last year, making a total of six miles, and about sixteen hundred trees.

14. The total number of healthy young trees averaging six feet in height turned out by the garden during the year has been a little over 4,000, and the number still growing and ready to be planted out is not much under 6,000. I trust these results will be considered satisfactory, especially when it is remembered how short a time the garden has been under cultivation, and that the soil was originally a barren waste of sand hills and thorns.

15. Repairs.—These consist of the usual annual earthwork, metalling, and turfing. Due attention has been paid to every road in the district, and they are all now in fair order.

16. The newly appointed District Engineer, Mr. J. St. Clair Glasson, took charge on the 15th May 1875, and has already effected many improvements. Mr. Glasson's energy and careful supervision have given the Committee much satisfaction, and there is every reason to hope that the road work of the district will be efficiently conducted under his charge.

17. Of the overseers, Dadar Bux has done well; Mr. D'Souza does not seem to have been so careful as he might have been, but the District Engineer has not yet had time to inspect his work thoroughly.

18. The head clerk, Baboo Gunnesh Prasad Singh, is an intelligent young man, and has performed his duties with great accuracy and diligence. The rest of the establishment has also worked well.

19 I submit herewith the returns in the prescribed form, with the necessary explanations as to sanction of transfers from one head of account to another, and other points requiring elucidation.

Explanatory Notes.

A.—The figures given in this column have been taken from the revised estimate passed by the Road Cess Committee on the 19th April 1875, and approved by the Commissioner in his letter No. 59RC., dated 5th June 1875.

B.—Rs. 1,000 were first sanctioned as per budget estimate, and afterwards Rs. 344-7-8 were transferred from village roads in thana Salepur—(vide Commissioner's letter No. 70RC., dated 14th June 1875).

C.—Rs. 2,921-3-5 were first sanctioned in the budget for this work, and being insufficient, the sum of Rs. 412 was added to this amount, as reported in this office No. 244, dated 15th September last, and sanctioned by the Commissioner in his letter No. 208RC., dated 19th idem, from the head of "Reserve."

D.—Rs. 2,400 were alloted in the budget for this purpose, from which Rs. 344-7-8 were transferred to Mahanga road, as per Commissioner's letter No. 70RC., dated 14th June 1875, as stated in note B.

E.—Rs. 1,300 were first sanctioned in the budget, and Rs 50 were received by transfer on application of Covenanted Deputy Collector of Jajpore from the head of Baruan, to Indpore road—(vide Commissioner's letter No. 175RC., dated 23rd August 1875).

F.—Rs. 650 were allotted for this road in the budget; Rs. 50 were transferred to Syadpore road—(vide Commissioner's letter quoted above).

G.—An allotment of Rs. 4,129-3-3 was provided for in the budget under this head Rs. 200 were transferred to the head of Tools, and Rs. 412 to that of the Gobri Nullah bridge on the Chandballi road—(vide Commissioner's letters No. 70 and 208RC., dated the 14th June and 19th September 1875, respectively).

H.—There was nothing allotted in the budget under this head; Rs. 200 were sanctioned by the Commissioner in his letter No. 70RC., dated 14th June 1875, from the head of "Reserve."

I.—The receipts on this head have exceeded the amount estimated in the budget, as the realizations of refunds, &c., came to more than was estimated.

J.—Nothing was spent on this road during the year; demarcation completed, but too late to allow of any work being done before the rains.

K.—Rs. 800 were allotted in the budget for this road including Gopia Nullah bridge, which is to be built on it. Rs. 100 only were spent in repairing the road, as the work of the bridge was not begun till the commencement of the rainy season. The whole amount sanctioned under this head could not be spent before the close of the year under review. However, the bridge will be finished this year.

L.—The excess (Rs. 10) being paid during the year on account of last year's salary, not drawn during that year.

M.—This expenditure, incurred by the District Engineer and his establishment, which was newly organized under Government Circular No. 1209, dated 8th March 1875, from May last.

Note.—Certain original works were erroneously charged in the quarterly returns under the head of Repairs. This has been rectified in the annual accounts.

The 30th October 1875.

JOHN BEAMES,
Chairman.

No. 358, dated Pooree, the 4th December 1875.

From—BABOO NOBIN KRISHNA SIRCAR, Vice-Chairman, Road Cess Committee, Pooree.

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

WITH reference to your No. 301RC., dated 29th ultimo, I have the honor to state that under the following circumstances the expenditure under heads "Original Works" and "Repair" has been sanctioned and paid by the Committee.

Remodelling Piplee and Khoorda Road.—Under this head Rs. 3,000 was only sanctioned during the year 1874-1875; Rs. 9,854 was estimated and sanctioned for the work during 1872-73, of which Rs. 6,547-7-5 were spent up to the end of 1873-74. and the balance of the estimate amounted to Rs. 3,306-8-7 on the commencement of the year 1874-75, but Rs. 3,000 was only assigned for expenditure on this road in the budget grant of 1874-75, as recommended by the Executive Engineer. The sum of Rs. 1,452-10-11 was on his hands on account of this road on the 30th September 1874, being the balance of advances made in 1873-74, and the difference of Rs. 1,547-5-1 paid to make up the assignment for 1874-75, leaving a balance of Rs. 306-8-7, as per estimate of 1873-74. This sum was afterwards paid from Reserve Fund under orders contained in your letter No. 157 of 6th March 1875; but still the expenditure amounted to Rs. 474-5-10 in excess of the estimate for 1874-75, as explained in the office letter No. 357 of to-day's date. This makes up Rs. 3,780-14-5 expended on the road during 1874-75.

2. The sum of Rs. 1,533 has been expended by the Committee for the construction of a road from Balianta to Sardeipore vid Bhoobanessur, not originally estimated for under your letter No. 92 of 3rd December 1874.

3. The sum of Rs 331 was only allotted for the annual repair of the road from Khoorda to Piplee, but the expenditure having amounted to Rs. 1,479 on account of sudden damage done to the road by the floods, the repair was sanctioned, and Rs. 1,148 in excess of the estimate was paid under your letter No. 94 of 7th December, but still the amount could not cover the charges required for the repair of the whole road, hence there has been an increase of expenditure of Rs. 147-6-10, under order of Committee on the report of the Executive Engineer, beyond your sanction, which is now solicited.

4. The following works have been made without your sanction during the year 1874-75 :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Satzabadi bridge	332	10	0
Balugaon and Banpore road	212	12	2
Construction of a ferry boat at Khama Ghât ...	293	0	0
Repair of road from Khoorda to Kantillo	5	7	7
Repair to ferry boat at Konti	64	9	9

5. These works were undertaken under authority only of the Committee, on the recommendation of the Chairman. As the sums have already been expended, I now solicit your sanction of the works for squaring accounts.

6. The inexpediency of incurring expenditure before sanction by the proper authority was sufficiently noticed in the Committee's proceedings of the 14th September 1875, and I trust a repetition of such things will not be made in future.

No. 323, dated Camp Piplee, the 17th November 1875.

From—J. F. STEVENS, ESQ., Officiating Collector,

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honor to submit the local improvement report for the cess year ending on 30th September 1875.

2. The following gentlemen were members of the Committee during the year under review, and the subjoined table shows the number of meetings attended by each :—

It will be observed that most of the members have attended several meetings. Khetribar Bhagwan Ratsingh and the Rajah of Parikood each attended only one meeting; but their residences are at a considerable distance from Pooree. The same is the case with the Revd. T. Bailey. The object of appointing residents of distant parts of the district was that every part might be represented as far as possible, and that the inhabitants of the whole of the district might feel that they had an interest in the disbursement of the road cess as well as in the payment of it. That this object has been fairly attained is shown by the numerous petitions that are received from villages from all parts of the district, begging for village roads, bridges, &c. The period of two years for which the Committee was nominated in 1872 expired last year. The appointment of certain new members, and the re-appointment of some of the old members for the next two years, were published in the Calcutta Gazette dated the 18th August 1875, at page 1055.

The aggregate receipts of the year under the several heads amounted to Rs. 26,101-14-8, viz. :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Cash in hand on 1st October 1874	14.207	4	4
Advance outstanding on 1st October 1874	2,116	14	8
Cess on land	9,731	3	4
Cess on houses	26	0	0
Refund by the Executive Engineer	20	8	4
Total ...	26,101	14	8

4. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 14,583-11-2 at the end of the year. The details of the expenditure are given below :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Office establishment	1,459	10	9
Contingencies	647	1	5
Original works	6,152	4	7
Survey	211	5	1
Repair to ferries	64	9	9
Village roads	495	11	7

5. The original works carried out during the year under report are detailed below. The work done under this head has chiefly been confined to carrying on and completing what was begun in previous years, viz. :—

I.—Remodelling and bridging the road from Khoorda to Piplee, 14 miles; expenditure during the year Rs. 3,780-14-5.

II.—Constructing a road from Balugaon on the Chilka to Banpore; cost Rs. 212-12-2.

III.—Remodelling and repairing the old Satyabadi stone bridge; expenditure during the year Rs. 332-10.

IV.—Constructing a ferry boat for the Dhamra river on the Baliaghai and Madhab road at a cost of Rs. 293.

The first road is one of the most important in the district. It was originally constructed from the District Road Fund. In consideration of its importance it was subsequently made over to the Public Works Department, and was roughly constructed and partially bridged by that department. When the road cess came into operation it was taken up as one of the local roads. In 1872-73 Rs. 9,854 was sanctioned for remodelling the road, and the work was recommenced. Up to the end of last year the work was carried out in general accordance with the estimate and drawings passed by the Committee and the Commissioner, but the flood of 1874 necessitated additional water-way to the extent of 28 lineal feet. This raised the expenditure to Rs. 10,423-15-7, or Rs. 569-15-7 in excess of the estimate.

7. The II. road is one that is purely of local advantage. It branches off the Ganjam Trunk Road in the 70th mile from Cuttack, and runs westward to the large and important village of Banpore. Rs. 2,846 was estimated for this road, and the work commenced in June 1873. It has been completed at a cost of Rs. 2,845.

8. The immediate benefit of this work is at present limited to the pilgrims that visit the temple at Satyabadi, situated about a mile off the Juggernath road It is hoped, however, to remodel the old road from Satyabadi to Khoorda hereafter. This includes Rs. 500 subscribed by a native official, Baboo Harekristo Das.

9. The IV. work, though small in cost, is an extremely useful one, as the river on which the boat plies is never fordable.

REPAIRS.

10. The following roads, bungalows, and ferry boats have been completely repaired during the year under review. The amount incurred in repairing each of them is set forth against each item.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Baghmaree and Bolgurh road	1,111	1	3

Ferry boat at Konti	64	9	9
Total ...	5,617	9	9

11. Some lines of country have been surveyed, with the view of ascertaining the best route to be adopted when it may be required to frame estimates for new roads with funds which may hereafter be available. The details of the surveys are as follows :—

Surveying roads Piplee vid Nimaparah to Kakutpore; Harekristopore vid Bijpore to Astorang; Balianta vid Bhubanessur to Sardeipore; Pooree vid Balighai and Gope to Madhab—Rs. 211-5-1.

12. The cost incurred in repairing the village roads of the district has been Rs. 495-11-7. The details of the village roads are given below :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Mugai	1	14	6
Birkesaripore	58	12	0
Trilochanpore	6	12	0

Kadua Samil Sunakhalla	28	4	2
Bhadlo	32	7	7
Tynlo	39	12	2
Total ...	495	11	7

Besides this, Rs. 115 has been paid to the Deputy Collector of Khoorda for the repair of Alihidihi village road. The work has not been completed, and the amount is therefore shown in the annual account under "Advance." The Deputy Collector of Khoorda, who has been entrusted with the work, reports as follows :—

"I have lately visited this road, and am satisfied with the amount of work done for the money expended. The heavy rains had cut up the work a great deal, and I have advanced a further sum of Rs. 10 to the master of the Alihidihi school, who lives at one end of the road, and who has engaged to repair damages and the road for that sum. There is a small nullah which crosses the new road close to the Alihidihi village, and I found a few cart-loads of stone and gravel collected for making a small causeway at the crossing, and I have advanced Rs. 7 to the Simakaran of Panchpalli, who has engaged to complete the causeway at a further cost of Rs. 7. Rs. 82-12-3 was shown as the sum before expended, and I have now advanced Rs. 17 more; making in all Rs. 99-12-3, and leaving a balance still in hand of Rs. 15-3-9. I think that the whole of this sum will be required before the road is well finished.

(Sd.) J. E. STEVENS,
Offg. Collector.

No. 301, dated Balasore, the 22nd November 1875.

From—T. NORMAN, Esq., Acting Collector, and Chairman, Balasore Road Cess Committee,

To—The Commissioner of the Orissa Division.

I HAVE the honor, on behalf of the Road Cess Committee of this district, to submit the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the District Road Fund during the year 1874-75, as required by section 89 of the District Road Cess Act of 1871.

2 In compliance with the requirements of section 88 of the Act, the accounts were examined by the Vice-Chairman and a Sub-Committee appointed in its behalf by the Committee, and were submitted to, and passed by, a general meeting of the Committee held on the 15th instant.

3. Section 89 of the Act prescribes the submission of "a report of the work done and in progress," but contains no specification of the nature and scope of the report required. Avoiding any very minute or lengthy discussion on the details of district works, which seems unnecessary, I shall submit a brief general note on each work undertaken

4. The roads of this district, exclusive of the Trunk Road, which is not under the Committee's supervision, and of village roads, are twenty-five in number, with a mileage of 149 miles and 1,470 feet. For the maintenance of these roads the total allotment, as per the sanctioned estimates, was Rs. 6,300, and this sum, together with Rs. 400 for village roads, Rs. 500 for ferry boats, and Rs 156 for contingencies, was the entire sum originally allotted for district works of every description. With only Rs. 42 per mile available for the maintenance of established roads, seven of which are metalled, the Committee did not consider itself justified in attempting any original works, and accordingly allotted the entire sum at its disposal to maintenance and repairs. At the end of January, however, the Committee received from Government a subsidy of Rs. 5,000, sanctioned in Government Notification No 469, dated the 29th December 1874, which enabled it to build several bridges and culverts that were urgently required.

5. No. 1, Port Road.—A great portion of this important road was remetalled. The customs landing place was levelled and metalled. A masonry drain was constructed to intercept the drainage from above, which formerly caused much mischief. The river bank has been protected with piles driven six to eight feet into the bottom, and with planking behind them, so as to afford accommodation for both the forward and after gangways of a steamer. The receipt of the iron floating jetty, which has been so long detained in Calcutta, is awaited. The only thing the port road now wants is greater width, but the houses on both sides render any improvement in this respect very costly.

6. No 2, Balasore to Mitrapore Road.—Trees were planted and efficiently fenced; wooden bridges were repaired; casual repairs to metalling were carried out where necessary. In the previous season four new miles of metalling had been laid down and the road very much improved throughout.

7. No. 3, Balasore to Bulramgurhi Road.—Repairs to metalling were carried out where required; the unmetalled portion was smoothed and rendered passable after the usual damage done by the floods.

8. No. 4, Soroh to Charukmaree Road.—The portion between Soroh and Uttareshuar was remetalled; the remainder of the road has been given up as unnecessary.

9. No. 6, Distillery Road—The large bridge had its wooden superstructure entirely renewed. About two-thirds of the road were remetalled.

10. No. 8, Busta to Bariapal Road.—Three masonry causeways were constructed and some earthwork done. After the expenditure had exceeded Rs. 300, I stopped the work, fearing that to continue to spend small sums of money on this road, which had been constructed without any regard to scientific principles, would be merely to continue the waste of funds upon it which has already taken place so often. Part of the remaining allotment was transferred, and part was utilized in the purchase of timber. It is gratifying to be able to state that I have this year received from an independent source the sum of Rs. 18,000, which I have appropriated for the thorough reconstruction of this road,—a work which Mr. Vertannes, the Executive Engineer, Balasore Survey Division, has kindly taken charge of. A survey has already been completed, and brick-making will commence almost immediately.

11. No. 10, Berhampore to Gurpada Road.—The work on this short line consisted merely of surface dressing.

12. No. 11, Balasore to Basadebpore Road.—A mile and a half was metalled, and the timber bridges were repaired. In a few places the road was raised.

13. No. 12, Soroh to Anantpur Road—This road, which was entirely reconstructed during the previous year, got its annual surface repairs A culvert was built, and trees were planted and protected.

14. No. 13, Soroh to Kuparee Road.—The timber bridges were repaired, and the road was smoothened and rendered passable by vehicles.

15. No 14, Raneetalao to Kuparee Road.—Rs. 200 were expended in smoothening the road and rendering it passable.

16. No. 15, Agarpara to Bhudruck Road—Rs. 300 were spent in smoothening this road, which is fourteen miles long.

17. No 16, Bhudruck Station Roads—Rs. 500 were expended in metalling the road from the salt golas to the ghât; the remaining Rs. 400 were expended in filling in and smoothening the roads, and in mending the timber bridges.

18. No. 17, Barackpur to Dhamnuggur Road—Nothing more than smoothening and filling up breaches could be done with the funds (Rs 300) allotted. A bridge is very badly wanted, and will be constructed when funds are available

19. No. 18, Bhudruck to Chandbali Road.—This road is 32 miles in length, one-half of which has been raised, though narrow and ill-constructed; the other half is simply a track. This road being an essential towards the opening out and advancement of the province, Government has several times been urged to re-align and construct a provincial road from the Trunk Road to Chandbally, but funds have not yet been made available. During the year under report a larger sum (Rs. 1,750) was given to this road than to any other, and what could be effected with that sum in earthworks and repairs to bridges was done; but the road continues very bad, and is in fact frequently totally impassable. Road cess funds are inadequate for its construction

20. No. 19, Barang to Busdebpur Road.—The large timber bridge was reconstructed, the superstructure being renewed, and the piers, abutments, and flooring repaired. The usual annual surface repairs were carried out.

21. No. 20, Turkia to Kamarda Road.—A large bridge was built over the deep and unfordable Nassa tidal khal, which was diverted so as to allow of the bridge being constructed in a favorable situation. Some earthwork was also done.

22. No. 21, Baliapal to Kamarda Road.—Another bridge was built over the same khal. These two bridges, which may be considered sister works, were the principal original undertakings of the year. They were built with wooden superstructure over masonry piers and abutments, laid on very solid and deep foundations to resist the force of the tide and floods. Before they were completed, they were exposed to a very high flood spill from the Sooburnarekha, which, however, did them no damage. These bridges have rendered available for traffic the two newly constructed roads on which they have been built.

23. No. 22, Singla to Nanglashwar Road—This is a mere track. A few rupees were spent in smoothening it, and timber was bought with the remainder of the allotment of Rs. 100.

24. No. 23, Kuparee to Agarpara Road.—Smoothened and levelled.

25. No. 24, Sawaranjee to Koupur Road—The same.

26. No. 25, Banaga to Talpada Road—This road was improved; holes were filled up, and breaches repaired.

27. Besides repairs to existing ferry boats, five new ones were built. A good flat-bottomed ferry boat was built for the Suburnarekha ferry at Kalikapore. Another, on the same pattern, was built at the side of the Trunk Road close to the Kansha bridges, and floated down stream into the Gumai river in October. It could not have been otherwise supplied, as it would have been impossible to cart it; the weather during the south-west monsoon would not have permitted its being conveyed by sea from Balasore, and the mouth of the Gomai is closed during the north-east monsoons. For the Guchida, north Baliapal, and south Baliapal ferries, new jolly-boats were built and carefully spelttered, so as to resist the teredos, which infest the Balasore ports and tidal rivers

28. On the whole, limited as our funds have been, the district communications have been kept in fair order, except the Busta and Baliapal road and the Bhuddruck and Chandbally roads. Of these two, the former will be reconstructed during the present season, and its reconstruction will not only confer a vast boon upon the traffic of the entire north-eastern portion of the district, but is absolutely essential for administrative purposes The latter can only be adequately dealt with as a provincial work, and I trust you will see fit to support my frequent recommendations to that effect.

29. This district has had no Resident Engineer since the beginning of 1874, when the late Mr. McCleery was transferred on account of famine exigencies. Our working staff consists of two overseers at head-quarters, and a sub-overseer at the sub-division. So far, however, as road cess works are concerned, I find this establishment sufficient; nor is there any probability of road cess funds, even when the rate is doubled, as I hope will be the case next year, being adequate for the entertainment of an Executive Engineer.

30. I have already explained that the effect of the recently sanctioned alterations in the dates fixed for the payment of the cess in Orissa will be the reduction by one-half of the assets of the fund during the current year, and that the expenditure will be very largely increased by the debit against the fund of the cost of the land newly acquired by Government at Chandbally, in accordance with the orders of Government,—a charge which was wholly unexpected and unprovided for in the sanctioned estimates;—so that, without assistance, the payment of our establishment and the execution of the very moderate works of maintenance and repairs which have been sanctioned for the present year must involve the fund in a serious deficit. I have applied for the grant of a sum just sufficient to cover that deficit, and I await the orders of Government upon my application. Meanwhile the current year's sanctioned estimates are being carried out.

31. Suspicions of dishonesty having arisen against the late head clerk, Shama Churn Sircar, a searching investigation was held into the road cess accounts since the date of the introduction of the Act into this district. It was found that Shama Churn Sircar had embezzled eight separate sums, aggregating Rs. 793-10, and consisting partly of contingent charges on account of local printing work, and partly of allotments for village roads, which he had been ordered to draw and to remit to certain persons in the interior. Proper measures were at once taken to bring the offender to justice. He was sentenced to five years' rigorous imprisonment by the sessions court on the 18th June 1875.

32. The number of general meetings of the Committee during the year was thirteen. The attendance of the members was as follows:—

33. In addition to the general meetings of the Committee, a standing Sub-Committee for the audit of accounts sit regularly on a fixed day, once a week, under the Vice-Chairman.

34. In conclusion, it is satisfactory to be able to state my opinion that the Road Cess Act is on the whole not unpopular. This is much to say of a new measure of taxation. The project of raising by local assessment funds for the maintenance of local communications is one of those simple and intelligible arrangements which commended themselves at once to the plain practical sense of the people. Every one understands the object of the tax, and the advantages to be gained by a judicious expenditure of its proceeds. A considerable amount of real lively personal interest in the subject has been awakened in persons who reside close to, or have business connections with, undertakings which have been successfully taken in hand. A great step has thus been gained, both towards the introduction of self-government, and towards the attainment of important material advantages. Experience shows that public spirit, and a disposition to interest themselves in affairs relating to the general welfare, are making a gradual and steady advance among the native gentlemen of this district; and I have frequently occasion to regret that some of those whose services on the Committee might be most useful reside too far off to permit of their attendance. There is one point in which an alteration in the Act would undoubtedly render it much more acceptable—for the present somewhat intricate and troublesome method of calculating the cess, a readier and simpler method should be substituted.

No. 320½RC, dated Camp Dhenkanalgurh, the 12th January 1876.

From—T. E. RAVENSHAW, Esq., Commissioner of the Orissa Division,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Public Works Department.

WITH reference to Government Circular No. 51 of 8th August 1874, and section 89 of the Road Cess Act, I have the honor to submit in original, for publication in the Calcutta Gazette, the annual reports and accounts of the District Road Fund of the several districts of this division for the cess year 1874-75, and to observe as follows.

2. The total receipts during the year in Cuttack, Pooree, and Balasore districts, including balance outstanding on 30th September 1874, and the grant-in-aid from provincial fund, amounted to Rs. 1,08,912-7-7 (vide divisional statement annexed); the total expenditure on original works, repairs, and establishment, &c., was Rs. 87,865-7-10, leaving a balance of Rs. 21,046-15-9 unexpended at close of the year.

3. The total receipts, expenditure, and balance of each district were as follows:—

1874-75.	Cuttack district.	Pooree district.	Balasore district.
	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.	Rs. A. P.
Total receipts	60,661 6 5	26,321 1 5	21,929 15 9
Total expenditure ...	51,821 0 0	14,802 13 11	21,241 9 11
Balance at the close of the cess year 1874-75 on 30th September 1875	8,840 6 5	11,518 3 6	688 5 10

The balance unexpended in Pooree is large, because the Road Cess Committee had no proper and efficient working establishment. In future such large balances will not recur.

4. In Cuttack district the undermentioned original works were carried out:—

(1) Remodelling the first fifteen miles of the Chandbally road.
(2) A bridge on this road over Gobri Nullah with masonry piers, timbers, and iron girder superstructure.
(3) A road from Bhingharpore to Indpore, completing the line of communication between the two sub-divisional towns of Jajipore and Kendrapara.
(4) A road from Kendrapara to Marsaghye, opening up communication with False Point.
(5) A road from Salepore to Mahanga, acting as a feeder to the Chandbally road, and opening up a fertile and populous tract of country.
(6) Several small village roads, constructed with assistance of zemindars.
(7) Deepening shoal at mouth of Chota Bramhini river to keep open the rivers on which there is important boat traffic.
(8) A nursery or public garden at Chowleagunge.

5. The Chandbally road is most important both for traffic and passengers, and ought to be completed and kept in thorough repair. It runs through a country intersected by numerous drainage channels and canal distributaries. The Executive Engineer estimates completion of this road over the remaining 30 miles at a cost of Rs. 30,000, a sum beyond the power of the Road Cess Committee to set apart for it. The Committee are of opinion that this road should be made a provincial one. A proposition to this effect has been already disallowed by Government, and I fear it is not likely to be reconsidered.

6. The Collector gives the following account of Chowleagunge nursery:—

"During this, which is only the second year of its existence, the garden has already begun to be profitable. 1,916 trees have been sold to the Irrigation Department and others, realising the price of Rs. 246-5; 287 trees have been sent to Jajipore for planting on the roads in that sub-division, 100 to False Point, and 48 to Court of Wards' cutcherry compound at Kumika; 42 trees supplied for the General Hospital, and 58 for the Cuttack church compound; and about 1,600 trees have been planted on to the sides of six miles of the Taldunga road. These results are satisfactory as far as they go; but the difficulty in rearing trees when planted in Orissa is immense, as they are exposed to persistent depredations of cattle."

7. Repairs.—Necessary repairs were executed to every road in the district, and all roads are reported in fair order.

8. The Committee have worked fairly well during the year. I think their meetings might have been more frequent. The District Engineer, who is well spoken of in the Committee's report, has, I am sorry to say, fallen into evil ways since the close of the period under report, and his case has been submitted for orders of Government.

9. The works proposed to be done during 1875-76 by the Committee are detailed in the budget estimate for 1875-76, submitted with this office No. 225RC, dated 25th September 1875.

10. Pooree District.—Original Works.—The work done under this head has been confined to carrying on and completing what was begun in the previous year, viz.—

1st.—Remodelling and bridging the road from Khoorda to Piplee.
2nd.—Constructing a road from Balugaon on the Chilka to Banpore.
3rd.—Remodelling and repairing old stone bridge at Satyabadi.
4th.—Constructing a ferry boat for the Dhamra river on the Ballighori and Madhub road.

11. Road No. 1 is an important line. It is 14 miles in length, and connects the town of Pooree and Khoorda sub-divisional station. From paragraph 6 of the Committee's annual report it appears that the remodelling of this road has cost Rs. 10,423-15-7. The Collector and Chairman of the Committee was asked to explain, with reference to paragraph 11 of Government Notification No. 173 of 7th May 1872, why no sanction of Government was obtained before the work was put in hand, or the instructions therein given were followed.

The Collector explains that construction of the road was at first sanctioned at Rs. 9,854 in 1872-73: hence no application was made for Government sanction. The work was commenced, and carried out agreeably to the estimates sanctioned, until the end of last year, when the flood of 1874 necessitated the construction of additional bridges, thus raising the expenditure to Rs. 10,423-15-7, i.e., Rs. 569-15-7 in excess of the original estimate. As the completion report of this road, showing excess expenditure above the estimate, came to hand at the end of the year 1874-75, it was laid before the Committee on the 2nd October, and the excess amount was paid on their approval.

12. Repairs.—The following roads, bungalows, and ferry boats, were completely repaired at a cost of Rs. 5,617-9-9, and Rs. 610-11-7 were expended in repairing village roads :—

	Rs.	A.	P.
Baghmari and Bolegurh road	1,111	1	3

Balighai and Madhub „	899	9	11
Ferry boat at Konti	64	9	9
Total ...	5,617	9	9

13. Routes for new roads were surveyed as follows :—

(1) For road from Piplee viâ Nimapara to Kakatpur.
(2) „ „ Hurekristudpore viâ Bigpore to Astrang.
(3) „ „ Balihanta viâ Bhubmeshur to Surdaipore.
(4) „ „ Pooree viâ Balighai and Gope to Madhub.

14. The Committee have resolved to carry out the following works during the year 1875-76, and the amount estimated for expenditure on them is stated against each item :—

15. The Committees have held meetings regularly, and worked very well under the careful direction of Mr. Armstrong.

16. Balasore District.—No original work was undertaken in this district during the year under report. The total sanctioned allotment was expended on repairs, maintenance, and establishment, &c. The Committee's report describes fully the works executed, and the annual account shows the expenditure on each work. In the annual account a sum of Rs. 1,206-14-2 has been shown under head "Original works;" but the Collector explains that it represents an unadjusted balance remaining over from 1873-74, which was shown under advances outstanding in that year's account. The same remark applies to the item of Rs. 100 on account of clearing Dhamra towing-path, for which no provision was made in the budget for 1874-75.

17. The expenditure on following works differs from the appropriation made in the sanctioned budget owing to subsequent transfers of funds from one work to another, sanctioned by this office agreeably to paragraph 12 of Government Notification No. 173, dated 7th May 1872 :—

Repairs to distillery road.	Repairs to Bhudruck station roads.
„ Bustah to Balliapal.	„ Baliapal to Kamarda.
„ Balasore to Basoodepore.	„ Ferries.

18. For the works proposed to be done during 1875-76 the Collector reports as follows:—

"For the year 1875-76 the sum of Rs. 6,400 has been assigned to the maintenance and repair of roads other than village roads, Rs. 500 to the construction and repairs of ferry boats, and Rs. 500 to village roads. The sum of Rs. 6,400, applied to the maintenance and repairs of 149 miles of road (excluding the new Barripadda and Moraigdon road to be added during the current year), gives somewhat less than Rs. 43 per mile. With this sum it is not intended to attempt any new works, except a few small culverts on roads Nos. 2, 3, and 11. Excluding the cost of these, which will be slight, the whole of the allotment will be expended on repairs to masonry and wooden bridges, renewal of metalling, repairs to earthwork, and surface dressing."

19. In all districts, with increased funds, much useful work remains to be done. The Committees are well aware of this, and have only refrained from increasing the rate until a reasonable time has elapsed, and the people acquire confidence in the working of the law. It is probable that next season the higher rate of cess will be voted, and funds thus obtained for extended operations. I fully appreciate and approve of the caution which has characterised the Committee's proceedings in not too hastily imposing the full rate.

20. So far the road cess law has worked smoothly and well, and I believe that it has been accepted by all classes without serious objection, and is likely to prove a most popular and useful measure, not only in providing funds for local roads and improvements, but as affording zemindars a clear insight into their assets, and ryots and tenure-holders a useful record of their rights and rents: thus securing confidence between landholders and tenants, and materially improving zemindary management.
